Graceful Evangelism Frances S. Evangelism Renewed Henry H. Knight, 2025-04-08 Evangelism has entered a new day From the 1980s to the present a vast array of new forms of evangelism have emerged shaped and informed by theological reflection on the good news of Jesus Christ and the mission of God Rejecting the reduced and formulaic forms of evangelism typical of most of the twentieth century these newer approaches speak more of the reign and love of God relationship and community and both personal and social transformation They are very diverse but each has something to contribute to how we understand and practice evangelism This book is a doorway into these theologies of evangelism and their fresh and dynamic ways of sharing the good news Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen, 2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K. Beougher, 2021-08-24 Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God's good news with a lost world What exactly does it mean to evangelize in a Christian sense And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done Longtime pastor evangelist and professor of evangelism Timothy K. Beougher answers these questions and more from theological historical and practical perspectives Beougher demonstrates God's goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes Bible teaching and encouraging instruction Invitation to Evangelism welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith of behalf of people God loves Most Christians know that they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers and most also know they aren't witnessing very well or even at all They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best way to go about making evangelism a natural part of their lives Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the essential issues of the gospel message evangelism methods and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists Beougher's biblical theological historical and practical teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ Seeing lost people as persons God loves Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others Partnering with God Lynette Edge, Gregory Morgan, 2017-05-12 God has an epic plan for the flourishing of all people and places Want to join in Partnering with God will help you find your place in that quest as we join in building God's kingdom on earth as it is in heaven Mission is no spectator sport and God invites our participation in the millennia old story of the missio Dei Lynette Edge and Gregory Morgan have lived and taught mission within The Salvation Army for many years In these pages they offer a missiological framework and practice in the West today from a Salvation Army perspective You will be challenged in these pages to think and live missionally We are called to join a profound partnership with God to bring about the world as it was intended to be Are you in Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel Three Spheres of Evangelism: Worship, Discipleship, and Mission Scott Stewart, 2013

Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney, 2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women's theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing Is the Gospel Good News? Stanley E. Porter, Hughson T. Ong, 2019-05-02 Is the Gospel Good News was the theme of the 2015 H H Bingham Colloquium at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario Canada held on June 4-5 The fourteen participants in this colloquium presented their own individual perspectives on the theme from three broad vantage points Bible theology and crucial topics The good news that Jesus proclaimed concerning the kingdom of God became the gospel proclaimed by his followers throughout church history This gospel is about the coming of Jesus Christ in fulfillment of God's will for humanity This volume presents some accounts of how this good news has been understood through the ages and continues to be understood in relation to some of the major topics and issues of our contemporary world The papers in the Bible section discuss this good news from both Old and New Testament passages and themes The papers in the Theology section address theological topics in light of the question of what constitutes the good news Finally the papers in the Crucial Topics section explore new and different perspectives on ways in which the gospel is good news This volume highlights diverse perspectives and proposals by scholars from various locations in different stages of their academic careers resulting in a stimulating discussion of the topic of the gospel as good news

After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad, 2020-11-04 After Mission touches on on three questions The first question is about self perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants relation to their Arab Muslim Middle Eastern context This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity othering relationality The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse do the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one the Road to Emmaus Cathy Ross, Stephen B. Bevens, 2015-01-31 Aimed at scholars and students of missiology this book considers missions through the lens of prophetic dialogue. The authors try to bring a fresh approach to the subject of mission introducing some newer themes identity creation migration and offering a different perspective on some older themes by grouping them in this way The Globalization of Christianity Gordon L. Heath, Steven M.

Studebaker, 2015-01-20 While Christianity appears to be in decline in the West it is growing robustly in the global South. What does this mean for the Christianity that was once considered to be the religion of the West? The new contexts and trajectories require innovative responses and relevant theological reflection in the church. This volume addresses these changes through identifying and analyzing global shifts highlighting practical innovations in the church that attempt to deal with new trajectories and proposing theological positions intended to help face the issues and challenges of the twenty-first century. Contributors to this volume include Philip Jenkins The Next Christendom The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent Steven M. Studebaker Gordon L. Heath Bradley K. Broadhead Christof Sauer Lee Beach Michael P. Knowles Peter Althouse Michael Wilkinson John H. Issak David K. Taurus and Seongho Kang The Multidimensional Pastor Samson Uytanlet, 2020-07-08 A number of books have been written on the various roles of the pastor and many of these works focus on one particular aspect of the pastoral ministry only or just a few of them. The Multidimensional Pastor is an attempt to bring together and discuss in a single volume these various elements of the pastoral ministry with a goal of looking at principles from the Scripture to guide the pastors as they fulfill these various roles. The purpose of this work is to provide a balanced perspective and a bigger picture of the pastor's functions while acknowledging their personal limitations. In this way readers can develop a more realistic set of expectations from a pastor and celebrate the variety of expressions of the ministry.

Equipping for Global Mission Linda P. Saunders, Gregory Mathias, Edward L. Smither, 2024-08-13 From Cognitive Teaching to Connected Learning Given the landscape of global Christianity and the variety of approaches to theological and missiological training today how do we equip the global church for the mission of God? Should mission organizations or sending churches conduct their own in-house training? What is the role of Bible colleges and seminaries in equipping for mission today? What about informal approaches to theological and ministry training? Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners. Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church. Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue. The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization. This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation. This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church. Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages.
