At Home in the Heart of the Horseshoe Patricia Moore-Pastides, USC Educational Foundation, 2017-10-31 A pictorial and narrative tour of a historic landmark at the center of the university's original campus The University of South Carolina was founded in 1801 on a modest parcel of land now called the Horseshoe While the campus has grown well beyond its original borders the oak lined and gated historic Horseshoe remains the heart of campus life At Home in the Heart of the Horseshoe pays tribute to the handsome regency style structure at the midpoint of the historic Horseshoe Constructed in 1854 to house faculty families then used for sororities the residence ultimately became the official President s House in 1952 Through the stories and images in this beautiful book Patricia Moore Pastides provides a window into life at the University of South Carolina President s House from her perspective as First Lady Through these pages readers will discover the ways in which the house has become a central location for enriching and celebrating the university community Beginning with Mrs Russell s famous senior dinners in the 1950s the tradition of entertaining continues From small formal dinners to garden receptions for several hundred the President s House is alive with celebration A multitude of thoughtfully planned festivities embrace the entire university community honoring students parents alumni faculty staff donors legislators and national and international leaders At Home in the Heart of the Horseshoe is the first book to feature the workings of the President s House and gardens A pictorial tour through all the public rooms calls attention to the provenance of special antiques and works of art Presidential events are described and illustrated in charming photographs and delectable recipes and novel flower arrangement ideas are shared Perhaps most compelling are the stories from family members who have lived in the President s House Through interviews with wives and children and in one case a grandchild of former university presidents readers are privy to their most vivid memories of life in the house and recollections of campus happenings Experiencing the house as her home Moore Pastides shares highlights of her years as First Lady including the most poignant times as well as the lighter moments From thieving pets to helpful ghosts panty raids to Vietnam War protests and visits from brownie scouts to Pope John Paul II the tales shared here will warm the heart and in a few cases make readers laugh aloud And the more than two hundred personal and archival images will reveal not only the evolution of this beautiful historic structure but also the people who made the house a home

Country Life in America, 1910 The Greenwood

Encyclopedia of Daily Life in America Randall M. Miller, 2008-12-30 The course of daily life in the United States has been a product of tradition environment and circumstance How did the Civil War alter the lives of women both white and black left alone on southern farms How did the Great Depression change the lives of working class families in eastern cities How did the discovery of gold in California transform the lives of native American Hispanic and white communities in western territories Organized by time period as spelled out in the National Standards for U.S. History these four volumes effectively analyze the diverse whole of American experience examining the domestic economic intellectual material political recreational and religious life of the American people between 1763 and 2005 Working under the editorial direction of general editor Randall M. Miller professor of history at St. Joseph's University a group of expert volume editors carefully integrate material drawn from volumes in Greenwood's highly successful Daily Life Through History series with new material researched and written by themselves and other scholars The four volumes cover the following periods The War of Independence and Antebellum Expansion and Reform 1763-1861 The Civil War Reconstruction and the Industrialization of America 1861-1900 The Emergence of Modern America World War I and the Great Depression 1900-1940 and Wartime Postwar and Contemporary America 1940-Present Each volume includes a selection of primary documents a timeline of important events during the period images illustrating the text and extensive bibliography of further information resources both print and electronic and a detailed subject index

Barnes, 1995-10-01 Before her death in 1910 Nettie Cummings Maxim chronicled the people landscapes and animals of a typical Maine farm at Bird Hill in Bethel at the turn of the century In a time before mass media her world consisted almost entirely of her family and farm This intimate familiarity with her immediate world and a degree of cultural isolation allowed Nettie to explore and capture on film the details of farm life through the seasons and the innocence and wisdom in the eyes of the children whose lives were so closely entwined with life on a rural Maine hill farm After one look at her photographs her innate artistic talent becomes immediately apparent her use of natural light the composition of her images and her eye for detail lend a tremendously beautiful evocative quality to her images She turned the long exposures mandated by film at the turn of the century to her advantage and somehow manages to create the illusion of motion in her photographs Through her cameras Nettie recorded the world that was so endearing to her a world that has gone largely undocumented by photography In doing so she has given immortality to the people buildings and even the animals that were part of her life and her microcosm of society nearly a century ago as well as giving us a rare insight into the intricacies of daily life in the nearby communities of Locke s Mills and Greenwood Allow her to lead you back into life in rural Maine at the turn of the century it is a journey worth making and one that you will never forget     Country Life ,1909     Early American Life ,1992     A
