Handbook of Research on Teacher Education W. Robert Houston, Martin Haberman, John P. Sikula, 1990 Beyond the Comparative John C. Weidman, W. James Jacob, 2012-01-01 We are pleased to introduce this inaugural volume in the PSCIE Series Beyond the Comparative Advancing Theory and Its Application to Practice which expands on the life work of University of Pittsburgh Professor Rolland G Paulston 1929 2006 Recognized as a stalwart in the field of comparative and international education Paulston s most widely recognized contribution is in social cartography He demonstrated that mapping comparative international and development education CIDE is no easy task and depending on the perspective of the mapper there may be multiple cartographies to chart The 35 contributors to this volume representing a range of senior and junior scholars from various CIDE backgrounds and perspectives celebrate the life and work of Paulston by addressing issues perspectives and approaches related to charting the future course of the field The volume reports on new research in several genres as well as conceptual analysis As the title suggests authors were encouraged to go beyond established canons of CIDE The cover art The CIDE Theoretical Compass was conceptualized by the editors and depicts that theory selection and theory generation are an ongoing and important process in comparative international and development education CIDE The image was designed by artist Natalie Jacob which positions the CIDE Theoretical Compass over Rolland G Paulston s 1993 concentric circle map

Sociological Foundations of Education Claire Maxwell,Miri Yemini,Laura Engel,2023-03-23 This volume introduces sociology as a foundational discipline of education Education is a central structuring mechanism in shaping societies making it a core focus for sociology Sociologists study education in its broadest sense as occurring within families communities and provided by institutions The purposes of formal education are contested and these contestations shape broader power relations locally nationally and globally Sociologists disaggregate processes within education to examine empirically and theoretically the various levels at which they operate This allows them to describe and make sense of the ways that relations of inequality are developed reproduced or unsettled and how these shape individual and group experiences and outcomes About the Educational Foundations series Education as an academic field taught at universities around the world emerged from a range of older foundational disciplines The Educational Foundations series comprises six volumes each covering one of the foundational disciplines of philosophy history sociology policy studies economics and law This is the first reference work to provide an authoritative and up to date account of all six disciplines showing how each field s ideas methods theories and approaches can contribute to research and practice in education today The six volumes cover the same set of key topics within education which also form the chapter titles Mapping the Field Purposes of Education Curriculum Schools and Education Systems Learning and Human Development Teaching and Teacher Education Assessment and Evaluation This structure allows readers to study the volumes in isolation by discipline or laterally by topic and facilitates a comparative thematic reading of chapters across the volumes Throughout the series attention is paid to how the disciplines comprising the educational foundations speak to social justice concerns such as gender and racial equality

Teacher Quality and Teacher Education Quality Nicholas Michelli,Robin Dada,Deborah Eldridge,Rana Tamim,Karen Karp,2016-10-14 Accreditation of teacher education programs is increasingly embraced internationally and is being modeled after the American experience despite criticisms from some in the field of teacher education in the United States This book examines the transformation of accreditation and the interest and perception of nations and regions choosing to use the model in their own culture including the Middle East and Gulf Region South America and the United Kingdom Its distinctive edge is the juxtaposition of three sectors quality assurance accreditation teacher preparation and global international experiences The authors address how the adoption of a universal requirement for accreditation embraces a particular view of what teacher quality means The emphasis on the development of teacher preparation in concert with accreditation is of academic interest to scholars in the United States and abroad The experiences and voices of teacher educators as international colleagues in a global climate of accountability brings a fresh perspective on shared challenges
