Papa's five-year-old daughter Faithe would be the oldest witness of seeing her mama burning to death. As a result, she would live a lifetime of depression and mental illness, leaving her to become an abusive wife and mother. A son who suffered emotional and physical abuse at the hands of his mother himself would lead a life of severe depression and acute anxiety. The emotionally and physically abused son will share five escapes or places of refuge which helped him endure his eight-year continued abuse. Speaking the Truth in Love Daniel R. Berger, 2007-01-01 Approaching public communication from a liberal arts point of view, Speaking the Truth in Love provides a distinctly Christian perspective of rhetoric. Written and oral rhetoric are interwoven throughout the text. Two foundational ideas control the majority of the text. The first is from Plato's Phaedrus as stated by Paul in Ephesians 4:15, speaking the truth in love. The second is from the Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 4:11, if anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God. The spiritual responsibility of communicating truth in accordance with the nature of God, especially the virtue of love, is an awesome privilege and opportunity. Sound content, spoken or written eloquently with charisma, will enable words to have a maximum impact. The text is designed to be a culminating learning experience for undergraduate communication programs or as an introductory text for graduate programs involving public communication. Beginning with a philosophy of language, meaning, and interaction, argument is built against secular deconstructive thought where everyone has a different truth based on language. Alongside philosophy, we explore ethics and theology from an evangelical perspective. Following this, a brief history outlines rhetorical thought from pre-testament classics to today. Based upon these ideas, we take a closer look at communication theory as it relates to public communication. Finally, the text addresses the practice of both written and oral communication.

Must Love Trees Tobin Mitnick, 2023-03-28 Tobin Mitnick, JewsLoveTrees creator and shameless tree lover, leads you the tree curious through the wonderful world of North American trees with fact, opinion, and humor. In Must Love Trees, Mitnick invites you to share his deeply personal connection to our forest companions in ways that expand the storied genre of nature writing. From an imagined dialogue with the world's oldest bristlecone pine to the minutiae of tree huggability to the emotional toll of taking up the practice of bonsai, this fresh take into the world of trees is divided into three equally humorous and insightful sections. The first section discusses Mitnick's personal opinions and relationship with trees, while the second section describes the science behind trees, from tree botany to tree biology to tree ecology. In the final section, Mitnick answers the question, "Who would these trees be if they all attended high school together?" Tobin's detailed description of a tree in action and his thorough run-down of our most treasured North American trees, all 100 of whom happen to be classmates at Tree High North America, makes this compilation an original and occasionally outlandish guide for both the budding and seasoned tree lover. Must Love
