21st Century Literacy Renita Schmidt,Paul Lee Thomas,2008-11-09 Renita Schmidt and P L Thomas The guiding mission of the teacher education program in the university where we teach is to create teachers who are scholars and leaders While the intent of that mission is basically sound in theory we instill the idea that teachers at all levels are professionals always learning and growing in knowledge that theory that philosophical underpinning does not insure that the students who complete our program are confident about the act or performance of teaching In our unique program students work closely with one teacher and classroom for the entire senior year and then are supervised and mentored during their first semester of teaching the program is heavily field based and it depends on the effectiveness of mentoring throughout the methods coursework and the first semester of full time teaching Students tell us this guidance and support is invaluable and yet we feel the disjuncture between university and school just as many of you in more traditional student teaching settings Students hear best practice information from us in methods classes and they receive ample exposure to the research supporting our field but have a hard time implementing research based practices in their cla room settings and an even harder time finding it in the classrooms around them

One Child at a Time Pat Johnson,2023-10-10 Every elementary teacher deals with students who struggle as readers on a daily basis Each struggling child is complex and each has a unique history as a learner In One Child at a Time experienced literacy specialist and consultant Pat Johnson provides a framework she has used in numerous K 6 classrooms to help teachers understand and assist individual children The four step process outlined in the book enables teachers to focus carefully on specific strategies and behaviors analyze them with theoretical and practical lenses design targeted instruction in keeping with current research on reading process and then assess and refine the teaching in conferences with the child The framework is by no means an easy answer to a difficult problem but through its use teachers learn how the reading process works for proficient readers and how to support struggling readers as they construct their own reading process The text is packed with examples of actual conferences with students detailing how and when Pat and her colleagues intervene to instruct and assess The examples of follow up assessment and analysis of struggling readers over days and weeks provide an indispensable model for teachers Pat shows how to use this framework successfully with a range of learners including young children English language learners and students in the upper elementary grades who are stalled in their literacy progress She builds upon her decades of work as a classroom teacher literacy specialist and consultant in schools with high poverty and diversity to demonstrate how this framework can be useful in any setting
