the author sees as harmful It explores the effects of transgenderism on the lesbian and gay community the partners of people who transgender children who are identified as transgender and the people who transgender themselves and argues that these are negative In doing so the book contends that the phenomenon is based upon sex stereotyping referred to as gender a conservative ideology that forms the foundation for women s subordination Gender Hurts argues for the abolition of gender which would remove the rationale for transgenderism This book will be of interest to scholars and students of political science feminism and feminist theory and gender studies      The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael

Makowsky,2016-03-21 In the first book length study of Valerie Martin s fiction Veronica Makowsky explores the work of this lauded but often overlooked contemporary novelist Winner of the Orange Prize for her novel Property 2003 Martin also won the Kafka Prize for Mary Reilly 1990 which was then translated into sixteen languages and made into a popular film Despite these successes her critically acclaimed novels and stories have yet to attain a broad readership Makowsky addresses this disconnect through a detailed critical study of Martin s distinguished oeuvre grounding each work in its historical cultural and theoretical contexts Makowsky begins with a sketch of Martin s life and then considers each of her ten novels and four collections of short stories Throughout Makowsky s deft critique reveals Martin to be an astute observer of people and places Pointing to both early works like A Recent Martyr 1987 and recent books such as The Ghost of the Mary Celeste 2014 Makowsky identifies a potent mixture of pleasure and fear in Martin s writing that emphasizes the author s nuanced exploration of human imagination Notable too are Martin s literary techniques especially point of view and her allusions to masterpieces in Western literature The works of Henry and William James in particular influenced Martin s thematic blend of intellectualism and empathy evident in her rounded depictions of women in works like Italian Fever 1999 and The Great Divorce 1994 A rich and substantive study The Fiction of Valerie Martin demonstrates and deconstructs the mastery of this thought provoking author in turn firmly establishing Martin s place in the canon of contemporary writers

Steve

Zimmerman, 2010-07-28 Although food has been part of motion pictures since the silent era for the most part it has been treated with about as much respect as movie extras it s always been there on the screen but seldom noticed For the most part filmmakers have settled on three basic ways to treat food as a prop in which the food is usually obscured from sight or ignored by the actors as a transition device to compress time and help advance the plot as a symbol or metaphor or in some other meaningful way to make a dramatic point or to reveal an aspect of an actor s character mood or thought process This hugely expanded and revised edition details 400 food scenes in addition to the 400 films reviewed for the first edition and an introduction tracing the technical artistic and cultural forces that contributed to the emergence of food films as a new genre originated by such films as Tampopo Babette s Feast and more recently by films like Mostly Martha No Reservations and Ratatouille A filmography is included as an appendix The Butlers of Iberville Parish, Louisiana David D. Plater, 2015-11-18 In 1833 Edward G W and Frances Parke Butler moved to their newly constructed plantation house Dunboyne on the banks of the Mississippi River near the village of Bayou Goula Their experiences at Dunboyne over the next forty years demonstrated the transformations that many land owning southerners faced in the nineteenth century from the evolution of agricultural practices and commerce to the destruction wrought by the Civil War and the transition from slave to free labor and finally to the social political and economic upheavals of Reconstruction In this comprehensive biography of the Butlers David D Plater explores the remarkable lives of a Louisiana family during one of the most tumultuous periods in American history Born in Tennessee to a celebrated veteran of the American Revolution Edward Butler pursued a military career under the mentorship of his guardian Andrew Jackson and during a posting in Washington D C met and married a grand niece of George Washington Frances Parke Lewis In 1831 he resigned his commission and relocated Frances and their young son to Iberville Parish where the couple began a sugar cane plantation As their land holdings grew they amassed more enslaved laborers and improved their social prominence in Louisiana s antebellum society A staunch opponent of abolition Butler voted in favor of Louisiana s withdrawal from the Union at the state s Secession Convention But his actions proved costly when the war cut off agricultural markets and all but destroyed the state s plantation economy leaving the Butlers in financial ruin In 1870 with their plantation and finances in disarray the Butlers sold Dunboyne and resettled in Pass Christian Mississippi where they resided in a rental cottage with the financial support of Edward J Gay a wealthy Iberville planter and their daughter in law s

father After Frances died in 1875 Edward Butler moved in with his son s family in St Louis where he remained until his death in 1888 Based on voluminous primary source material The Butlers of Iberville Parish Louisiana offers an intimate picture of a wealthy nineteenth century family and the turmoil they faced as a system based on the enslavement of others unraveled
