Jesus Land Julia Scheeres, 2010-05

One of the most compelling page turning memoirs to come along in years by turns jarring, shocking and funny, a keenly moving ode to the dream of perfect family. Sinners go to HELL. Righteous go to HEAVEN. The end is near. REPENT. This here is JESUS LAND. Julia Scheeres stumbles across these signs along the side of a cornfield while out biking with her adopted brother David. It's the mid 1980s, they're sixteen years old and have just moved to rural Indiana, a landscape of cottonwood trees and trailer parks and a racism neither of them is prepared for. While Julia is white, her close relationship with David, who is black, makes them both outcasts. At home, a distant mother more involved with her church's missionaries than with her own children and a violent father only compound their problems. When the day comes that high school hormones, bullying and a deep seated restlessness prove too much to bear, the parents send Julia and David to the Dominican Republic to a reform school. There, in this riveting memoir, first time author Scheeres takes us with her from the Midwest to a place beyond our imagining. Surrounded by natural beauty, the Escuela Caribe is governed by a disciplinary regime that demands its teens repent for their sins under boot camp conditions. Julia and David's determination to make it through with heart and soul intact is told here with immediacy, candor, sparkling humor and not a note of malice.
