Innovation Corrupted Malcolm S. Salter, 2002 This paper presents a brief historical overview of Enron's rise and fall and summarizes what the authors currently know about 1 the evolution of Enron's business model 2 those organizational processes relied upon by senior Enron officials to drive and monitor the business 3 emergent behavior related to the structuring management and valuation of major partnerships and 4 oversight provided by Enron's management and board of directors It concludes by posing the question of how Enron's story as a new post deregulation corporate model could have escaped critical analysis by the financial community the business press and other observers for so long As such this paper is an exercise in description not interpretation Since many of the facts about Enron's rise and fall have yet to be determined and agreed upon this description must be considered tentative and incomplete Nevertheless the broad contours of the Enron story presented in this paper provide a sufficient basis for developing initial hypotheses about what might have caused such a swift and ignominious fall and what business and public policies might best protect employees shareholders and other relevant parties in the future from the kind of injuries experienced in Enron's swift decline into bankruptcy

Corruption and Innovation Marcelo Veracierto, 2008-10 Illustrates how corruption can affect an industry's rate of innovation An interesting result of the analysis is that under certain parameter ranges small increases in the penalties to corruption or the effectiveness of detection can result in large increases in product innovation Charts and tables

The War on Corruption in China Sunny L. Yang, 2022-12-30 Having engaged in an intensified war against corruption for more than four decades since the period of reform and opening up China is now at a turning point in its anti corruption agenda Many believe that building government integrity has been a top down process in China and the anti corruption strategies taken by the current administration seem to have confirmed it This book challenges the view by analyzing local anti corruption innovations in recent years and argues for the importance of bottom up efforts in controlling corruption The book attempts to answer the question of whether the rise of local anti corruption innovations has helped China to pursue anti corruption reform more effectively and if so why It proceeds to analyze the major patterns of local anti corruption innovations the ways in which they have been initiated and implemented and the factors influencing their success or failure The book includes more than 400 cases of local innovative anti corruption reforms in China in recent years This book will be a useful reference for those interested in learning more about anti corruption studies and also contributes to the study of corruption and anti corruption reform in China by providing solid and fresh evidence of anti corruption innovation by local governments Corruption and Entrepreneurship

Mohammad Heydari,2024-04-01 This book examines corruption as a collective behavior problem for entrepreneurs In particular it considers Azjen s theory of planned behavior TPB to explain perceived corruption and its effects on entrepreneurship Heydari argues that behavioral intentions are shaped by variables such as attitude subjective norms and perceived behavioral control He proposes the novel Heydari Behavioral Synthesis Theory HBST model and applies it to two case studies to highlight the institutional individual and societal factors that may inhibit entrepreneurial behavior He concludes that corruption may persist not just because of difficulties in monitoring and prosecuting but because it is systemically pervasive and discourages individual countermeasures He closes by looking at anti corruption policies and outlining future research directions Arguing that widespread corruption may be theoretically mischaracterized in the literature this book is of interest to policy makers researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of management science industrial and organizational psychology entrepreneurship and corruption studies Multinational Enterprises, Markets and Institutional Diversity Alain Verbeke,Rob van Tulder,Sarianna Lundan,2014-10-29 This research volume in honour of the late Daniel Van Den Bulcke one of the founding fathers of the European Business Academy EIBA and a core institution builder of the Academy of International Business AIB focuses on conceptual innovations in assessing the impact of institutions on multinational enterprise MNE strategies Multinational Enterprise Management Strategies in Developing
