Better Stories: Mapping Cultural Studies with Lawrence Grossberg Andrew Davis,John Nguyet Erni,Carolyn Hardin,Gilbert B. Rodman,Jennifer Daryl

Slack, 2025-09-10 Better Stories assembles essays and provocations in honor of Lawrence Grossberg's radically contextual and affectively attuned lifework. In over fifty chapters, contributors trace mattering maps of influence, friendship, and intellectual struggle, charged with the hope that thinking together with feeling can change the world. These essays not only comment on Grossberg's ideas and many published works but also engage, expand, confront, and reshape them. Here, cultural studies is not a settled field but an unruly and ongoing conversation, an affective and political project sustained through convivial agonism, where asking so what sparks new thinking and even better stories. With contributions from Charles R. Acland, Preston Adcock, Juan Ricardo Aparicio, Bryan G. Behrenhausen, Tony Bennett, Marcus Breen, Lisa B. Y. Calvente, Iain Chambers, Younghan Cho, John Clarke, Barbara Claypole White, Zachariah Claypole White, Chantal Cornut, Gentile D. Mapping Culture, 1995. A study of cultural and economic development in communities. The Culture and Communities Mapping Project Morgan Currie, Melisa Miranda Correa, 2022-01-01. This book describes three years of work by the Culture and Communities Mapping Project, a research project based in Edinburgh that uses maps as an object of study and also a means to facilitate research. Taking a self-reflexive approach, the book draws on a variety of iterative mapping procedures and visual methodologies, from online virtual tours to photo elicitation, to capture the voices of inhabitants and their distinctive perspectives on the city. The book argues that practices of cultural mapping consist of a research field in and of itself, and it situates this work in relation to other areas of research and practice, including critical cartography, cultural geography, critical GIS, activist mapping, and artist maps. The book also offers a range of practical approaches towards using print and web-based maps to give visibility to spaces traditionally left out of city representations but that are important to the local communities that use them. Throughout, the authors reflect critically on how, through the processes of mapping, we create knowledge about space, place, community, and culture.

The Routledge Handbook of

Urban Cultural Planning Rana Amirtahmasebi, Jason Schupbach, 2024-12-30. This book provides a manual for planning for arts and culture in cities, featuring chapters and case studies from Africa, the Americas, Australasia, the Middle East, South and East Asia, and more. The handbook is organized around seven themes: arts and planning for equity and social development; incorporating culture in urban planning; the intersection of creative and cultural industries and tourism; planning financing; public buildings; public space and public art; cultural heritage; planning and culture; and the climate crisis. Urban planners are often tasked with preserving and attracting new art and culture to a city but there are no common rules on how practitioners accomplish this work This handbook will be an invaluable resource for city planners and designers cultural workers elected officials artists and social justice workers and advocates seeking to integrate creativity and culture into urban planning
