Theoretical Times Steve Redhead,2017-11-30 This book examines how theory and theorists have achieved a global audience as never before in the post Global Financial Crisis era This crisis and the rise of neo right populism has brought about unprecedented interest in theory which has become central to the political economic cultural and social reconstruction of the world

Sexes of Winds and Packs Johannes Ungelenk,2014-12-08 Is Feminism without the agency of sexed subjects possible Can the problems of a highly gendered world be formulated and tackled without resorting to the notion of fundamental sexual difference Is it possible for a Feminism that is not based on the assumption of sexed beings to gain any consistency and follow any concerted strategy The project of this study is not only to show that all these questions can be answered with a full hearted Yes but to explore the huge scope of conceptual and also practical possibilities that are created by this change of paradigms Possibilities that are foreclosed as the first chapters attempt to work out by Judith Butler s so important theory of gendered subjects and limited by Rosi Braidotti s or Elizabeth Grosz s endeavours to read Deleuzian concepts under the assumption of Irigarayan sexual difference Gilles Deleuze s and Félix Guattari s thinking provides us with conceptual tools for a thorough analysis of the status quo and means for conceptualising resistance that do not perpetuate the power structures it is fighting against This book is an invitation to get in touch with these tools join the alliance no matter whether queer or feminist and Make Rhizomes Zugegeben Ich habe nicht alles verstanden Und habe mich doch ma los bereichert an diesem reichen Buch So viel Begl ckendes so viel Verqueres liegt in diesem schwerelosen Denken Admittedly I have not understood it all Yet I feel enriched beyond measure by this book So much delightfulness so much queer quirkiness lies within these weightless thoughts Antje R vic Strubel     Art History: The Basics Diana Newall, Grant Pooke, 2008-03-10 Art History The Basics is a concise and accessible introduction for the general reader and the undergraduate approaching the history of art for the first time at college or university It will give you answers to questions like What is art and art history What are the main methodologies used to understand art How have ideas about form sex and gender shaped representation What connects art with psychoanalysis semiotics and Marxism How are globalization and postmodernism changing art and art history Each chapter introduces key ideas issues and debates in art history including information on relevant websites and image archives Fully illustrated with an international range of artistic examples Art History The Basics also includes helpful subject summaries further ideas for reading in each chapter and a useful glossary for easy reference     Conversations on Consumption Jonathan Schroeder, 2014-06-11 Consumption studies has grown tremendously in the past decade Researchers in sociology geography anthropology history marketing management organization and even art history have embraced consumption as a key institution of our era and are eager for ideas and insights Conversations on Consumption makes an important contribution to the growing field of consumption studies by offering readers a lively introduction to debates and dialogues that have shaped the field in the form of engaging interviews and personal reflections from leading theorists and researchers The interviews in this collection were first published in the interdisciplinary journal Consumption Markets and Culture and together form an accessible summary of the leading ideas and key developments in consumption studies and social theory over the past two decades With innovative contributions from marketing academics historians consumer researchers sociologists anthropologists and artists the pieces highlight the interdisciplinary nature of consumption as well as the wide ranging interest in consumption studies They are united in their approach to understand consumption far removed from economic or managerial analysis by focusing more on the role it plays in culture Conversations on Consumption will be of interest to scholars and students of sociology anthropology consumer research management studies and history     The Identities and Practices of High Achieving Pupils Becky Francis, Barbara Read, Christine Skelton, 2012-02-02 How do some students manage to excel in their studies and be popular while other high achievers are treated as social outcasts This lively and accessible text looks at the relationships between gender race and social class and attainment and popularity for high achieving pupils The internationally renowned authors present a lucid theoretical framework that reflects the complexity of these issues placing them within the broader context of the policies that cause and constrain particular behaviours among teachers and pupils The authors draw together empirical data bringing the realities of young people to life and presenting the lessons that can be learnt to enhance the educational achievement of all students It is an engaging text for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students exploring the debates on identity and achievement

An Intense Calling Jesse Bazzul, 2023-02-27 Positing that education is a movement from one way of being to another more desirable one An Intense Calling argues that ethics should be the prime focus for the field of education The book locates ethics education and justice in human subjectivity and describes education as a necessary practice for ethical reflexivity change and becoming ethically different It also situates ethics as something that exceeds subjectivity thereby engaging ethics as a material phenomenon through topics such as aesthetics and solidarity with non humans Jesse Bazzul explores various concepts in the book including power biopolitics the commons subjectivity and materiality and draws from over twenty years of experience teaching in different countries including Canada Ireland the United States China and Ukraine Taking a wide ranging philosophical approach the book entangles ethics urgent political issues and pressing educational contexts of the twenty first century In doing so An Intense Calling maintains that ethics is the core of education because education involves finding better ways of living and being in the world

Achieving Social Impact Marta Soler Gallart, 2017-06-12 This book presents the findings of research projects conducted by CREA Community of Researchers on Excellence for all a research community based in Barcelona showing how social transformation combines scientific excellence with the political and social impact of the research Analyzing the impact of pursuing social sciences research by providing examples of achievements and opportunities despite barriers and obstacles encountered along the way it is of interest for a broad spectrum of scholars from the field of social sciences particularly public sociology as well as from other sciences such as biology and neuroscience

Holy Body Brianne Bell Jacobs, 2024-10-15 Holy Body Gender and Sexual Difference in Theological Anthropology and Ecclesiology argues that all bodies across sexual difference are procreative The author lays the ground for her argument with chapters that summarize the current debate over the gender binary in theology modern scientific evidence about sexual difference philosophical arguments about gender as a social construction the development of the gender binary in Christian history and the effects of the gender binary today With this foundation laid Brianne Bell Jacobs argues for a theological anthropology in which all bodies by performatively expanding who is loved are generative Then in the context of Roman Catholic ecclesiology Jacobs argues again that all bodies are generative She calls for an ordained priesthood in mutual relationship with the priesthood of the baptized in which both are given meaning beyond the gender binary and in which both are able together to generate the Body of Christ in the church and the Eucharist

In response to the harms of patriarchy sexualized racism homophobia and sexual abuse this book presents a Roman Catholic theology that affirms we are each of us and together a life giving and holy body      Feminist Interpretations of Maurice Merleau-Ponty Dorothea Olkowski, Gail Weiss, 2010-11-01

The Biopolitics of Embryos and Alphabets Ruth A. Miller, 2017-08-01 Biopolitics and posthumanism have been pass theories in the academy for a while now standing on the unfashionable side of the fault line between biology and liberal thought These days if people invoke them they do so a bit apologetically But as Ruth Miller argues we should not be so quick to relegate these terms to the scholarly dustbin This is because they can help to explain an increasingly important and contested influence in modern democratic politics that of nostalgia Nostalgia is another somewhat embarrassing concept for the academy It is that wistful sense of longing for an imaginary and unitary past that leads to an impossible future And moreover for this book it is ordinarily considered bad for democracy But again Miller says not so fast As she argues in this book nostalgia is the mode of engagement with the world that allows thought and life to coexist productively within democratic politics Miller demonstrates her theory by looking at nostalgia as a nonhuman mode of thought embedded in biopolitical reproduction To put this another way she looks at mass democracy as a classically nonhuman affair and nostalgic nonhuman reproduction as the political activity that makes this democracy happen To illustrate Miller draws on the politics surrounding embryos and the modernization of the Turkish alphabet Situating this argument in feminist theories of biopolitics this unusual and erudite book demonstrates that nostalgia is not as detrimental to democratic engagement as scholars have claimed      Quantum Anthropologies Vicki Kirby, 2013-07-22

In Quantum Anthropologies the renowned feminist theorist Vicki Kirby contends that some of the most provocative aspects of deconstruction have yet to be explored Deconstruction's implications have been curtailed by the assumption that issues of textuality and representation are specific to the domain of culture Revisiting Derrida's claim that there is no outside of text Kirby argues that theories of cultural construction developed since the linguistic turn have inadvertently reproduced the very binaries they intended to question such as those between nature and culture matter and ideation and fact and value Through new readings of Derrida Husserl Saussure Butler Irigaray and Merleau Ponty Kirby exposes the limitations of theories that regard culture as a second order system that cannot access much less be nature body and materiality She suggests ways of reconceiving language and culture to enable a more materially implicated outcome one that keeps alive the more counterintuitive and challenging aspects of poststructural criticism By demonstrating how fields including cybernetics biology forensics mathematics and physics can be conceptualized in deconstructive terms Kirby fundamentally rethinks deconstruction and its relevance to nature embodiment materialism and science
