L. Walker, C. P. Lumpkin, 2013-05 History of the Waco Baptist Association of Texas By J L Walker and C P Lumpkin Introduction The Baptists have been negligent concerning their history This is true not only with reference to important associational history but of historical events in the wider fields of denominational activity In view of this widespread delinquency concerning this most important matter it is supremely gratifying to note the compilation of so valuable a work as brethren Walker and Lumpkin have given to the Baptists of Waco Association and the state at large There are several points about the history of Waco Association worthy of special note Great labor has been expended in gathering materials and most diligent research has been made to secure correct data of every church preacher or leading worker within our bounds The life sketches have been carefully prepared and are true records of the lives of the brethren whom we know and love so well The work is a veritable picture album and the cuts presented would do credit to a book of much larger pretensions than the one before us The organization of Waco Association was foundation work The men who laid this foundation were among the greatest and wisest men our state has ever known The constitution of the Association was at that day unique and struck boldly into new thoughts and plans for the great world wide work of apostolic evangelization It was just such a constitution as was needed for the foundation of a great Association and that those who laid this Association builded well is evidenced in the fact that Waco Association is to day the leading Association of Texas in its contributions to missions in the compactness of its organization and in its supreme loyalty to the general organized work of the denomination The Articles of Faith are the most widely accepted compendium of Baptist principles known to me They were adopted by Waco Association before Pendleton s Manual was published and only one year after the publication of the first edition of Hiscox s Directory In some respects it is a more carefully worded document than is found in either Hiscox or Pendleton If I were asked to suggest a model declaration of Baptist principles I would not go further than the Articles of Faith of Waco Association Of course these Articles are popularly known as the New Hampshire confession Not only do I most heartily commend the work to all the churches of the Waco Association but bespeak for it state wide circulation It seems to me that it is rendering good service to our people to place such a history within their reach It will not only be useful to Waco Association but may be made very helpful to others and I indulge the hope that it may lead to the Windham Press is committed to bringing the lost cultural heritage of ages past into the 21st century through high quality reproductions of original classic printed works at affordable prices This book has been carefully crafted to utilize the original images of antique books rather than error prone OCR text This also preserves the work of the original typesetters of these classics unknown craftsmen who laid out the text often by hand of each and every page you will read Their subtle art involving judgment and interaction with the text is in many ways superior and more human than the mechanical methods utilized today and gave each book a unique hand crafted feel in its text that connected the reader organically to the art of bindery and book making We think these benefits are worth the occasional imperfection resulting from the age of these books at the time of scanning and their vintage feel provides a connection to the past that goes beyond the mere words of the text
