Masterpieces of Medical Photography Joel-Peter Witkin,1987 Mapping AIDS Lukas Engelmann,2018-11-08 In this innovative study Lukas Engelmann examines visual traditions in modern medical history through debates about the causes impact and spread of AIDS Utilising medical AIDS atlases produced between 1986 and 2008 for a global audience Engelmann argues that these visual textbooks played a significant part in the establishment of AIDS as a medical phenomenon However the visualisations risked obscuring the social cultural and political complexity of AIDS history Photographs of patients were among the earliest responses to the mysterious syndrome cropped and framed to deliver a visible characterisation of AIDS to a medical audience Maps then offered an abstracted image of the regions invaded by the epidemic while the icon of the virus aspired to capture the essence of AIDS The epidemic s history is retold through clinical photographs epidemiological maps and icons of HIV asking how this devastating epidemic has come to be seen as a controllable chronic condition The Best Horror of the Year Ellen Datlow,2012-05-01 The first three volumes of The Best Horror of the Year have been widely praised for their quality variety and comprehensiveness With tales from Laird Barron Stephen King John Langan Peter Straub and many others and featuring Datlow s comprehensive overview of the year in horror now more than ever The Best Horror of the Year provides the petrifying horror fiction readers have come to expect and enjoy National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1988 Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy,2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide The Creatures Time Forgot David Hevey,2023-07-07 First published in 1992 The Creatures Time Forgot examines the representation of disabled people in advertising particularly that produced by disability charities and in the work of photographers such as Diane Arbus and Gary Winogrand He shows how such images construct disabled people as creatures the tragic but brave objects of photographic gaze or as the appy andicapped of positive imagery advertising As a disabled photographer and writer David Hevey has been a pioneer in challenging such visual representations of disabled people His work advocates a move away from medical charity or impairment fixated imagery towards a visual equivalent of Rights not Charity The book outlines David Hevey s own photographic practice and includes wide ranging selections from his work to create a visual form which reflects the new social presence of disabled people This book will be of interest to students of media studies cultural studies and disability studies Understanding Disability Studies and Performance Studies Bruce Henderson, Noam Ostrander, 2013-09-13 This collection brings together scholarship and creative writing that brings together two of the most innovative fields to emerge from critical and cultural studies in the past few decades Disability studies and performance studies It draws on writings about such media as live performance art photography silent film dance personal narrative and theatre using such diverse perspectives and methods as queer theory gender feminist and masculinity studies dance studies as well as providing first publication of creative writings by award winning poets and playwrights This book was based on a special issue of Text and Performance Quarterly Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Stories from the Camera Michele M. Penhall, 2016-03-15 The remarkable photography collection of the University of New Mexico Art Museum owes its unique character and quality to the directors curators scholars and artists who have taught worked and studied at the museum and in the university s Department of Art and Art History In this indispensable book these distinguished scholars and artists reflect on the pictures from the collection that hold significance to them Through their own professional and artistic practice they represent different generations of aesthetic voices and intellectual directions As one of the earliest collegiate institutions to begin collecting photography the University of New Mexico Art Museum holds a stunning array of images that span photography s 175 year history In addition to iconic works by famous photographers this book also features less familiar but equally masterful pictures Together these essays represent a unique history of photography and this renowned museum Teresa Margolles and the Aesthetics of Death Julia Banwell, 2015-06-15 An extensive in depth study that takes in works from throughout the artist s career The book will be useful for scholars of Margolles and of art history more generally Margolles work is situated within the contexts of the aesthetics and philosophy of death and their application to looking at art from inside and outside Mexico The Pyrotechnic Insanitarium Mark Dery, 2007-12-01 A wide ranging collection of essays on millennial American culture that marshals a vast pop vocabulary with easy wit The New York Times Book Review From the far left to the far right on talk radio and the op ed page more and more Americans believe that the social fabric is unraveling Celebrity worship and media frenzy suicidal cultists and heavily armed secessionists modern life seems to have become a pyrotechnic insanitarium Mark Dery says borrowing a turn of the century name for Coney Island Dery elucidates the meaning to our madness deconstructing American culture from mainstream forces like Disney and Nike to fringe phenomena like the Unabomber and alien invaders Our millennial angst he argues is a product of a pervasive cultural anxiety a combination of the social and economic upheaval wrought by global capitalism and the paranoia fanned by media sensationalism The Pyrotechnic Insanitarium is a theme park ride through the extremes of American culture of which The Atlantic has written Mark Dery confirms once again what writers and thinkers as disparate as Nathanael West Fyodor Dostoyevsky Sigmund Freud and Oliver Sacks have already shown us the best place to explore the human condition is at its outer margins its pathological extremes Dery is the kind of critic who just might give conspiracy theory a good name Wired The Disability Studies Reader Lennard J. Davis, 2013-05-02 The Fourth Edition of the Disability Studies Reader breaks new ground by emphasizing the global transgender homonational and posthuman conceptions of disability Including physical disabilities but exploring issues around pain mental disability and invisible disabilities this edition explores more varieties of bodily and mental experience New histories of the legal social and cultural give a broader picture of disability than ever before Now available for the first time in eBook format 978 0 203 07788

7 Doctored Tanya Sheehan, 2011 Examines the relationship between photography and medicine in American culture Focuses on the American Civil War and postbellum Philadelphia to explore how medical models and metaphors helped establish the professional legitimacy of commercial photography while promoting belief in the rehabilitative powers of studio portraiture Provided by publisher A New History of Photography Michel Frizot, 1998 A collection of entries that help chronicle the history of photography explaining the different techniques that have been used and defining the common terms used in the field Zooming In Wu Hung, 2016-06-15 From the first sets of photographic records made by Western travelers to doctored portraits of Chairman Mao and the avant garde photographic performances of the post Cultural Revolution era photography in China has followed divergent paths In this book Wu Hung explores the multiple histories of photographic production in China using them to tell a larger story about China's shifting sociopolitical contexts and the different agendas technologies and aesthetics that have helped define its arts At the center of the book is a large question how has photography represented China and its people its collective history and memory as well as the diversity of Chinese artists who have striven for creative expression To address this question the author offers an in depth study of selected photographers themes and movements in Chinese photography from 1860 to the present covering a wide range of genres including portraiture photojournalism architectural and landscape photography and conceptual photography Beautifully illustrated this book offers a multifaceted and in depth analysis of an important photographic history Art on Paper, 1998

A Traffic of Dead Bodies Michael Sappol, 2018-06-05 A Traffic of Dead Bodies enters the sphere of bodysnatching medical students dissection room pranks and anatomical fantasy It shows how nineteenth century American physicians used anatomy to develop a vital professional identity while claiming authority over the living and the dead It also introduces the middle class women and men working people unorthodox healers cultural radicals entrepreneurs and health reformers who resisted and exploited anatomy to articulate their own social identities and visions The nineteenth century saw the rise of the American medical profession a proliferation of practitioners journals organizations sects and schools Anatomy lay at the heart of the medical curriculum allowing American medicine to invest itself with the authority of European science

Anatomists crossed the boundary between life and death cut into the body reduced it to its parts framed it with moral commentary and represented it theatrically visually and textually Only initiates of the dissecting room could claim the privileged healing status that came with direct knowledge of the body But anatomy depended on confiscation of the dead mainly the plundered bodies of African Americans immigrants Native Americans and the poor As black markets in cadavers flourished so did a cultural obsession with anatomy an obsession that gave rise to clashes over the legal social and moral status of the dead Ministers praised or denounced anatomy from the pulpit rioters sacked medical schools and legislatures passed or repealed laws permitting medical schools to take the bodies of the destitute Dissection narratives and representations of the anatomical body circulated in new places schools dime museums popular lectures minstrel shows and sensationalist novels Michael Sappol resurrects this world of graverobbers and anatomical healers discerning new ligatures among race and gender relations funerary practices the formation of the middle class and medical professionalization In the process he offers an engrossing and surprisingly rich cultural history of nineteenth century America

Joyce: Feminism / Post / Colonialism ,2021-11-15 James Joyce is located between and constructed within two worlds the national and international the political and cultural systems of colonialism and postcolonialism Joyce s political project is to construct a postcolonial contra modernity to write the incommensurable differences of colonial postcolonial and gendered subjectivities and in doing so to reorient the axis of power and knowledge What Joyce dramatizes in his hybrid writing is the political and cultural remainder of imperial history or patriarchal canons a remainder that resists assimilation into the totalizing narratives of modernity Through this remainder of both politics and the psyche Joyce reveals how a minority culture can construct political and personal agency Joyce Feminism Post Colonialism edited by Ellen Carol Jones bears witness to the construction of that agency tracing the inscription of the racial and sexual other in colonial nationalist and postnational representations deciphering the history of the possible Contributors are Gregory Castle Gerald Doherty Enda Duffy James Fairhall Peter Hitchcock Ellen Carol Jones Ranjana Khanna Patrick McGee Marilyn Reizbaum Susan de Sola Rodstein Carol Shloss and David Spurr
