International Water Law and the Human Right to Water Imad Antoine Ibrahim, 2024-11-19 This book examines the development of international law applicable to Transboundary Aquifers TBAs considering the Human Right to Water and Sanitation HRWS The purpose is to determine how International Water Law IWL and the HRWS can be harmonized in the context of TBAs This is important given rules and instruments adopted to address this topic are relatively nascent and the field itself is still in the process of developing regulatory frameworks Taking the application of the HRWS to shared aquifers as a case study the work discusses whether IWL and International Human Rights Law complement each other The response to this question requires an analysis of the development of International Groundwater Law and its challenges the evolution of the HRWS the nature of transboundary groundwaters and the interplay between these two fields The author argues that IWL agreements should contain a provision related to the HRWS to ensure the protection of this right with a stipulation included in the nonbinding instrument that tackles shared groundwaters the Draft Articles on the Law of Transboundary Aquifers adopted in 2008 through the United Nations General Assembly Resolution The book will be of interest to international lawyers water and human right experts geologists and anyone interested in water and human rights issues Explaining Foreign Policy in Post-Colonial Africa Stephen M. Magu, 2021-01-02 This book explores foreign policy developments in post colonial Africa A continental foreign policy is a tenuous proposition yet new African states emerged out of armed resistance and advocacy from regional allies such as the Bandung Conference and the League of Arab States Ghana was the first Sub Saharan African country to gain independence in 1957 Fourteen more countries gained independence in 1960 alone and by May 1963 when the Organisation of African Unity OAU was formed 30 countries were independent An early OAU committee was the African Liberation Committee ALC tasked to work in the Frontline States FLS to support independence in Southern Africa Pan Africanists in alliance with Brazzaville Casablanca and Monrovia groups approached continental unity differently and regionalism continued to be a major feature Africa s challenges were often magnified by the capitalist democratic versus communist socialist bloc rivalry but through Africa s use and leveraging of IGOs the UN UNDP UNECA GATT NIEO and others to advance development the formation of the African Economic Community OAU s evolution into the AU and other alliances belied collective actions even as Africa implemented decisions that required cooperation uti possidetis maintaining colonial borders containing secession intra and inter state conflicts rebellions and building RECs and a united Africa as envisioned by Pan Africanists worked better collectively International Water Scarcity and Variability Shlomi Dinar, Ariel Dinar, 2017 Introduction the debate on climate change and water security Theory of scarcity variability conflict and cooperation Emergence of cooperation under scarcity and variability Institutions and the stability of cooperative arrangements under scarcity and variability Incentives to cooperate political and economic instruments Evidence how do basin riparian countries cope with water scarcity and variability Conclusion and policy implications A Research Agenda for Water Law Vanessa Casado Pérez, Rhett Larson, 2023-08-14 This timely Research Agenda provides imaginative solutions to existing and emerging challenges for the study application and development of water law It argues for a dynamic approach to water law anticipating how water and its relationship to humanity will shift due to climate change modern societal norms and values and technological innovation Handbook on the Geopolitics of the Energy Transition Daniel

Scholten,2023-11-03 The energy transition is fundamentally transforming geopolitics with renewable energy and other decarbonization options reshaping existing energy markets trade flows and energy security strategies What new opportunities and challenges await us Will it pacify global energy relations or bring a perilous transition The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya,Toyin Falola,2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book s core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa Robert Mason,Simon Mabon,2022-01-25 The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa takes a deep dive into the complexities of power projection political rivalry and conflict across the Red Sea and beyond Focusing on the nature of interregional connections between the Gulf and the Horn it explores the multifaceted nature of relations between states and the two increasingly important subregions Bringing together scholars working on and in both regions the book considers strategic competition between Saudi Arabia and Iran and between the UAE and both Qatar and Turkey along with other international engagement such as joint anti piracy operations counterterrorism cooperation security assistance base agreements and economic development Drawing on a range of subject expertise and field research across case study countries the volume adds to the sparse literature on the regional and international politics of the Horn of Africa and Red Sea gleaning specific insights from contemporary reflections across the book This is essential reading for students and researchers interested in the Horn of Africa and the evolving regional geopolitics of the Gulf Protecting Minority Rights in African Countries John M. Mbaku,2018-01-26 In this enlightening book John Mukum Mbaku analyses the main challenges of constitutional design and the construction of governance institutions in Africa today He argues that the central issues are providing each country with a constitutional order that is capable of successfully managing sectarian conflict and enhancing peaceful coexistence protecting the rights of citizens including those of minorities minimizing the monopolization of political space by the majority to the detriment of minorities and effectively preventing government impunity Mbaku offers a comprehensive analysis of various approaches to the management of diversity and shows how these approaches can inform Africa s struggle to promote peace and good governance He explores in depth the existence of dysfunctional and anachronistic laws and institutions inherited from the colonial state and the process through which laws and institutions are formulated or constructed adopted and amended A close look at the constitutional experiences of the American Republic provides important lessons for constitutional design and constitutionalism in Africa. Additionally, comparative politics and comparative constitutional law also provide important lessons for the management of diversity in African countries. Mbaku recommends state reconstruction through constitutional design as a way for each African country to provide itself with laws and institutions that reflect the realities of each country, including the necessary mechanisms and tools for the protection of the rights of minorities. From students and scholars to NGOs, lawyers and policymakers, this unique and judicious book is an essential tool for all those seeking to understand and improve governance and development in Africa. Silencing the Guns Volume I Nicholas Idris Erameh, Joshua Olusegun Bolarinwa, Ikenna Mike Alumona, 2025-09-30. This book, Silencing the Guns: Reviewing the Agenda and Reassessing Prospects, which forms part of a two-volume series, examines the African Union's role in eradicating armed violence in Africa, including wars, civil conflicts, human rights violations, and mass atrocities by 2030. The first volume delves into the history, theory, and practice of the STG. It accomplishes this by reflecting on how rising insecurity is fueled by poverty, armed conflict, resource-induced conflict, mass atrocities, political and economic marginalization, terrorism, insurgency, piracy, border insecurity, environmental degradation, illicit arms trafficking, election violence, and democratic erosion in Africa, influenced by its development and implementation in specific cases across Africa. The second volume reflects on the experiences from these case studies and ponders on the possible factors that have accounted for these emerging and contending challenges, with a view to forecast the prospects of STG in Africa in line with the Agenda 2063.
