Love Barbara H. Rosenwein, 2021-09-21 We make sense of love with fantasies stories that shape feelings that are otherwise too overwhelming incoherent and wayward to be tamed For love is a complex bewildering and ecstatic emotion covering a welter of different feelings and moral judgments Drawing on poetry fiction letters memoirs and art and with the aid of a rich array of illustrations historian Barbara H Rosenwein explores five of our most enduring fantasies of love like minded union transcendent rapture selfless giving obsessive longing and insatiable desire Each has had a long and tangled history with lasting effects on how we in the West think about love today Yet each leads to a different conclusion about what we should strive for in our relationships If only we could peel back the layers of love and discover its true essence But love doesn't work like that it is constructed on the shards of experience story and feeling shared over time intertwined with other fantasies By understanding the history of how we have loved Rosenwein argues we may better navigate our own tumultuous experiences and perhaps write our own scripts The Prose Works ...: A posthumous treatise on the Christian doctrine ...
