Handbook Of Political Science Research On The Middle East And North Africa:

Handbook of Political Science Research on the Middle East and North Africa Bernard Reich,1998-05-21

Facilitating research on Middle Eastern and North African politics this volume is a major reference work A series of chapters describe the post World War II research on the politics of the states and of the Palestinians of the region The literature on international relations of the region is reviewed and the approach to political economy is discussed Written by the foremost experts on their respective subjects the chapters also identify the gaps in the literature and fruitful areas for future research The chapter references constitute a bibliographical treasure for those seeking to study the politics of the region Annotations enable the reader to better select works for further research This volume provides a complete analysis of the state of the field an agenda for future research and a detailed annotated bibliography of the best research published Political Science Research in the Middle East and North Africa Janine A. Clark,Francesco Cavatorta,2018 In conducting political science research today one s methodology is of paramount concern Yet despite the obvious chasm between theory and practice that all scholars experience in the field there are no specific guidebooks on meeting the methodological and ethical challenges that fieldwork presents Political Science Research in the Middle East and North Africa helps fill this vacuum focusing specifically on doing research in the one of the most important regions in contemporary world politics Janine A Clark and Francesco Cavatorta have gathered together a large and diverse group of researchers who study the region and focus on methodological lessons learned from their first hand experiences of employing a variety of research methods while conducting fieldwork The contributors also look at the challenges of conducting field research in a variety of contexts such as in areas of violence and using research methods such as interviewing and ethnography This volume will therefore be an invaluable companion book to more standard methods books and a useful tool not just for Middle East scholars but for all researchers conducting research in complex settings

War and Conflict in the Middle East and North Africa Ariel I. Ahram, 2020-09-29 For much of the last half century the Middle East and North Africa MENA has seemed the outlier in global peace Today Iraq Libya Israel Palestine Yemen and Syria are not just countries but synonyms for prolonged and brutal wars But why is MENA so exceptionally violent More importantly can it change Exploring the causes and consequences of wars and conflicts in this troubled region Ariel Ahram helps readers answer these questions In Part I Ahram shows how MENA's conflicts evolved with the formation of its states Violence varied from civil wars and insurgencies to traditional interstate conflicts and affected some countries more frequently than others The strategies rulers employed to stay in power constrained how they recruited trained and equipped their armies Part II explores dynamics that trap the region in conflict oil dependence geopolitical interference and embedded identity cleavages The catastrophic wars of the 2010s reflect the confounding effects of these traps culminating in state collapse and intervention from the US and Russia as well as regional powers like Iran Saudi Arabia and the UAE Finally Ahram considers the possibilities of peace highlighting the disjuncture between local peacebuilding and national and internationally backed mediation War and Conflict in the Middle East and North Africa will be an essential resource for students of peace and security studies and MENA politics and anyone wanting to move beyond headlines and soundbites to understand the historical and social roots of MENA s conflicts International Relations of the Middle East Louise L'Estrange Fawcett,2016 Now in its fourth edition International Relations of the Middle East provides a thematic overview of the subject combining a history of the region with analysis of key themes actors and conflicts as well as topical material and perspectives Information Sources of Political Science Stephen W. Green,Douglas J. Ernest,2005-07-15 A thoroughly revised and updated new edition of the world s leading comprehensive bibliography of American and international politics The eagerly anticipated new edition of the widely acclaimed Information Sources of Political Science is the most comprehensive English language political bibliography available offering the surest way for students and researchers to get straight to the information they need Like no other volume it provides a fully rounded view of the field both in the United States and internationally including relevant works in history economics sociology and education Its 2 500 entries cover a wide variety of source types indexing and abstracting services major bibliographical tools encyclopedias dictionaries handbooks directories statistical compilations and more In addition this edition is the first to feature substantial coverage of electronic resources both databases and Internet sites Each source receives its own annotation with entries grouped in categories to bring together like works for easy comparison This work is a cornerstone reference for academic and public libraries Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan,Atoma Batoma,2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers Hearings United States. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1971 The Information Specialist's Guide to Searching and Researching on the Internet and the World Wide Web Ernest Ackermann, Karen Hartman, 2014-06-11 Written by a professor of computer science and a reference librarian this guide covers basic browser usage e mail and discussion groups discusses such Internet staples as FTP and Usenet newsgroups presents and compares numerous search engines and includes models for acquiring evaluating and citing resources within the context of a research project The emphasis of the book is on learning how to create search strategies and search expressions how to evaluate information critically and how to cite resources All of these skills are presented as within the context of step by step activities designed to teach basic Internet research skills to the beginner and to hone the skills of the seasoned practitioner

Handbook Of Political Science Research On The Middle East And North Africa: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Handbook Of Political Science Research On The Middle East And North Africa : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
