The Aesthetic Economy of Fashion Joanne Entwistle, 2009-11-15 Fashion is bound up with promoting the new concerned with constantly changing aesthetics The favored styles or looks of a season arise out of the work of a vast range of different actors who collectively produce select distribute and promote the new ideals before moving on next season If fashion is defined in part by the incessant requirement to be new this requirement means aesthetic qualities are always in motion and therefore unstable How then are fashionable commodities stabilized long enough for them to be calculated i e selected distributed and sold by those critically placed inside the fashion system Since there are few studies that actually examine the work that goes on inside the world of fashion we know little about these processes Fashion and the Cultural Economy addresses this gap in our knowledge by examining how aesthetic products are defined distributed and valued It focuses attention on the work of some of the market agents in particular model agents or bookers and fashion buyers shaping the aesthetics inside their markets In analyzing their work Entwistle develops a theoretical framework for understanding the distinctive features of aesthetic marketplaces and the aesthetic calculations within them African Dress Karen Tranberg Hansen, D. Costuming Cosplay Therèsa M. Winge, 2018-11-01 Cosplay short for costume play has grown from its origins at fan conventions into a billion dollar global dress phenomenon Costuming Cosplay takes us from elaborately crafted DIY costumes to online fandoms examining how the practice of portraying fictional characters from popular culture through dress and performance has become a creative means of expressing and playing with different identities. With an approach that ranges from admiration and role play to gender performance, this is the first book to fully examine the subculture and costume of the Cosplay phenomenon. Drawing on extensive first hand research at conventions across North America and Asia, Theresa M. Winge invites us to explore how Cosplay functions as a meritocracy of creativity, escapism and disguise, and offers a creative realm in which fantasy and new forms of socializing carry as much importance as costume. Illustrated with color photographs of both celebrity and amateur Cosplayers, Costuming Cosplay is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion and costume, popular culture, anthropology, gender and media studies, as well as global players and fans of Cosplay.

Street Style Brent Luvaas, 2016-04-07 Winner of the 2019 John Collier Jr Award. Street style blogging has experienced a meteoric rise in popularity over the last decade. Amateur photographers, often with no formal training in fashion, have become critical arbiters of taste and trends, influencing the representations that appear in magazines and on runways, and putting new cities on the fashion world map. This cutting edge book documents the evolution of street style photography from the fieldwork photos of early anthropology to the glamorized snapshots that appear on blogs today, and explores the structural shifts in the global fashion industry that street style has helped bring about. Chronicling author and anthropologist Brent Luvaas' experience over three years of blogging through vivid street imagery and rich ethnographic detail, this book turns the lens of street style photography back onto anthropology itself, arguing that the phenomenon is a powerful mode of amateur ethnography. Bloggers blur the distinction between professional and amateur, insider and outsider, self and brand. This book documents that blur from the ground level from the streets of Philadelphia to the sidewalks of New York Fashion Week. Street Style is an essential read for students and scholars of fashion, anthropology, sociology, media and cultural studies, and fans of street style photography alike.
