

TRIBUTE TO PARENTS

To start with, I just want to greet the people who grace today's affair. To our distinguished and highly esteemed members of the academic community led by the dynamic and supportive, our School's District Supervisor, Dr. Alberta "Abing" P. Patulin, our School Principal, Dr. Juven B. Cervantes, Barangay Officials who are with us today, members and officers of the PTA, colleagues, members of the graduating batch, parents, guardians, visitors, friends, ladies and gentlemen, a pleasant, welcoming and joyous morning.

MC1: This is the day, a day where both jubilant and cheerless moments are reckoned – moments and experiences that, I believe, are very essential and play significant role of all the graduating students' growth competently and effectively.

MC2: Looking closely to the significance of this momentous affair, it tells us that today, is not just a day where we rejoice for the triumph that graduating students have but most importantly a day of thanksgiving, a time of giving tribute to the people behind every success and learnings - the parents, guardians and teachers.

MC1: Giving the rightful appreciation, willful tribute, best honor and special gratitude to them. The parents, guardians and the teachers, who we all know have been an instrument in everyone's academic development. Let us hear a testimony from the representative of the graduating class of 2022, _____

MC2: Thank you for that heartfelt message _____. At this juncture, let us hear a response from one of the parents of the graduating class 2022, _____.

MC1: Thank you for the wonderful message _____. This time, Let's put our hands together for our School Principal, Dr. Juven B. Cervantes, to give his message.

MC2: Thank you for the inspiring message sir. To end this morning's event, we shall listen to the graduates' tribute song entitled, "Thank You

Modern Speech John V. Irwin, 1961

The No-Good Preacher Charles L. White, Lois Moore, 2010

Charles couldn't remember his mother ever saying she loved him; she had only harsh demeaning words for the boy who had never been good enough for her. So when she kicked him out after his father died, he left without a backward glance. Somehow he survived on one meal a day for more than a year. He managed to finish high school while working two part-time jobs to pay his tuition. He even found a way to give God the bitterness he'd carried all those lonely years. And he discovered that God wanted him to be a preacher—a sentiment not shared by the head of the religion department at his chosen college. Charles wasn't preacher material, said he. Ah, but when God has something in mind for one of His beloved children, neither the head of the religion department nor all the forces of Hitler's army can dissuade Him.

640 Acres and Dirt Poor Janet Godwin Meyer, 2017-09-12

I, Janet Godwin Meyer, grew up on a dirt road in Georgia in the 1950s. My grandparents lived just across the state line in Alabama. Until I was eight years old, I had no idea that our black neighbors, the Collins family, were constantly reminded that they were second-class citizens. My parents accepted the Collins family as true friends who could be relied on to help and love their neighbors. My daddy was strong-willed and independent in his constant support of all our black friends. Shut Godwin helped many whites and blacks, and his reputation as a force to be reckoned with actually made the Ku Klux Klan back away from any sort of witch hunts. And many times over the years, he redirected the evildoers that he called the KKK cowards dressed up in white ghost costumes. When I was ten years old, my mother drove her children across the country so that we could spend the summer in Magdalena, New Mexico. That was the closest we could get to my daddy's sawmill. For fifty cents an acre, paid to the federal government, my dad purchased the right to cut timber from the national forest.
