Jewish and Non-Jewish Creators of "Jewish" Languages Paul Wexler,2006 The present volume brings together 34 articles that were published between 1964 and 2003 on Judaized forms of Arabic Chinese German Greek Persian Portuguese Slavic including Modern Hebrew and Yiddish two Slavic languages relexified to Hebrew and German respectively Spanish and Semitic Hebrew including Ladino the Ibero Romance relexification of Biblical Hebrew and Karaite The motivations for reissuing these articles are the convenience of having thematically similar topics appear together in the same venue and the need to update the interpretations many of which have radically changed over the years As explained in a lengthy new preface and in notes added to the articles themselves the impetus to create strikingly unique Jewish ethnolects comes not so much from the creativity of the Jews but rather from non Jewish converts to Judaism in search often via relexification of a unique linguistic analogue to their new ethnoreligious identity The volume should be of interest to students of relexification of the Judaization of non Jewish languages and of these specific languages

Science and Catholicism in Argentina (1750-1960) Miguel de Asúa,2022-05-09 Science and Catholicism in Argentina 1750 1960 is the first comprehensive study on the relationship between science and religion in a Spanish speaking country with a Catholic majority and a Latin pattern of secularisation The text takes the reader from Jesuit missionary science in colonial times through the conflict ridden 19th century to the Catholic revival of the 1930s in Argentina The diverse interactions between science and religion revealed in this analysis can be organised in terms of their dynamic of secularisation The indissoluble identification of science and the secular which operated at rhetorical and institutional levels among the liberal elite and the socialists in the 19th century lost part of its force with the emergence of Catholic scientists in the course of the 20th century In agreement with current views that deny science the role as the driving force of secularisation this historical study concludes that it was the process of secularisation that shaped the interplay between religion and science not the other way around

Annual Report of the Pennsylvania Agency of the American Tract Society American Tract Society. Pennsylvania Branch,1856 New Frontiers in Guadalupan Studies Virgilio Elizondo,Timothy Matovina,2014-09-18 Historical writings on Our Lady of Guadalupe the most revered sacred figure indigenous to the western hemisphere have tended to focus on the sixteenth century origins of her cult But recent publications have increasingly extended Guadalupan studies beyond the origin debates to analyses of the subsequent evolution and immense influence of the Guadalupe tradition New Frontiers in Guadalupan Studies significantly enhances this growing body of literature with insightful essays on topics that span the early stages of Guadalupan devotion to the milestone of Pope Benedict XIV establishing an official liturgical feast for Guadalupe in 1754 The volume also breaks new ground in theological analyses of Guadalupe which comprise an ongoing effort to articulate a Christian response to one of the most momentous events of Christianity s second millennium the conquest evangelization and struggles for life dignity and self determination of the peoples of the Americas Rethinking Zapotec Time David Tavárez,2022-02-08 In 1702 after the brutal suppression of a Zapotec revolt the bishop of Oaxaca proclaimed an amnesty for idolatry in exchange for collective confessions To evade conflict Northern Zapotec communities denounced ritual specialists and surrendered sacred songs and 102 divinatory manuals which preserve cosmological accounts exchanges with divine beings and protocols of pre Columbian origin that strongly resemble sections of the Codex Borgia These texts were sent to Spain as evidence of failed Dominican evangelization efforts and there they remained in oblivion until the 1960s In this book

David Tav rez dives deep into this formidable archive of ritual and divinatory manuals the largest calendar corpus in the colonial Americas and emerges with a rich understanding of Indigenous social and cultural history Mesoamerican theories of cosmos and time and Zapotec ancestor worship Drawing on his knowledge of Zapotec and Nahuatl two decades of archival research and a decade of fieldwork Tav rez dissects Mesoamerican calendars as well as Native resistance and accommodation to the colonial conquest of time while also addressing entangled transatlantic histories and shining new light on texts still connected to contemporary observances in Zapotec communities The Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius of Loyola Terence O'Reilly, 2020-10-20 In The Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius Loyola Contexts Sources Reception Terence O'Reilly examines the historical theological and literary contexts in which the Exercises took shape The collected essays have as their common theme the early history of the Spiritual Exercises and the interior life of Ignatius Loyola to which they give expression The traditional interpretation of the Exercises was shaped by writings composed in the late sixteenth century reflecting the preoccupations of the Counter Reformation world in which they were composed The Exercises however belong in their origins to an earlier period before the Council of Trent and the full recognition of this fact and of its implications has confronted modern scholars with fresh questions about the sources evolution and reception of the work Publications of the American Tract Society, September, 1864 American Tract Society, New York, 1864
