Governing Cultures Anthropological Perspectives On Political Labor Power And Government:

Governing Cultures K. Coulter, W. Schumann, 2012-09-03 By assembling original ethnographically grounded research in legislatures executives and bureaucracies this volume illuminates and unpacks the structures practices and values of government actors in local regional and national contexts Entangled Heritages Olaf Kaltmeier, Mario Rufer, 2016-07-01 Relying on the concept of a shared history this book argues that we can speak of a shared heritage that is common in terms of the basic grammar of heritage and articulated histories but divided alongside the basic difference between colonizers and colonized This problematic is also evident in contemporary uses of the past The last decades were crucial to the emergence of new debates subcultures new identities hidden voices and multicultural discourse as a kind of new hegemonic platform also involving concepts of heritage and or memory Thereby we can observe a proliferation of heritage agents especially beyond the scope of the nation state This volume gets beyond a container vision of heritage that seeks to construct a diachronical continuity in a given territory Instead authors point out the relational character of heritage focusing on transnational and translocal flows and interchanges of ideas concepts and practices as well as on the creation of contact zones where the meaning of heritage is negotiated and contested Exploring the relevance of the politics of heritage and the uses of memory in the consolidation of these nation states as well as in the current disputes over resistances hidden memories undermined pasts or the politics of nostalgia this book seeks to seize the local global dimensions around heritage

The Everyday Politics of Food Co-ops Celia Plender, 2025-05-01 National politics has a significant impact on organizing and accessing community welfare This book engages with notions of everyday politics within two London based food co ops emerging from different political environments and ideologies It provides a careful and engaging examination of the experiences of political and economic change in Austerity Britain revealing how national politics came to punctuate everyday lives within the co ops It highlights the political resonances that practices of care aid and community organizing came to have within the food co ops at a time of rapid welfare withdrawal as well as the tensions between more radical and neoliberal imaginaries that played out within them Transpacific Americas Eveline Dürr, Philipp Schorch, 2015-12-07 This volume explores cultural social and economic connections between the Americas and the South Pacific It reaches beyond Sino American collaborations to focus on rather neglected and sometimes invisible Southern linkages asking how these connections originated and have developed over time which local responses they have generated and what impact these processes have in the region in terms of representational forms and strategies new cultural practices and empowerment of individuals in post colonial contexts The volume also compares and contrasts intriguing parallels of politics and identity formation By extending the focus beyond East Asia to the Southern Pacific region including Island connections with the Americas the volume provides a more comprehensive understanding of recent dynamics and shifting relations across the Pacific By approaching the Transpacific Americas as an assemblage or relational space which is created and becomes meaningful through multiple localities and their translocal connections the book complicates the Euro American distinction between centre and rim While the collection offers a distinctive geographical focus it simultaneously emphasizes the translocal qualities of specific locations through their entanglements in transpacific assemblages within and across cultural social and economic spheres Furthermore without neglecting the inextricable historical dimension of anthropological perspectives the focus is on the diverse and unexpected contemporary forms of cultural social and economic encounters and engagements and on re emerging Indigenous networks Primarily based on empirical research the volume explores face to face encounters relations from below and transcultural interactions and relationships in as well as ideas and conceptualizations of cultural spaces across localities that have long been perceived as separate but are indeed closely interconnected

Conjuring the State A. Kim Clark, 2023-09-05 The Ecuadorian Public Health Service was founded in 1908 in response to the arrival of bubonic plague to the country A Kim Clark uses this as a point of departure to explore questions of social history and public health by tracing how the service extended the reach of its broader programs across the national landscape and into domestic spaces Delving into health conditions in the country especially in the highlands and efforts to combat disease she shows how citizens encounters with public health officials helped make abstract ideas of state government tangible By using public health as a window to understand social relations in a country deeply divided by region class and ethnicity Conjuring the State examines the cultural social and political effects of the everyday practices of public health officials

Making Policy Move Clarke, John, Bainton, Dave, Noémi Lendvai, Paul Stubbs, 2015-04-15 Responding to the increasing interest in the movement of policies between places sites and settings this timely book presents an alternative to critical approaches that center on ideas of policy transfer dissemination or learning With profound implications for policy studies contributors instead treat policy s movement as an active process of translation in which policies are interpreted inflected and reworked as they change location Mixing collectively written chapters with individual case studies of policies and practices this book provides an exciting accessible and novel analytical and methodological foundation for rethinking policy studies through translation

Posthumanism Alan Smart, Josephine Smart, 2017-01-01 Designed to explain posthumanism to those outside of academia this brief and accessible book makes an original argument about anthropology s legacy as a study of more than human Smart and Smart return to the holism of classic ethnographies where cattle pigs yams and sorcerers were central to the lives that were narrated by anthropologists but they extend the discussion to include contemporary issues like microbiomes the Anthropocene and nano machines which take holism beyond locally bounded spaces They outline what a holism without boundaries could look like and what anthropology could offer to the knowledge of more than human nature in the past present and future

Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Diets Kathleen Kevany, Paolo Prosperi, 2022-12-30 This handbook presents a must read comprehensive and state of the art overview of sustainable diets an issue critical to the environment and the health and well being of society Sustainable diets seek to minimise and mitigate the significant negative impact food production has on the environment Simultaneously they aim to address worrying health trends in food consumption through the promotion of healthy diets that reduce premature disability disease and death Within the Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Diets creative compassionate critical and collaborative solutions are called for across nations across disciplines and sectors In order to address these wide ranging issues the volume is split into sections dealing with environmental strategies health and well being education and public engagement social policies and food environments transformations and food movements economics and trade design and measurement mechanisms and food sovereignty Comprising of contributions from up and coming and established academics the handbook provides a global multi disciplinary assessment of sustainable diets drawing on case studies from regions across the world The handbook concludes with a call to action which provides readers with a comprehensive map of strategies that could dramatically increase sustainability and help to reverse global warming diet related non communicable diseases and oppression and racism This decisive collection is essential reading for students researchers practitioners and policymakers concerned with promoting sustainable diets and thus establishing a sustainable food system to ensure access to healthy and nutritious food for all Chapter 40 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Assembling Neoliberalism Vaughan Higgins, Wendy Larner, 2017-04-06 This book examines how neoliberalism is constituted from multiple diverse elements how these elements are brought together and made to cohere and the challenges contestations and consequences of such Informed by assemblage thinking the collection builds on research that emphasizes the forms of experimentation adaptation and mutation through which neoliberalism is enacted and rendered workable across different spaces Contributors provide original case studies on topics such as democratic administration carbon markets the sharing economy behavioral economics disease management free trade and youth volunteering They interrogate the forms of expertise through which neoliberalism is rendered knowable the diverse socio technical practices that make neoliberalism governable and the practices effects and tensions involved in the assembling of neoliberal subjects State Theory and Andean Politics Christopher Krupa, David Nugent, 2015-04-14 In the last few decades Andean states have seen major restructuring of the organization leadership and reach of their governments With these political tremors come major aftershocks regarding both definitions and expectations What is a state Who or what makes it up and where does it reside In what capacity can the state be expected to right wrongs raise people up protect them from harm maintain order or provide public services What are its powers and responsibilities State Theory and Andean Politics attempts to answer these questions and more through an examination of the ongoing process of state creation in Andean nations Focusing on the everyday extra official and frequently invisible or partially concealed permutations of rule in the lives of Andean people the essays explore the material and cultural processes by which states come to appear as real and tangible parts of everyday life In particular they focus on the critical role of emotion imagination and fantasy in generating belief in the state among the governed and the governing alike This approach pushes beyond the limits of the state as conventionally understood to consider how non state acts of governance intersect with official institutions of government while never being entirely determined by them or bound to their authorizing agendas State Theory and Andean Politics asserts that the state is not simply an institutional bureaucratic apparatus but one of many forces vying for a claim to legitimate political dominion Featuring an impressive array of Andeanist scholars as well as eminent state theorists Akhil Gupta and Gyanendra Pandey State Theory and Andean Politics makes a bold and novel claim about the nature of states and state making that deepens understanding not only of the Andes and Global South but of the world at large Contributors Kim Clark Nicole Fabricant Lesley Gill Akhil Gupta Christopher Krupa David Nugent Gyanendra Pandey Mercedes Prieto Maria Clemencia Ram rez Irene Silverblatt Karen Spalding Winifred Tate

Vegan Geographies Simon Springer, 2022-03-01 Veganism as an ethics and a practice has a recorded history dating back to Antiquity Yet it is only recently that researchers have begun the process of formalizing the study of veganism Whereas occasional publications have recently emerged from sociology history philosophy cultural studies or critical animal studies a comprehensive geographical analysis is missing Until now In fourteen chapters from a diverse group of scholars and living practitioners Vegan Geographies looks across space and scale exploring the appropriateness of vegan ethics among diverse social and cultural groups and within the midst of broader neoliberal economic and political frameworks that seek to commodify and marketize the movement Vegan Geographies fundamentally challenges outdated but still dominant human nature dualisms that underpin widespread suffering and ecological degradation providing practical and accessible pathways for people interested in challenging contemporary systems and working collectively toward less destructive worlds

Governing Educational Spaces Hans-Georg Kotthoff, Eleftherios Klerides, 2015-12-14 The governance of education in many countries and regions of the world is currently in transition challenging histories remaking subjectivities and shaping possible futures This book provides an up to date analysis and discussion of the cutting edge theme of educational governance from an international comparative perspective The volume explores the landscape of educational governance in its broadest sense considering new forms of steering leadership and management assessment and evaluation teaching and learning knowledge creation and the realities and possibilities for different forms of political engagement The new spatial dynamics of education are explored in institutional settings such as schools and universities and via professional groupings such as teachers administrators and leaders The chapters in this book are based on the best peer reviewed papers and keynote speeches which were delivered at the XXVI Conference of the Comparative Education Society in Europe CESE in June 2014 in Freiburg Germany Comparative Education is uniquely situated to explore the emerging dynamics of educational governance within changing and newly emerging educational spaces because it provides the opportunity to learn more about different local national or regional educational processes and trajectories and to share knowledge about the logics ideologies and impacts of different techniques and regimes of governance across Europe and beyond Hans Georg Kotthoff is Professor of Comparative Education and School Pedagogy at the University of Education Freiburg Germany and President of the Comparative Education Society in Europe CESE since 2012 Eleftherios Klerides is Lecturer in Comparative Education and History of Education at the University of Cyprus and the Secretary Treasurer of the Comparative Education Society in Europe CESE

Governing by Inspection Sotiria Grek,Joakim Lindgren,2014-09-19 In recent decades governing practices in education have become highly contradictory deregulation and decentralisation are accompanied by re regulation and increased centralisation contributing to considerable governing tensions in and across different national systems and within the emergent European education policy space On the one hand there is the persistence of performance monitoring through target setting indicators and benchmarks and on the other the promotion of self evaluation and light touch regulation that express a softer governance turn and promote self regulation as the best basis for constant improvement Drawing on research undertaken into three national systems this edited volume explores the attempts to manage these tensions in Europe through the development of inspection as a governing practice Inspectorates and inspectors offer key locations for the exploration of governing tensions positioned as they are between the international the national and the local and institutional and with responsibility for both regulation and development All three national systems offer contrasting approaches to inspection all of which have changed considerably in recent years Governing by Inspection positions inspection in the framework of changing education policy and politics and in a period of intensive policy development and exchange in Europe It will be key reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education political science and social policy

World Politics in Translation Tobias Berger,Alejandro Esguerra,2017-09-14 Virtually all pertinent issues that the world faces today such as nuclear proliferation climate change the spread of infectious disease and economic globalization imply objects that move However surprisingly little is known about how the actual objects of world politics are constituted how they move and how they change while moving This book addresses these questions through the concept of translation the simultaneous processes of object constitution transportation and transformation Translations occur when specific forms of knowledge about the environment international human rights norms or water policies consolidate travel and change World Politics in Translation conceptualizes translation for International Relations by drawing on theoretical insights from Literary Studies Postcolonial Scholarship and Science and Technology Studies The individual chapters explore how the concept of translation opens new perspectives on development cooperation the diffusion of norms and organizational templates the performance in and of international organizations or the politics of international security governance This book constitutes an excellent resource for students and scholars in the fields of Politics International Relations Social Anthropology Development Studies and Sociology Combining empirically grounded case studies with methodological reflection and theoretical innovation the book provides a powerful and productive

introduction to world politics in translation Context in Public Policy and Management Christopher Pollitt,2013-10-31
