

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a tropical landscape. In the foreground, there is a dense thicket of green foliage. A single, thin tree with dark green, elongated leaves stands prominently on the right side. In the background, there are rolling hills or mountains under a sky with soft, warm colors, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall tone is peaceful and scenic.

and Peace Ikuhiko Hata, 2007-07-12 This is a most important new work on Emperor Hirohito by one of Japan's leading historians Ikuhiko Hata Following the untimely death of Marius B Jansen Emeritus Professor University of Princeton in December 2000 who had been actively collaborating with the author and translator of the original Japanese edition Hirohito Tenno itsutsu no ketsudan first published in 1987 and republished in 1994 it was inevitable that there would be a delay in publication of the English edition which is finally now available In his extended Foreword as editor referring to the nature of Hirohito's power Jansen states We are left with puzzles that will probably never be resolved Clearly as Professor Hata and others have shown the Emperor Hirohito had immense power but the condition of retaining it was judicious restraint in exercising it In offering a view on the merits of Hata's research Jansen points to the hitherto unknown plots in parallel but unrelated by both the Army and Navy to preserve and if necessary resuscitate the imperial line in the event the victors decided to depose Hirohito Jansen also points to the merits of Hata's particular focus on the contribution Hirohito made to Japan in its post war relations with the United States Jansen added substantive notes to help place the author's material in historical and historiographical perspective The book which is not a biography or a general history of the Showa era focuses on five decisions taken by Emperor Hirohito which the author considers the key turning points of his reign these concern the 26 February 1936 insurrection of young army officers the termination of the Pacific War the post war constitution the issue of abdication and the San Francisco Peace Treaty

ISSUES ON WAR & PEACE Julie Kimber, Phillip Deery, Warwick Eather, Drew Cottle, Nic Maclelland, Jonathan Strauss, Michael Hamel-Green, Jeanette Debney-Joyce, Doris LeRoy, David Faber, 2015-02-15 These proceedings carry some of the papers delivered at the 14th Biennial Labour History Conference 11-13 February 2015 Titled Fighting Against War Peace Activism in the Twentieth Century the conference was held at the University of Melbourne A conference book of refereed papers has been published under that title and these proceedings carry the non refereed papers received for publication There is one exception to that rule the paper written by Warwick Eather and Drew Cottle published below which underwent double blind refereeing It is an important paper which demonstrates with compelling evidence that

the rabbit was anything but a curse to the many men women and children who took advantage of the rabbit industry's resilience during the economic storms for much of the twentieth century It exemplifies how meticulous research in labour history can provide an entirely new understanding of an otherwise much maligned animal in Australia The next three papers all concern opposition to nuclear testing from the 1950s to the 1980s When read together they provide a convincing argument for the importance and efficacy of the diverse anti nuclear movements in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands Whilst there are inevitable overlaps these papers emphasise different and often neglected dimensions the struggle for recognition of and compensation for the devastating effects of nuclear testing the internal dynamics of the various nuclear disarmament organisations and an evaluation of their impact on government policy culminating in the Rarotonga Treaty of 1985 The last three papers cover aspects of World War I the Cold War and the Vietnam War The first focuses on the role of one redoubtable woman Ettie Rout in challenging popular misconceptions about venereal disease held by military authorities and the soldiers themselves The next paper examines the life of a Czech Lutheran pastor Professor Josef Hrom dka who visited Australia twice during the 1950s Hrom dka attempted to juggle Christianity with Socialism which in the prevailing climate of strident anti communism provoked hostile receptions and Cold War invective The final paper in this collection brings to life through the reflections of a participant observer the preparations conduct and impact of Adelaide's largest anti war demonstration the protest against the invasion of Iraq in 2003 organised by the NoWar collective Its efforts undertaken by a broad range of rank and file activists is a fitting reminder and exemplar of the theme of our conference peace activism in the twentieth century

The Savage Wars of Peace Max Boot, 2014-03-11 While the major conflicts in American history have become all too familiar America's small wars have played an essential but little appreciated role in the country's growth as a world power First published in 2002 The Savage Wars of Peace quickly became a key volume in the case for a new policy of interventionism Max Boot shows how America's smaller actions such as the recent conflicts in Bosnia Somalia Haiti Kosovo and Afghanistan have made up the vast majority of our military engagements and yet our armed forces do little to prepare for these low intensity conflicts A compellingly readable history of the forgotten wars that helped promote America's rise in the last two centuries The Savage Wars of Peace is now updated with new material on the repercussions of America's far flung imperial actions and the impact of these ventures in American international affairs
