Throwing the Party Wayne Batchis, 2022-06-30 The Supreme Court's jurisprudence on political parties is rooted in an incomplete story Parties are like voluntary clubs associations of individuals that are represented by a singular organization However as political science has long understood they are much more than this Parties are also the voters who choose and support their candidates the elected officials who govern the activists and volunteers who contribute their time and energy and the individual and organizational donors who open their wallets Unfortunately the Court's framework for understanding America's two party system has largely ignored this broader conception of political parties The result has been a distortion of the true nature of the two party system and a body of deeply inconsistent and contradictory constitutional case law From primaries to campaign finance partisan gerrymandering to ballot access law and politics scholar Wayne Batchis interrogates scrutinizes and offers a proposed solution to this problematic jurisprudence
