Carnal Desire M. James, A romance with a mafia boss has no place in my life But he doesn't care not once he's decided he wants me anyway Six months after my father's untimely death I'm drowning in debt Even working for one of the most respected celebrity tattoo artists in Los Angeles hasn't been enough to fix that I don't have time to fall in love or even to think about dating Even a one night stand has become a distant possibility Then my boss asks me to fill in for him while he's sick and I end up in a west LA penthouse about to tattoo the most well known mafia boss on this side of the country I'm only supposed to see him once But there's no telling him no Not when he asks for me to be his artist instead of my boss and not when he convinces me to let down my walls one after another making me forget that the two of us are worlds apart and that we should never have met at all Until a night of carelessness leads to a secret I don't dare tell him about and upends everything I've ever planned for my life But the man I've fallen for isn't a man I can easily run from He says I'm everything he never knew he wanted And what he desires he gets
