

1. Meeting

‘YES,’ said Tom bluntly, on opening the front door.
‘What d’you want?’

A harassed middle-aged woman in a green coat and felt hat stood on his step. He glanced at the armband on her sleeve. She gave him an awkward smile.

‘I’m the billeting officer for this area,’ she began.

‘Oh yes, and what’s that got to do wi’ me?’

She flushed slightly. ‘Well, Mr, Mr . . .’

‘Oakley. Thomas Oakley.’

‘Ah, thank you, Mr Oakley.’ She paused and took a deep breath. ‘Mr Oakley, with the declaration of war imminent . . .’

Tom waved his hand. ‘I knows all that. Git to the point. What d’you want?’ He noticed a small boy at her side.

‘It’s him I’ve come about,’ she said. ‘I’m on my way to your village hall with the others.’

‘What others?’

She stepped to one side. Behind the large iron gate which stood at the end of the graveyard were a small group of

A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English Margaret Mallett,2015-10-23 A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential education writers to provide insight guidance and clarity about key issues affecting early years practitioners and primary English teachers The book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms The extracts are accompanied by a summary of the key ideas and issues raised questions to promote discussion and reflective practice and annotated further reading lists to extend thinking Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme the chapters cover Models of and approaches to early years and primary English Speaking and listening in English lessons story telling drama booktalk and debate Reading and responding to texts in English lessons Writing in English lessons finding a voice Knowledge about language grammar spelling punctuation and handwriting The rich landscape of children s literature Non fiction in English lessons Planning assessing and recording children s progress the learning cycle Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers those working towards Masters level qualifications and all those involved in the teaching of early years and primary English this accessible but critically provocative text will be an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of early years and primary English education Styles of Discourse Nikolas Coupland,2016-11-18 First published in 1988 this book focuses on diversity and discourse and collects contemporaneous research across a wide range of topics including description polemic narrative analysis DJ talk philosophical history conversation children s books and nuclear deterrence The essays demonstrate analyses of discourse in the service of stylistic inquiry exploring relationships of text and context This reflects the overall argument that discourse analyses aiming to represent diversity of social context will necessarily approach the task selectively since all dimensions are of potential relevance to any and every communicative manifestation Some of contextual dimensions that are addressed include interpersonal socio structural modal ideological and pragmatic Drama and Reading for Meaning Ages 4-11

Lorraine S. Harrison, 2022-04-19 Drama and Reading for Meaning Ages 4-11 contains over 40 creative drama ideas to help develop reading for meaning in the primary school. The wide range of clearly explained structured and engaging drama activities will appeal to all primary practitioners who wish to develop more creative approaches to the teaching of reading. The activities show how drama can develop some of the skills associated with reading for meaning such as empathising with characters' feelings, exploring settings and themes and making inferences based on evidence. The step-by-step activities range from familiar classroom drama strategies such as freeze frames and hot seating to less well known approaches involving whole class drama experiences. The book also serves as an introduction to using drama as a learning medium with advice on how to set the ground rules and clear explanations of the drama strategies. Each chapter has a detailed explanation of what to do followed by a number of examples linked to quality texts including poetry and non-fiction. From bringing books to life in reception and Years 1 and 2 to peeling back the layers of meanings in Years 3 to 6, all the drama activities in this book are designed to improve reading for meaning and help motivate children to read for pleasure, making this an essential resource for all primary settings.
