The Art of Conscious Parenting Jeffrey L. Fine, 2009-09-28 A new approach to creating rediscovering and renewing the intimate bonds between parents and children Explains the importance of bonding with your child in utero and the physical and mental preparation needed even before conception Shows how green parenting breast feeding contact with nature and low tech creativity can enhance your child's life The Art of Conscious Parenting won the 2010 Gold Nautilus Award for the best Parenting Childcare book The Nautilus Awards recognize books that promote spiritual growth conscious living and positive social change while at the same time stimulating the imagination and offer the reader new possibilities for a better life and a better world Our first days and months of life are critical in forming the attitudes we bring into adulthood and in structuring the very roots of our personality Simple bonding techniques long forgotten in our modern world but stemming from the age old customs of indigenous peoples are at the core of a new model of conscious parenting that can produce happy and well adjusted children These practices also help parents experience an increased joy and intimacy both with their child and with each other Based on obstetric and psychological evidence Jeffrey and Dalit Fine reveal how bonding begins in utero and that the physical and mental preparation of both the father and mother even before conception sets the tone for the future well being of the child They show how sustained physical contact and simple ways of consciously interacting with your infant eye contact with the newborn baby wearing instead of stroller use and co sleeping have an observable positive effect They also show that the green parenting practices of breast feeding contact with nature and simple low tech creative play not only provide a more hands on and intimate approach to parenting but also are more economical and environmentally sustainable From in utero bonding through the challenges and joys of consciously interacting with your growing child this book will help parents rediscover and apply the natural art of conscious parenting

Forever Mom Mary Ostyn, 2014-11-11 What to do when you've been called to adopt and practical advice to make it work Mary Ostyn married her sweetheart at nineteen and the pair had four kids by their eighth anniversary When their youngest was three God opened their eyes to the needs of orphans all over the world and answered Mary's longing for another baby. Over the next nine years the couple adopted two boys from Korea and four girls from Ethiopia. Ostyn, a beloved adoption writer and blogger, shares alongside stories from other adoptive families the practical tools and resources she uses to thrive as an adoptive mom. In Forever Mom she reveals how to build heart connections, prepare your other children for new siblings, help babies, toddlers, and older children settle in, implement attachment parenting, address misbehavior while remaining connected, nurture your marriage in the midst of it all. Whether you're the parent of an adopted child or interested in pursuing adoption, Ostyn's warm advice and fresh perspective will inspire, inform, and affirm. You'll walk away confident you will be the perfect mom for whatever child God brings into your life.

Friends Journal, 2006 So You're Thinking About Homeschooling: Second Edition Lisa Whelchel, 2009-02-19. Discover the Diversity of Homeschooling. Confused and intimidated by the complexities of homeschooling, many parents assume it could never work for them. Now an updated edition of So You're Thinking About Home Schooling by Lisa Whelchel herself, a homeschooling mother of three, introduces to readers fifteen composite portraits of homeschooling families who show how every family can successfully face the unique challenges of its situation. The story-based approach deals with common questions of time management, teaching weaknesses, and outside responsibilities, as well as children's age variations, social and sports involvement, learning disabilities, and boredom. Seeing a wide variety of homeschooling families in action gives parents the information and confidence they need to make their own decisions about home-based education. Includes a new chapter from Lisa and an all-new resource guide with recommendations from real-life homeschooling families. I'm Thinking About Homeschooling. You're also probably thinking, "But can I really teach my children? Where do I start? What if I need to work outside the home? Must I have twelve children, raise goats, and bake my own bread? And what about socialization?" I could tell you the answers to these questions, but I would rather show you. Beginning with my own, I want to introduce you to fifteen families in fifteen unique situations who have all chosen to homeschool for different reasons, using a variety of learning methods. So let's rap lightly on the homeschool door and peek inside before we decide if we are ready to move in. Story Behind the Book. My hope is that by the end of the book and a stroll through the neighborhood, you will feel more confident as you identify a family situation and teaching method that resonates with your personality and philosophy of education. From there, you can simply look to the end of each chapter to find a sample schedule for the homeschool day and list of curriculum suggestions for that particular teaching method. Lisa

Deciding if homeschooling is right for your family just got easier with this warm, entertaining, information-packed portrayal of its flexibility, diversity, triumphs, and challenges. Grab a cup of tea and enjoy. Linda Dobson, author of The First Year of Homeschooling Your Child.
