Grace And Truth S:

The Grace and Truth Paradox Randy Alcorn, 2009-06-24 Christians trying to model their lives after Jesus may find that He gets buried under lists rules and formulas Now bestselling author Randy Alcorn offers a simple two point checklist for Christlikeness based on John 1 14 The test consists of balancing grace and truth equally and unapologetically Grace without truth deceives people and ceases to be grace Truth without grace crushes people and ceases to be truth Alcorn shows the reader how to show the world Jesus offering grace instead of the world s apathy and tolerance offering truth instead of the world s relativism and deception Grace or Truth or Both Truth without grace breeds self righteousness and crushing legalism Grace without truth breeds deception and moral compromise Is it possible to embrace both in balance Jesus did Randy Alcorn offers a simple yet profound two point checklist of Christlikeness In the end says Alcorn we don t need grace or truth We need grace and truth And for people to see Jesus in us they must see both Life-Study of Ephesians Witness Lee, 1984-05-01 In the Lord s recovery during the past five hundred years the church s knowledge of the Lord and His truth has been continually progressing This monumental and classical work by Brother Witness Lee builds upon and is a further development of all that the Lord has revealed to His church in the past centuries It is filled with the revelation concerning the processed Triune God the living Christ the life giving Spirit the experience of life and the definition and practice of the church In this set Brother Lee has kept three basic principles that should rule and govern every believer in their interpretation development and expounding of the truths contained in the Scriptures The first principle is that of the Triune God dispensing Himself into His chosen and redeemed people the second principle is that we should interpret develop and expound the truths contained in the Bible with Christ for the church and the third governing principle is Christ the Spirit life and the church No other study or exposition of the New Testament conveys the life nourishment or ushers the reader into the divine revelation of God s holy Word according to His New Testament economy as this one does The Theological Works of William Beveridge, D.D. William Beveridge, 1843 The Library of Anglo-Catholic Theology: Theological works of William Beveridge, D.D. processed Triune God the living Christ the life giving Spirit the experience of life and the definition and practice of the church In this set Brother Lee has kept three basic principles that should rule and govern every believer in their interpretation development and expounding of the truths contained in the Scriptures The first principle is that of the Triune God dispensing Himself into His chosen and redeemed people the second principle is that we should interpret develop and expound the truths contained in the Bible with Christ for the church and the third governing principle is Christ the Spirit life and the church No other study or exposition of the New Testament conveys the life nourishment or ushers the reader into the divine revelation of God s holy Word according to His New Testament economy as this one does Christianity and Creation James P. Mackey, 2006-11-01 James Mackey has written a bold one volume systematic theology in eight chapters on creation fall salvation God creed code cult and church constitution The Homilist; or, The pulpit for the people, conducted by D. Thomas. Vol. 1-50; 51, no. 3- ol. 63 David Thomas, 1864 The Gospel of the Beloved Disciple Herman C. Waetjen, 2014-05-22 There is a general consensus that the Fourth Gospel underwent two editions But in contrast to all previous efforts to reconstruct these two editions on the basis of source and redaction criticism Waetjen maintains that these two editions essentially overlap without far reaching changes Chapter 1 20 originated within the Jewish community of Alexandria and were addressed to Jews in order to persuade them to believe into Jesus as the Messiah the Son of God The second edition originated when chapter 21 as added and certain revisions were made in chapters 1 20 by an editor in the Christian community of Ephesus in order to present the Gospel to Gentile Christians and perhaps attendantly to legitimate it for canonization Waetjen examines John s gospel by engaging in a close reading of various units of the Gospel from the perspective of a two level drama that presents two narrative worlds within the literary structure of the Gospel Out of his readings of the texts one of the major and provocative conclusions Waetjen draws is that Lazarus is the Beloved Disciple of Jesus in chapters 1 20 John the son of Zebedee is intimated to play the role of the Beloved Disciple not only in chapter 21 but throughout the Gospel In other words the editor of chapter 21 has concluded that John based on the title that the gospel already bears is the Beloved Disciple and project that backwards from chapter 21 throughout the previous 20 chapters Waetjen s thorough scholarship and his attention to detail in his original readings challenge traditional readings of John s Gospel providing fresh insights into the Gospel The Homilist , 1864 The Bible, Mormon Scripture, and the Rhetoric of Allusivity J. Frederick, 2016-05-05 One of the most pertinent questions facing students of Mormon Studies is gaining further understanding of the function the Bible played in the composition of Joseph Smith s primary compositions the Book of Mormon and the Doctrine and Covenants With a few notable exceptions such as Philip Barlow s Mormons and the Bible and Grant Hardy s Understanding the Book of Mormon full length monographs devoted to this topic have been lacking This manuscript attempts to remedy this through a close analysis of how Mormon scripture specifically the Book of Mormon and the Doctrine and Covenants integrates the writings of New Testament into its own text This manuscript takes up the argument that through the rhetoric of allusivity the allusion to one text by another Joseph Smith was able to bestow upon his works an authority they would have lacked without the incorporation of biblical language In order to provide a thorough analysis focused on how Smith incorporated the biblical text into his own texts this work will limit itself only to those passages in Mormon scripture that allude to the Prologue of John s gospel John 1 1 18 The choice of the Prologue of John is due to its frequent appearance throughout Smith s corpus as well as its recognizable language This study further argues that the manner in which Smith incorporates the Johannine Prologue is by no means uniform but actually quite creative taking at least four different forms Echo Allusion Expansion and Inversion The methodology used in this work is based primarily upon recent developments in intertextual studies of the Bible an analytical method that has proved to be quite effective in studying later author s use of earlier texts Letters of Isaac Penington Isaac Penington,1842 Twenty six sermons on various subjects, selected from the works of W. Beveridge William Beveridge (bp. of st. Asaph.),1850 The Works of the Right Reverend Father in God, Dr. William Beveridge ... Containing All His Sermons ... Edited by Timothy Gregory. With a Preface Giving Some Account of the Author and His Writings by Isaac Kimber as Also Three Useful Tables, Etc. MS. Notes William Beveridge,1818
