Inheriting Paradise Meditations On Gardening:

Inheriting Paradise Vigen Guroian, 1999-04-14 The garden is a personal place of retreat and delight and labor for many people Gardening helps us collect ourselves much as praying does For rich and poor it makes no difference a garden is a place where body and soul are in harmony In Inheriting Paradise Vigen Guroian offers an abundant vision of the spiritual life found in the cultivation of God's good creation Capturing the earthiness and sacramental character of the Christian faith these uplifting meditations bring together the experience of space and time through the cycle of the seasons in the garden and relate this fundamental human experience to the cycle of the church year and the Christian seasons of grace The tilling of fresh earth the sowing of seeds the harvesting of rhubarb and roses dillweed and daffodils Guroian finds in the garden our most concrete connection with life and God's gracious giving His personal reflections on this connection complemented here by delicate woodcut illustrations offer a compelling entry into Christian spirituality Inheriting Paradise Vigen

Places of Enchantment Graham Usher, 2012-10-18 There is a great and honourable tradition of finding God in landscapes Many who have given up on church appreciate the spiritual benefits they gain from climbing a mountain or walking in nature But how and why do we encounter God in land forest river mountain desert garden sea and sky That is what Graham Usher explores in this captivating volume which takes us from the giant Redwoods of the Californian Sierra Nevada to the jagged New York skyline from the wilds of the ancient Scottish Highlands to the rolling pastures of English Shropshire Drawing on material from biblical and church history traditions as well as scientific research and contemporary art he seeks to ascertain how such encounters support our Christian pilgrimage and challenge our assumptions

The Gardened Soul David White, 2025-07-29 Gardens have always been places where people sought meaning From Eden to Gethsemane from Versailles to Kew from Powerscourt to Altamont something of these places resonated with people's souls as they yearned to connect to more Styles of gardens have changed down the millennia as have the lifestyles of those who created and gardened them but what has remained constant has been the human desire for wholeness holiness and connection As much as we have created and cultivated gardens they have had their effects on us In other words our souls have been gardened This book addresses how a receptive engagement with gardening as a spiritual practice can allow for the emergence of a sacred environment where emotions can lead the soul deeper into the experience of more particularly into the development of other embodied spiritual practices The two specific emotions examined are love and sadness which are explored as they grow into the embodied practices of gratitude and everyday joy respectively The emotional experiences in the garden incite wonder excitement and connection nurturing the soul and lead onward towards discerning what embodied spiritual practices may be needed for the journey ahead Our souls are gardened
