Marcus, 2016-01-14 Schoenberg is often viewed as an isolated composer who was ill at ease in exile In this book Kenneth H Marcus shows that in fact Schoenberg's connections to Hollywood ran deep and most of the composer's exile compositions had some connection to the cultural and intellectual environment in which he found himself He was friends with numerous successful film industry figures including George Gershwin Oscar Levant David Raksin and Alfred Newman and each contributed to the composer's life and work in different ways helping him to obtain students making recordings of his music and arranging commissions While teaching at both the University of Southern California and the University of California Los Angeles Schoenberg was able to bridge two utterly different worlds the film industry and the academy Marcus shows that alongside Schoenberg's vital impact upon Southern California Modernism through his pedagogy compositions and texts he also taught students who became central to American musical modernism including John Cage and Lou Harrison Politics Unseen Ellen Macfarlane, 2025-01-07 In Politics Unseen Ellen Macfarlane radically reframes the pure photographs of California art photography society Group f 64 known for depicting Western landscapes fruits and vegetables flowers and faces By foregrounding f 64 members and their prints alliances across commercial political and artistic domains the book shatters entrenched understandings of the group as disinterested in contemporary events and unseats conceptions of its prints as icons of modernist purity Instead Politics Unseen argues the politics of f 64 s photographs become visible when interwar ideas about purity in the areas of eugenics racial essence nutrition colonialism and horticulture are interrogated Ultimately Politics Unseen alters perceptions not only of f 64 but also of what constituted a political image in 1930s America Forty-One False Starts Janet Malcolm, 2013-05-07 A National Book Critics Circle Finalist for Criticism A deeply Malcolmian volume on painters photographers writers and critics Janet Malcolm s In the Freud Archives and The Journalist and the Murderer as well as her books about Sylvia Plath and Gertrude Stein are canonical in the realm of nonfiction as is the title essay of this collection with its forty one false starts or serial attempts to capture the essence of the painter David Salle which becomes a dazzling portrait of an artist Malcolm is among the most intellectually provocative of authors writes David Lehman in The Boston Globe able to turn epiphanies of perception into explosions of insight Here in Forty one False Starts Malcolm brings together essays published over the course of several decades largely in
