Jungle Warfare Experiences And Encounters:

Jungle Warfare John Cross, 2008-02-21 The physical conditions of jungle warfare and the closeness of contact with the enemy pose unique problems and call for special soldiering skills Colonel John Cross a life long Gurkha officer has an unrivalled knowledge of this demanding warfare and uses it to best advantage in this instructive yet personal account of techniques and experiences He uses examples from British and Japanese sides in the Second World War and goes on to demonstrate how tactics and strategy developed in the Malay Borneo and Indo China theatres thereafter He laces his work with vivid recollections and assessments of friend and foe along with entertaining anecdotes from a wide range of sources This excellent book offers a perfect blend of factual military history and personal recollection and the reader gains a unique insight into this most challenging form of warfare

Jungle Warfare J. P. Cross, 2008 This firsthand account of jungle warfare was written by a top military expert on the subject who draws from his own experiences fighting in Southeast Asia A former officer in the Gurkha regiment of the British army with unrivaled knowledge of jungle fighting techniques Cross cites examples from both the British and Japanese sides during World War II and goes on to demonstrate how tactics and strategy evolved in later campaigns in the Malay Borneo Indo China and Vietnam theaters First published in hardcover in 1989 and out of print for years the book is now available for the first time in paperback

The Jungle, Japanese and the British Commonwealth Armies at War, 1941-45 Tim Moreman, 2013-04-15 This book focuses on the British Commonwealth armies during the Second World War which following the disastrous Malayan and Burma campaigns had to hurriedly reorganize their troops to fight the Japanese

Malaya's Secret Police 1945-60 Leon Comber, 2008 The Malayan Emergency lasted from 1948 to 1960 During these tumultuous years following so soon after the Japanese surrender at the end of the Second World War the whole country was once more turned upside down and the lives of the people changed The war against the Communist Party of Malaya's determined efforts to overthrow the Malayan government involved the whole population in one form or another Dr Comber analyses the pivotal role of the Malayan Police's Special Branch the government's supreme intelligence agency in defeating the communist uprising and safeguarding the security of the country He shows for the first time how the Special Branch was organised and how it worked in providing the security forces with political and operational intelligence His book represents a major contribution to our understanding of the Emergency and will be of great interest to all students of Malaya's recent history as well as counter guerrilla operations It can profitably be mined too to see what lessons can be learned for counterinsurgency operations in other parts of the world

Georges River Blues Heather Goodall, 2022-02-02 The lower Georges River on Dharawal and Dharug lands was a place of fishing grounds swimming holes and picnics in the early twentieth century But this all changed after World War II when rapidly expanding industry and increasing population fell heaviest on this river polluting its waters and destroying its bush Local people campaigned to defend their river They battled municipal councils who were themselves struggling against an explosion of garbage as population and economy changed In these blues an Australian term for conflict it was mangroves and swamps that became the focus of the fight Mangroves were expanding because of increasing pollution and early climate change Councils wanted to solve their garbage problems by bulldozing mangroves and bushland dumping garbage and eventually building playing fields So they attacked mangroves as useless swamps that harboured disease Residents defended mangroves by mobilising ecological science to show that these plants nurtured immature fish and protected the river s health These suburban resident action campaigns have been ignored by histories of the Australian environmental movement which have instead focused on campaigns to save distant wilderness or inner city built environments The Georges River environmental conflicts may have been less theatrical but they were fought out just as bitterly And local Georges River campaigners men women and often children were just as tenacious They struggled to keep bushland in our suburbs laying the foundation for today s widespread urban environmental consciousness Cover Ruth Staples was a courageous Georges River campaigner who lived all her life around Lime Kiln Bay at Oatley West She kept on fighting to regenerate the river until her death aged 90 in 2020

Operation Blowpipe JP Cross,2022-09-01 Jason Rance an officer in a wartime Gurkha battalion involved in the deaths or capture of four Malaya born members of the Indian National Army returns to Malaya in 1948 in a new Gurkha battalion where he is operationally engaged in fighting the Communist guerillas The parents of the four dead men find out how Rance was involved with their sons deaths and plan revenge Meanwhile a member of the Chinese Communist party visiting the Malayan Communists decides not to return to China and Rance attempts to extract him from across the Thai border in a fashion that nearly sees him court martialled Rance must collaborate with the Temiar an indigenous people living deep in the Malayan jungle and only the skill of a Gurkha saves him from being killed by four poisoned blowpipe darts

Modern Counter-Insurgency Ian Beckett,2017-05-15 Insurgency has been the most prevalent form of conflict in the modern world since the end of the Second World War Accordingly it has posed a major challenge to conventional armed forces all of whom have had to evolve counter insurgency methods in response The volume brings together classic articles on the counter insurgency experience since 1945

Operation Tipping Point JP Cross,2023-07-01 Malaya 1951 It is the Malayan Emergency and a British major commanding a rifle company of Gurkhas is woken in the small hours by a call from Special Branch with the six figure grid reference of a large party of communist guerrillas The line is poor the army man is hung over and the location is written down incorrectly But Dame Fortune that ever fickle lady also decrees that the Special Branch information is out of date and the communists are some way away so that against millions of odds the two parties meet up and the guerrillas suffer their greatest loss of the Emergency The story of what would become the tipping point of the Malayan Emergency in favour of the security forces is retold against a background of events in Moscow Darjeeling Delhi and Calcutta where senior communist party members plot to infiltrate Gurkha units and destabilise Malaya It is up to Captain Rance of the Gurkhas and his Chinese friend a mole in the politburo to overturn these plots before communism gains the upper hand in a Malaya aiming for self rule Operation Tipping Point is the eighth in a series of books involving Gurkha military units that may be read in any order The author JP Cross a retired Gurkha colonel old jungle hand and counter insurgency expert draws on real events he witnessed during his time fighting in the Malayan Emergency

Confrontation Nicholas van der Bijl, 2014-05-19 For over four years in the Swinging Sixties the armed forces of the UK were engaged in a little publicized but crucial jungle war against communist aggressive on the vast island of Borneo At any one time up to 50 000 troops half of the Armys strength today were deployed along a 1 000 mile front Their enemy were the communist led Indonesians whose leaders were determined to seize the states of Sarawak Sabah and the oil rich Brunei all of whom for their part wished to maintain their Commonwealth links The catalyst for the war was the 1962 uprising in Brunei which was quickly crushed by the bold intervention of British army units The arrival of Major General Walter Walker himself a controversial figure gave the subsequent campaign a clear direction Indonesian incursions were rigorously defended and ruthlessly pursued Top Secret Claret operations took the fight to the enemy with cross border operations initially using Special Forces and later with Chindit style long range patrols The outcome was a text book military victory thus avoiding a British Vietnam debacle

Operation Black Rose JP Cross, 2019-11-01 In 1938 Malaya Japanese intelligence officers and pro Independence Indians conspire to test their suspicions about British intelligence officer Philip Rance by attempting to burgle his office The plot is foiled by Rance s teenage son Jason who must move to England to escape revenge Singapore and Malaya fall to the Japanese and captured Indian POWs are enlisted in the anti British Indian National Army under Subhas Chandra Bose All four unsuccessful burglars are involved one re enters India by submarine two by parachute and the fourth is sent to fight against British forces in Burma Having been commissioned in India the young Jason Rance now serves in a Gurkha battalion Detailed to teach the Chinese army in India about Bren guns before being attached to a Nepalese unit for sniper work he finds himself unwittingly involved against all four renegades who try to kill him Based on historical fact and the author s personal knowledge Operation Black Rose is the first in a series of books involving Gurkha military units that may be read in any order and includes Operation Janus Operation Blind Spot Operation Stealth and Operation Four Rings The author JP Cross a retired Gurkha colonel draws on real characters and events he witnessed across various theatres of war

Death Waits in the Dark Roy Jumper, 2001-08-30 The Senoi Praaq is a Malaysian special forces unit originally created in 1956 by the British colonial authorities to fight communism during the Malayan Emergency The term Senoi Praaq which roughly translates as war people stems from the Semai language and is the basis of a colorful legend in Malaysia The unit is largely comprised of non Malay tribal peoples known collectively as the Orang Asli of Peninsular Malaysia Jumper details Senoi Praaq inception as a private army and its subsequent development into an affiliate of the Royal Malaysian Police RMP in this fast paced and often graphic account of irregular warfare as it applies to counterinsurgency The unit began as a creature of British Military Intelligence and fought in the deep jungle as Special Air Service SAS prot g s eventually replacing the latter upon Malaysian independence from Great Britain They then served as mercenaries employed by the United States Central Intelligence Agency in Vietnam and later fought on Borneo during Malaysia's own undeclared war with Indonesia Today the unit remains under arms and heads up a large paramilitary apparatus maintained in conjunction with conventional military forces Malaysia's capacity to project force throughout South East Asia should not be underestimated Jumper warns The Senoi Praaq is a unique fighting force upon which Malaysia may rely to preserve her sovereignty Operation Hunter JP Cross,2024-05-01 In 1938 Malaya a young English boy named Jason Rance rescues Siu Tse a Chinese girl from a vicious assault Their paths diverge before she learns his name leaving her to idolise the memory of her unknown saviour Fast forward to 1953 and the height of the Malayan Emergency where tensions and conflicts engulf the region Siu Tse discovers she is pregnant by a British officer who is planning to join the Malayan Communist Party In the process of defecting he is tracked down and killed by British security forces Misinformed and believing a Jason Rance an officer in a Gurkha battalion to be responsible Siu Tse is consumed by a burning desire for vengeance Unaware of their past connection she is prepared to join the communist guerrillas to seek her revenge In this complex tapestry of loyalty betrayal and unresolved pasts the paths of Jason Rance saviour or foe and Siu Tse lover or avenger are destined to cross again Operation Hunter is the ninth in a series of books involving Gurkha military units that may be read in any order The author JP Cross a retired Gurkha colonel old jungle hand and counter insurgency expert draws on real events he witnessed during his time fighting in the Malayan Emergency Confrontation, Strategy and War Termination Christopher Tuck,2016-05-23 At the heart of this book is the problem of war termination Britain won an almost unbroken string of tactical military victories during an undeclared war against the Republic of Indonesia in the 1960s yet it proved difficult to translate this into strategic success Using conflict termination theories this book argues that British strategy during Confrontation was both exemplary and flawed both of which need not be mutually exclusive The British experience in Indonesia represents an illuminating case study of the difficulties associated with strategy and the successful termination of conflicts The value of this book lies in two areas as a contribution to the literature on British counter insurgency operations and as a contribution to the debates on the problems of war termination in the context of strategic thought A Face Like a Chicken's Backside J P Cross,2024-12-30 In almost forty years in Asia without a home posting British officer John Cross spent ten of them under the jungle canopy He amassed a wealth of experience fighting against Communist Revolutionary Warfare and training others to do so As a result he was called upon to work in many formidable situations and twice found himself on an army short list of one for difficult tasks Cross focuses on five stages in his extraordinary army career He spent eight years as a company commander with the Gurkhas in Malaya fighting jungle operations against the communists After that he took part in the attempt to end twenty years of guerrilla domination over the aborigines in north Malaya and secured the territory between Thailand and the aboriginal population that had been occupied and used by the guerrillas As commander of the Sarawak and Sabah Border

Scouts in Borneo Cross was constantly on the move At one point in this hectic period in his service he narrowly escaped having his head cut off by an angry tribesman He then commanded the Gurkha Independent Parachute Company which had to operate like paras SAS men and conventional soldiers during the latter part of the Indonesian Confrontation with Malaya Finally Cross was the last commander of the British Army's Jungle Warfare School which trained officers and men from five continents including American trackers who as a result had the price on their heads doubled in Vietnam After the closure of the Jungle Warfare School John Cross was asked to work in both the Royal Thai Army and the Army of the Republic of Vietnam Instead he became defense Attach in Laos This fascinating book provides vivid insight into the realities of jungle warfare by one of its most experienced practitioners SAS: The First Secret Wars Tim Jones, 2005-04-22 The covert clandestine operations of the Special Air Service SAS regiment from the jungles of Malaya Borneo and Brunei to the deserts and mountains of the Middle East and Afghanistan have always been the focus of intense fascination stoked by the regiment's closed organization and secretive activities However no period of activity has remained more secret than the vital years in the immediate aftermath of World War II when the regiment seemingly expired only to rise miraculously from the dead to fight communism in the Malaya Emergency Tim Jones fascinating history pieces together the evidence to show that while the Malaya Emergency re-established the SAS as a unique source of counter guerilla expertise the regiment was not disbanded in 1945 and was in fact covertly involved in the Greek Civil War of 1945-49 a war unmatched in savagery until the Bosnian conflict in the 1990s Revealing important operational secrets and shedding new light on post war history this book will be essential reading for enthusiasts of military history and those interested in the world of intelligence Sepoys against the Rising Sun Kaushik Roy, 2016-02-15 During the Second World War the Imperial Japanese Army IJA suffered one of its greatest defeats in Burma Both in Malaya and Burma the bulk of the British Commonwealth forces comprised Indian units Few people know that by 1944 about 70 percent of the Allied ground personnel in Burma was composed of soldiers of the Indian Army The Indian Army comprised British led Indian units British officered units of the Indian princely states and the British units attached to the Government of India Based on the archival materials collected from India and the United Kingdom Sepoys against the Rising Sun assesses the combat military battlefield effectiveness of the Indian Army against the IJA during World War II The volume is focussed on the tactical innovations and organizational adaptations which enabled the sepoys to overcome the Japanese in the trying terrain of Burma Post-war Counterinsurgency and the SAS, 1945-1952 Tim Jones, 2012-12-06 This work details the state of British counterinsurgency knowledge by 1945 and shows how wartime special forces and unconventional warfare affected many postwar counterinsurgencies The vital role of the Special Air Service SAS is revealed here for the first time Warfare and Tracking in Africa, 1952-1990 Timothy J Stapleton, 2015-10-06 During the decolonization wars in East and Southern Africa tracking became increasingly valuable as a military tactic Drawing on archival research and interviews Stapleton presents a comparative study of the role of tracking in insurgency and counter insurgency across Kenya Zimbabwe and Namibia      The Making Of The British Army Allan Mallinson, 2009-11-10 Edgehill 1642 Surveying the disastrous scene in the aftermath of the first battle of the English Civil War Oliver Cromwell realized that war could no longer be waged in the old feudal way there had to be system and discipline and therefore eventually a standing professional army From the New Model Army of Cromwell s distant vision former soldier Allan Mallinson shows us the people and events that have shaped the British army we know today How Marlborough s momentous victory at Blenheim is linked to Wellington s at Waterloo how the desperate fight at Rorke s Drift in 1879 underpinned the heroism of the airborne forces at Arnhem in 1944 and why Montgomery s momentous victory at El Alamein mattered long after the Second World War was over From the British Army s origins at the battle of Edgehill to the recent conflict in Afghanistan The Making of the British Army is history at its most relevant and most dramatic      Geopolitics, Geography and Strategy Colin S. Gray, Geoffrey Sloan, 2014-01-14 Geopolitical conditions influence all strategic behaviour even when cooperation among different kinds of military power is expected as the norm action has to be planned and executed in specific physical environments The geographical world cannot be avoided and it happens to be organized into land sea air and space and possibly the electromagnetic spectrum including cyberspace Although the meaning of geography for strategy is a perpetual historical theme explicit theory on the subject is only one hundred years old Ideas about the implication of geographical especially spatial relationships for political power which is to say geopolitics flourished early in the twentieth century Divided into theory and practice sections this volume covers the big names such as Mackinder Mahan and Haushofer as well as looking back at the vital influence of weather and geography on naval power in the long age of sail sixteenth to nineteenth centuries It also looks forward to the consequences of the revival of geopolitics in post Soviet Russia and the new space based field of astropolitics
