Greek Tragedy in 20th-Century Italian Literature Caterina Paoli, 2024-06-13 Focusing on the works of Camillo Sbarbaro and Giovanna Bemporad this book offers the first in depth analysis of poetic translations of Greek tragedy in 20th century Italian poetry The close examination of the linguistic and ideological diversity embedded in these authors works shows how narratives of Greek tragedy shaped their poetic universe and how their work influenced the Greek paradigm in return The reader is presented with a textual analysis of Sbarbaro's and Bemporad's translations as well as a discussion of larger cultural patterns This volume provides a fresh perspective on the pedagogical commitment of the Italian poets and their roles as translators of classical studies The web of relationships and historical context in which these authors are placed provide an understanding of their importance for a wider discourse on translation in Italy and Europe in the 1940s Caterina Paoli's original analysis of Sbarbaro's and Bemporad's poetic translations and her

emphasis on their relevance for translation studies women s writing and classical reception fills a significant gap in current scholarship on the translation of ancient literature in the Italian poetic community Contemporary Clay and Museum Culture Christie Brown, Julian Stair, Clare Twomey, 2016-06-17 This groundbreaking book is the first to provide a critical overview of the relationship between contemporary ceramics and curatorial practice in museum culture Ceramic objects form a major part of museum collections with connections to anthropology archaeology and other disciplines that engage with the cultural and social history of humankind In recent years museums have provided the impetus for cutting edge artistic practice either as a response to particular collections or as part of exhibitions But the question of how museums have staged contemporary ceramics and how ceramic artists respond to museum collections has not been the subject of published research to date This book examines how ceramic artists have over the last decade begun to animate museum collections in new ways and reflects on the impact that these new initiatives have had in the broad context of visual culture Ceramics in the Expanded Field is the culmination of a three year AHRC funded project and reflects its major findings It brings together leading international voices in the field of ceramics research undertaken throughout the project and papers delivered at the concluding conference By examining the benefits and constraints of interventions and the dialogue between ceramics and museological practice this book will bring focus to an area of museology that has not yet been theorized and will contribute to policy debates and art practice Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1867
