Blackness and the Creation of the African American Literary Tradition Lena Hill,2014-02-17 This study examines how black writers use visual tropes as literary devices to challenge readers conceptions of black identity Lena Hill charts two hundred years of African American literary history from Phillis Wheatley to Ralph Ellison and engages with a variety of canonical and lesser known writers Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature in the United States Donna L.

Gilton,2020-02-18 This edition of Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature in the United States addresses both quantitative and more qualitative changes in this field over the last decade Quantitative changes include more authors books and publishers book review sources booklists and awards organizations institutions and websites and criticism and other scholarship Qualitative changes include More support for new and emerging writers and illustrators Promotion of multicultural literature both in the U S and around the world as well as developments in global literature Developments in the literatures described throughout this book as well as in research supporting this literature The impact of technology Characteristics and activities of four adult audiences that use and promote multicultural children s literature and Changes in leaders and their organizations This is still a single reference source for busy and involved librarians teachers parents scholars publishers distributors and community leaders Most books on multicultural children s literature are written especially for teachers librarians and scholars They may be introductions to the literature selection tools teaching guides or very theoretical books on choosing evaluating and using these materials Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature in the United States focuses much more on the history of the development of this literature from the nineteenth century to the present day This book provides much more of a cultural and political context for the early development of this literature It emphasizes the self determining viewpoints and activities of diverse people as they produce materials for the young Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature describes organizations events activities and other contributions of diverse writers illustrators publishers researchers scholars librarians educators and parents It also describes trends in the research on the literature It elaborates more on ways in which diversity is still an issue in publishing companies and an extended list of related industries It describes related literature from outside of the U S and makes connections to traditional global literature Last Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature shows the impact of multiculturalism on education libraries and the mainstream culture in general While the other books on multiculturalism focus on how to find evaluate and use multicultural materials especially in schools and libraries this book is concerned over whether and how books are produced in the first place and how this material impact the broader society In many ways it supplements other books on multicultural children s literature Booklist's 1000 Best Young Adult Books Since 2000 Booklist,2014-05-15 With the explosion in YA publishing it s harder than ever to separate good books from the rest Booklist magazine s editors deep and broad knowledge of the landscape offers indispensable guidance and here they bring together the very best of the best books for young adults published since the start of the 21st century

Julie Dash Kameelah L. Martin, 2025-09-23 This collection of interviews with Julie Dash b 1952 offers an in depth exploration of the life career and creative processes of one of the most groundbreaking filmmakers in American cinema Dash whose landmark film Daughters of the Dust 1991 became the first feature by an African American woman to receive a wide theatrical release in the United States has continuously pushed the boundaries of cinematic representation exploring African American history culture and identity through a distinctly poetic and visionary lens Dash s use of Black feminist narrative and her ability to supplant the status quo of Black women s representation in cinema aligned with the evolution of Black women s writing and visual arts that exploded in the eighties and early nineties Starting with her debut film Illusions 1982 and touching upon other works such as Praise House 1991 the eighteen interviews collected in this volume weave together the stylistic integrity and unconventional model of storytelling that Dash thoughtfully midwives into existence Julie Dash Interviews will put students scholars and admirers of Dash s oeuvre in close proximity to her creative thought process and influences as well as make accessible an archive of conversations in which she discusses the longevity of her career intergenerational shifts and the reception of her work across the globe

Ain't I an Anthropologist Jennifer L. Freeman Marshall, 2023-02-28 Iconic as a novelist and popular cultural figure Zora Neale Hurston remains underappreciated as an anthropologist Is it inevitable that Hurston s literary authority should eclipse her anthropological authority If not what socio cultural and institutional values and processes shape the different ways we read her work Jennifer L. Freeman Marshall considers the polar receptions to Hurston s two areas of achievement by examining the critical response to her work across both fields Drawing on a wide range of readings Freeman Marshall explores Hurston s popular appeal as iconography her elevation into the literary canon her concurrent marginalization in anthropology despite her significant contributions and her place within constructions of Black feminist literary traditions Perceptive and original Ain t I an Anthropologist is an overdue reassessment of Zora Neale Hurston s place in American cultural and intellectual life

Expanding the Foundation Steven T. Bickmore, Shanetia P. Clark, 2021-12-15 This volume focuses on a group of authors who began writing in the late 1980s This group consists of eight authors who expanded the foundation and built a critical reputation that garnered a variety of nominations and awards These authors are Rita Williams Garcia Jacqueline Woodson Angela Johnson Nikki Grimes Sharon Draper Christopher Paul Curtis and Sharon G Flake and Jewel Parker Rhodes This volume has a chapter for each of these eight authors that focuses on their critical reception as authors then discusses in some detail a single representative work and finally offers classroom activities for individual small group and whole class activities that will engage students in the work discussed

Jumping the Color Line Susie Trenka, 2021-02-02 From the first synchronized sound films of the late 1920s through the end of World War II African American music and dance styles were ubiquitous in films Black performers however were marginalized mostly limited to appearing in specialty acts and various types of short films whereas stardom was reserved for Whites Jumping the Color Line discusses vernacular jazz dance in film as a focal point of American race relations Looking at intersections of race gender and class the book examines how the racialized and gendered body in film performs challenges and negotiates identities and stereotypes Arguing for the transformative and subversive potential of jazz dance performance onscreen the six chapters address a variety of films and performers including many that have received little attention to date Topics include Hollywood's first Black female star Nina Mae McKinney male tap dance class acts in Black cast short films of the early 1930s the film career of Black tap soloist Jeni LeGon the role of dance in the Soundies jukebox shorts of the 1940s cinematic images of the Lindy hop and a series of teen films from the early 1940s that appealed primarily to young White fans of swing culture With a majority of examples taken from marginal film forms such as shorts and B movies the book highlights their role in disseminating alternative images of racial and gender identities as embodied by dancers images that were at least partly at odds with those typically found in major Hollywood productions 101 Great, Ready-to-Use Book Lists for Teens Nancy J.

Keane, 2012-03-14 Building on the author's work in The Big Book of Teen Reading Lists this book provides 101 new and revised reading lists created in consultation with teachers and public librarians an invaluable resource for any educator who plans activities for children that involve using literature Nancy J Keane is the author of the award winning website Booktalks Quick and Simple nancykeane.com/booktalks as well as the creator of the open collaboration wiki ATN Book Lists With her latest book 101 Great Ready to Use Book Lists for Teens she provides another indispensable resource for librarians and teachers The lists in this book are the result of careful consultation with teachers and public librarians and from discussions on professional email lists These indispensable lists can be utilized in many ways for example as handouts to teachers as suggested reading to create book displays or as display posters in the library This collection will facilitate the creation of valuable reading lists to support the extended reading demands of today's teens Educating African American Students Gloria Swindler Boutte, 2015-08-20 Focused on preparing educators to teach African American students this straightforward and teacher friendly text features a careful balance of published scholarship a framework for culturally relevant and critical pedagogy research based case studies of model teachers and tested culturally relevant practical strategies and actionable steps teachers can adopt Its premise is that teachers who understand Black culture as an asset rather than a liability and utilize teaching techniques that have been shown to work can and do have specific positive impacts on the educational experiences of African American children The Publishers Weekly, 2006 Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom Dorothy Littlejohn Guthrie, 2011-09-14 In this book African American literature is illuminated through a project based curriculum that incorporates national curriculum standards It is important that the school curricula be representative of the diversity of the American student population Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom is designed to help teachers and librarians achieve that goal The book recommends and annotates more than 200 titles that touch on African American life from slavery through the present time most of them by black authors and many of them winners of the Coretta Scott King Caldecott and or Newbery awards This guide offers cross curricular lesson plans for grades K 12 Each chapter identifies areas in which instructional attention is most needed to help students develop a greater appreciation for diversity perseverance and ethnicity Examples and ideas for activities are offered to reinforce related concepts With this book teachers and librarians will be better able to motivate and inform helping students discover the richness of African American culture now and through time World War I and Southern Modernism David A. Davis, 2017-11-27 Winner of the 2018 Eudora Welty Prize When the United States entered World War I parts of the country had developed industries urban cultures and democratic political systems but the South lagged behind remaining an impoverished agriculture region Despite New South boosterism the culture of the early twentieth century South was comparatively artistically arid Yet southern writers dominated the literary marketplace by the 1920s and 1930s World War I brought southerners into contact with modernity before the South fully modernized This shortfall created an inherent tension between the region s existing agricultural social structure and the processes of modernization leading to distal modernism a form of writing that combines elements of modernism to depict non modern social structures Critics have struggled to formulate explanations for the eruption of modern southern literature sometimes called the Southern Renaissance Pinpointing World War I as the catalyst David A Davis argues southern modernism was not a self generating outburst of writing but a response to the disruptions modernity generated in the region In World War I and Southern Modernism Davis examines dozens of works of literature by writers including William Faulkner Ellen Glasgow and Claude McKay that depict the South during the war Topics explored in the book include contact between the North and the South southerners who served in combat and the developing southern economy Davis also provides a new lens for this argument taking a closer look at African Americans in the military and changing gender roles Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001-08 The Coretta Scott King Awards, 1970-2009 Henrietta M. Smith, 2009-06-29 Gathers together the best African American children s literature School Library Journal , 2008
