Masters Of Light Dutch Painters In Utrecht During The Golden Age:

Masters of Light Joaneath Ann Spicer, Lynn Federle Orr, National Gallery (Great Britain), 1997 Provides a comprehensive treatment of the achievements of the school of the Dutch Golden Age The volume is the catalogue for an exhibition at the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco the Walters Art Gallery Baltimore and the National Gallery London May July 1998

Masters of Light, 1998 Dutch Seventeenth-century Genre Painting Wayne E. Franits, 2004-01-01 The appealing genre paintings of great seventeenth century Dutch artists Vermeer Steen de Hooch Dou and others have long enjoyed tremendous popularity This comprehensive book explores the evolution of genre painting throughout the Dutch Golden Age beginning in the early 1600s and continuing through the opening years of the next century Wayne Franits a well known scholar of Dutch genre painting offers a wealth of information about these works as well as about seventeenth century Dutch culture its predilections and its prejudices The author approaches genre paintings from a variety of perspectives examining their reception among contemporary audiences and setting the works in their political cultural and economic contexts The works emerge as distinctly conventional images Franits shows as genre artists continually replicated specific styles motifs and a surprisingly restricted number of themes over the course of several generations Luxuriously illustrated and with a full representation of the major artists and the cities where genre painting flourished this book will delight students scholars and general readers alike The Cambridge Companion to the Dutch Golden Age Helmer J. Helmers, Geert H.

Janssen, 2018-08-23 An accessible introduction to the political economic literary and artistic heritage of the Dutch Republic in the seventeenth century The Frigid Golden Age Dagomar Degroot, 2018-02-08 Explores the resilience of the Dutch

Republic in the face of preindustrial climate change during the Little Ice Age Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art The Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen Natasha T.

Seaman, 2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master's simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio's motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen's appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen's largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen's paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio's Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio's paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de-emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen's works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist's response to them Vermeer and Plato Robert D. Huerta, 2005 There are thirty six illustrations Jacket Christ's Churches Purely Reformed Philip Benedict, 2008-10-01 This sweeping and eminently readable book is the first synthetic history of Calvinism in almost fifty years It tells the story of the Reformed tradition from its birth in the cities of Switzerland to the unraveling of orthodoxy amid the new intellectual currents of the seventeenth century As befits a pan European movement Benedict's canvas stretches from the British Isles to Eastern Europe The course and causes of Calvinism's remarkable expansion the inner workings of the diverse national churches and the theological debates that shaped Reformed doctrine all receive ample attention The English Reformation is situated within the history of continental Protestantism in a way that reveals the international significance of English developments A fresh examination of Calvinist worship piety and discipline permits an up to date assessment of the classic theories linking Calvinism to capitalism and democracy Benedict not only paints a vivid picture of the greatest early spokesmen of the cause Huldrych Zwingli and John Calvin but also restores many lesser known figures to their rightful place Ambitious in conception attentive to detail this book offers a model of how to think about the history and significance of religious change across the long Reformation era Rubens and the Dominican Church in Antwerp Adam Sammut, 2023-05-15 This book is about the Dominican church in Antwerp today St Paul's It is structured around three works of art made or procured by Peter Paul Rubens the Fifteen Mysteries of the Rosary cycle in situ Caravaggio's Rosary Madonna Vienna and the Wrath of Christ high altarpiece Lyon Within the artist's lifetime the church and monastery were completely rebuilt creating one of the most spectacular sacred spaces in Northern Europe In this richly illustrated book Adam Sammut reconceptualises early modern churches as theatres of political economy advancing an original approach to cultural production in a time of war Using methodologies at the cutting edge of the humanities the place of St Paul's is restored to the crux of Antwerp's commercial civic and religious life Godefridus Schalcken Wayne Franits, 2025-10-01 In his own day Godefridus Schalcken 1643 1706 was an internationally renowned Dutch painter but little is known about the four years that he spent in London Using newly discovered documents this book provides the first comprehensive examination of Schalcken's activities there The author analyses Schalcken's strategic appropriations of English styles his attempts to exploit gaps in the art market and his impact on tastes in London's milieu Five chapters survey his art during these years concluding with a critical catalogue of all his London period work The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently

Making Space Public in Early Modern Europe Angela Vanhaelen, Joseph P. Ward, 2013-04-26 Broadening the conversation begun in Making Publics in Early Modern Europe 2009 this book examines how the spatial dynamics of public making changed the shape of early modern society The publics visited in this volume are voluntary groupings of diverse individuals that could coalesce through the performative uptake of shared cultural forms and practices The contributors argue that such forms of association were social productions of space as well as collective identities Chapters explore a range of cultural activities such as theatre performances travel and migration practices of persuasion the embodied experiences of lived space and the central importance of media and material things in the creation of publics and the production of spaces They assess a multiplicity of publics that produced and occupied a multiplicity of social spaces where collective identity and voice could be created discovered asserted and exercised Cultural producers and consumers thus challenged dominant ideas about just who could enter the public arena greatly expanding both the real and imaginary spaces of public life to include hitherto excluded groups of private people The consequences of this historical reconfiguration of public space remain relevant especially for contemporary efforts to meaningfully include the views of ordinary people in public life

Reformation and the Practice of Toleration Benjamin J. Kaplan, 2019-09-16 The Dutch Republic was the most religiously diverse land in early modern Europe gaining an international reputation for toleration In Reformation and the Practice of Toleration Benjamin Kaplan explains why the Protestant Reformation had this outcome in the Netherlands and how people of different faiths managed subsequently to live together peacefully Bringing together fourteen essays by the author the book examines the opposition of so called Libertines to the aspirations of Calvinist reformers for uniformity and discipline It analyzes the practical arrangements by which multiple religious groups were accommodated It traces the dynamics of religious life in Utrecht and other mixed communities And it explores the relationships that developed between people of different faiths especially in mixed marriages

Living with Religious Diversity in Early-Modern Europe Dagmar Freist, 2016-12-05 Current scholarship continues to emphasise both the importance and the sheer diversity of religious beliefs within early modern societies Furthermore it continues to show that despite the wishes of secular and religious leaders confessional uniformity was in many cases impossible to enforce As the essays in this collection make clear many people in Reformation Europe were forced to confront the reality of divided religious loyalties and this raised issues such as the means of accommodating religious minorities who refused to conform and the methods of living in communion with those of different faiths Drawing together a number of case studies from diverse parts of Europe Living with Religious Diversity in Early Modern Europe explores the processes involved when groups of differing confessions had to live in close proximity sometimes grudgingly but often with a benign pragmatism that stood in opposition to the will of their rulers By focussing on these themes the volume bridges the gap between our understanding of the confessional developments as they were conceived as normative visions and religious culture at the level of implementation The contributions thus measure the religious policies articulated by secular and ecclesiastical elites against the lived experience of people going about their daily business In doing this the collection shows how people perceived and experienced the religious upheavals of the confessional age and how they were able to assimilate these changes within the framework of their lives

Landscape and Philosophy in the Art of Jan Brueghel the Elder (1568-1625) Leopoldine Prosperetti, 2017-07-05 In this first comprehensive full length study in English on the art of Jan Brueghel the Elder Leopoldine Prosperetti illuminates how the work of this painter relates to a philosophical culture prevailing in the Antwerp of his time She shows that no matter what scenery figures or objects stock the pictorial field Brueghel's diverse pictures have something in common they all embed visual trajectories that allow for the viewer to craft out of the raw material of the picture a moment of spiritual repose Rooted in the art of Hieronymus Bosch and Pieter Bruegel the Elder these vistas are shown to meet the expectation of viewers to discover in their mazes a rhetorically conceived path to wisdom The key issue is the ambition of pictorial images to bring into practice the humanist belief that philosophy and rhetoric are inseparable This original study analyzes the patterns of thought and recurrent optical tropes that constitute a visual poetics for shifting genres no longer devotional yet sharing in the meditative goal of redirecting the soul toward an intuitive knowledge of what is good in life This book reveals how everyday life is the preferred vehicle for delivering the results of philosophical pursuits One chapter is dedicated to Brueghel's innovative attention to the experience of traveling in a variety of wheeled vehicles along the roads of his native Brabant He is unique and surprisingly modern in giving contemporary viewers an accurate account of all the different types of conveyances that clutter the roads It makes for lively versions of one of his favorite themes The Traveled Road By taking the pursuit of wisdom as its theme the book succeeds in presenting a new model for the interpretation of a range of visual genres in the Antwerp picture trade

Landscape and Philosophy in the Art of Jan Brueghel the Elder (1568-1625) Leopoldine van Hogendorp Prosperetti, 2009 In this first comprehensive full length study in English on the art of Jan Brueghel the Elder Leopoldine Prosperetti discloses the nature of the philosophical culture of Antwerp at the time show its importance in the lives of cultivated citizens and reveals the patterns of thought and visual stratagems by which his landscapes underwrite the pursuit of wisdom The book presents a new model for the interpretation of a range of visual genres including various types of landscape that were popular in the Antwerp picture trade

Fragonard and the Fantasy Figure Melissa Percival, 2017-07-05 A fresh interpretation of the group of Fragonard's paintings known as the figures de fantaisie Fragonard and the Fantasy Figure Painting the Imagination reconnects the fantasy figures with neglected visual traditions in European art and firmly situates them within the cultural and aesthetic contexts of eighteenth century France Prior scholarship has focused on the paintings connections with portraiture whereas this study relocates them within a tradition of fantasy figures where resemblance was ignored or downplayed The book defines Fragonard as a painter of the imagination and foregrounds the imaginary at a time when Enlightenment rationalism and Classical aesthetics contrived to delimit the imagination The book unravels scholarly writing on these Fragonard paintings and examines the history of the fantasy figure from early modern Europe to eighteenth century France Emerging from this background is a view of Fragonard turning away from the academically sanctioned invention towards more playful variants of the imaginary fantasy and caprice Melissa Percival demonstrates how fantasy figures engage both artists and viewers allowing artists to unleash their imagination through displays of virtuosity and viewers to use their imagination to explore the paintings unusual juxtapositions and humour Ut pictura amor Walter Melion, Michael Zell, Joanna Woodall, 2017-11-06 Ut pictura amor The Reflexive Imagery of Love in Artistic Theory and Practice 1500 1700 examines the related themes of lovemaking and image making in the visual arts of Europe China Japan and Persia The term reflexive is here used to refer to images that invite reflection not only on their form function and meaning but also on their genesis and mode of production Early modern artists often fashioned reflexive images and effigies of this kind that appraise love by exploring the lineaments of the pictorial or sculptural image and complementarily appraise the pictorial or sculptural image by exploring the nature of love Hence the book's epigraph ut pictura amor as is a picture so is love Lotteries, Art Markets, and Visual Culture in the Low Countries, 15th-17th Centuries Sophie Raux, 2018-02-19 Lotteries Art Markets and Visual Culture examines lotteries as devices for distributing images and art objects and constructing their value in the former Low Countries Alongside the fairs and before specialist auction sales were established they were an atypical but popular and large scale form of the art trade As part of a growing entrepreneurial sensibility based on speculation and a sense of risk they lay behind many innovations This study looks at their actors networks and strategies It considers the objects at stake their value and the forms of visual communication intended to boost an appetite for ownership Ultimately it contemplates how the lottery culture impacted notions of Fortune and Vanitas in the visual arts
