For Our Daughter On Graduation Day

*Today, as you graduate,
one chapter in your life has closed,
and another is about to begin.
The future stands bright before you,
so take hold of your dreams
and no matter what...don't let go.*

*There will be times ahead
when you will feel overwhelmed,
but try not to give up,
for nothing which is worth anything,
comes without hard work and sacrifice.*

*When you were a little girl,
we held your hand.
we guided you and protected you
as best we could.*

*It's time for us to let go now.
There is some pain in that.*

Still, there is also a wonderful sense of pride and accomplishment as we look at the young woman that you have become.

We love you, Sweetheart, and we pray that our love will sustain you.

*It's time now...
spread your wings and fly!*

Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women's fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women's writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating

The Life History of a Texas Birdwatcher Karen Harden McCracken, 2001 In any other context saying that someone was for the birds would hardly be polite But applied to Connie Hagar it would be high praise The diminutive birdwatcher nicknamed Connie was reared as Martha Conger Neblett in early twentieth century Texas where she led a genteel life of tea parties and music lessons But at middle age she became fascinated with birds and resolved to learn everything she could about them In 1935 she and her husband Jack moved to Rockport on the Coastal Bend of Texas to be at the center of one of the most abundant areas of bird life in the country Her diligence in observation soon had her setting elite East Coast ornithologists on their ears as she sighted more and more species the experts claimed she could not possibly have seen Repeatedly she proved them wrong She ultimately earned the respect and love of birders from the shores of New Jersey to the islands of the Pacific Life Magazine pictured her in a tribute to the country's premier amateur naturalists and she received many awards from nature and birding societies Connie Hagar's life history is more than just a bird book Hers is a story of dedication to nature and the role she could play in promoting it to others despite recurring threats of blindness and other health problems The hundreds of species of birds that visited Rockport each year brought thousands of other birders and Connie patiently hosted and assisted both the greenest beginners and the most magisterial experts It was she more than any other person who made coastal Texas and especially Rockport a mecca for all serious birders Karen Harden McCracken and Connie Hagar's Boswellian Johnsonian relationship in the 1960s Connie's own Nature Calendars containing thirty five years of observations and interviews with those who knew the birdwoman of Rockport provide the basis for this simple but exhilarating narrative
