Julian Barnes Sense Of An Ending:

The Sense of an Ending Julian Barnes, 2011 Follows a middle aged man as he reflects on a past he thought was behind him until he is presented with a legacy that forces him to reconsider different decisions and to revise his place in the world

The Sense of an Ending Julian Barnes, 2026-01-08 The Sense of an Ending by Julian Barnes Samantha-ellen Bound, 2011 Memory in the Twenty-First Century Sebastian Groes, 2016-03-29 This book maps and analyses the changing state of memory at the start of the twenty first century in essays written by scientists scholars and writers It recontextualises memory by investigating the impact of new conditions such as the digital revolution climate change and an ageing population on our world Imagining Ageing Carmen Concilio, 2018-10-04 What do literary texts tell us about growing old The essays in this volume introduce and explore representations of ageing and old age in canonical works of English and postcolonial literature The contributors examine texts by William Shakespeare Daniel Defoe Julian Barnes Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney J M Coetzee Alice Munro Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace and together with a medical study they suggest solutions to the challenges arising from the current demographic change brought about by ageing Western populations Purpose and Providence Vernon White, 2015-10-22 Do our lives have purpose Despite the rise of secularism we are still confronted by a sense of meaning and direction in the events of history and our own lives something which is beyond us and not our own creation imagination Using the novels of Thomas Hardy and Julian Barnes Vernon White tracks this belief in intellectual history and tests its resilience in modern literature Both novelists portray modern and late modern scenarios where although the idea of an objective purpose has been deconstructed it still haunts the protagonists Using literature as the starting point the discussion moves on to an exploration of this belief in its theological form through the doctrine of providence White critically reviews the classic canon of providence and its pressure points the problems in divine causality the metaphysical assumptions required in its acceptance and the contradictions to be found between God s purpose and the metanarratives of history Using Barth and Frei White suggests new ways of re imagining divine providence to take account of these issues The credibility of this re defined providence is then tested against scripture experience and praxis with the result being an understanding of providence that does not rely on empirical progress Crisis in Contemporary British Fiction Anastasia Logotheti, 2023-10-30 This collection of critical essays explores how contemporary British authors engage with the theme of crisis in their fiction Of interest to scholars and students of literary and cultural studies this volume investigates crisis as a complex phenomenon not only as a cultural concept involving sociopolitical systems but also as a mode of challenge to established power structures and modes of representation across narrative traditions Through the examination of a variety of leading authors such as Kazuo Ishiguro and award winning texts like Julian Barnes The Sense of an Ending 2011 this collection foregrounds the theme of crisis as a critical commonality emerging among vastly different stylistic expressions of local and global concerns Bringing together a variety of scholars from Germany Italy Greece the UK and the

US this collection provides diverse disciplinary perspectives and highlights the significance of social and ethical concerns in contemporary British fiction through the investigation of the theme of crisis English Studies in the 21st Century Zekiye Antakyahoğlu, Kyriaki Asiatidou, Ela İpek Gündüz, Enes Kavak, Gamze Almacıoğlu, 2020-03-06 English Studies in the 21st Century presents the results of recent academic research concerning a wide spectrum of subjects including politics psychology religion philosophy history culture aesthetics and education related to literary cultural and language studies Specifically this collection includes scholarly reflections interpretations criticisms and experiments that both strengthen and challenge dominant perspectives on the English literary tradition and contribute to a multifaceted discussion of contemporary drama and theater contemporary theory and fiction Neo Victorianism the Anthropocene posthumanism and interdisciplinary studies in English including linguistics and ELT The book will be an ideal reference for both academics and students The Politics of Traumatic Literature Önder Çakırtaş, Şahin Kızıltaş, Antolin C. the specific use of metareference results in a renegotiation of the specific patterns of literary communication and claims that this renegotiation can be profitably described with the concept of reconstruction To substantiate this claim in the second half of the book Funk discusses narrative texts that illustrate this transition from postmodern deconstruction to postmillennial reconstruction The analyses take in distinguished and prize winning writers such as Dave Eggers Julian Barnes Jennifer Egan and Jasper Fforde The broad scope of authors featuring writers from the US as well as the UK underlines the fact that the reconstructive tendencies and strategies Funk diagnoses are of universal significance for the intellectual and cultural self image of the global North
