The Faithful Prepper: A Christian's Perspective on Prepping Aden Tate, How does prepping mesh with the Christian faith Is prepping actually a sign of a lack of faith in God The Faithful Prepper seeks to not only answer such questions but also takes a look at a number of other post disaster scenarios and some of the things a Christian will have to think about in each of them Such scenarios include How do you incorporate charity into post disaster life without compromising your family's safety How do you live with others in confined circumstances in a very dangerous environment What is the role of the church post disaster if any Who do you let stay at your retreat post disaster and who do you turn away How do you live a prepared lifestyle yet not one dominated by fear When bad stuff happens post disaster how do you cope How do you care for those who have special needs post disaster And much more Aden Tate is a Christian writer who lives in The Beautiful South To keep up to date with his most recent works visit adentate weebly com

Independence Days Sharon Astyk, 2009-11-01 Be warned Independence Days will change the way you eat It is not just a guide for storing food but a manual for living in a changing world Kathy Harrison author of Prepping 101 Hard times aren't just coming they are here already The recent economic collapse has seen millions of North Americans move from the middle class to being poor and from poor to hungry At the same time the idea of eating locally is shifting from being a fringe activity for those who can afford it to an essential element of getting by But aside from the locavores and slow foodies who really knows how to eat outside of the supermarket and out of season And who knows how to eat a diet based on easily stored and home preserved foods Independence Days tackles both the nuts and bolts of food preservation as well as the host of broader issues tied to the creation of local diets It includes How to buy in bulk and store food on the cheap Techniques from canning to dehydrating Tools what you need and what you don't In addition it focuses on how to live on a pantry diet year round how to preserve food on a community scale and how to reduce reliance on industrial agriculture by creating vibrant local economies Better food plentiful food at a lower cost and with less energy expended Independence Days is for all who want to build a sustainable food system and keep eating even in hard times Astyk builds a sturdy path to a full larder a safe family and a more secure community Robin Wheeler author of Food Security for the Faint of Heart The Locavore Way Amy Cotler, 2009-12-15 Eating food grown close to home is not only tasty but comes with great benefits for the health of your family your local community and the environment Learn how and where to find local foods how to eat locally on a tight budget what questions to ask at the farmers market and how to grow your own food in small spaces With shopping tips and simple guides to preparing what's in season The Locavore Way makes eating locally as simple as it is delicious Making Home Sharon Astyk, 2020-12-15 Shows us why the actions that prepare us for emergencies and energy descent are the right things to do no matter what the future brings Toby Hemenway author of Gaia's Garden Other books tell us how to live the good life but you might have to win the lottery to do it Making Home is about improving life with the real people around us and the resources we already have While encouraging us to be more resilient in the face of hard times author Sharon Astyk also points out the beauty grace and elegance that result because getting the most out of everything we use is a way of transforming our lives into something much more fulfilling Written from the perspective of a family who has already made this transition Making Home shows readers how to turn the challenge of living with less into settling for more more happiness more security and more peace of mind Learn simple but effective strategies to Save money on everything from heating and cooling to refrigeration laundry water sanitation cooking and cleaning Create a stronger more resilient family Preserve more for future generations We must make fundamental changes to our way of life in the face of ongoing economic crisis and energy depletion Making Home takes the fear out of this prospect and invites us to embrace a simpler more abundant reality Americans are born to be transient Sharon Astyk has the prescription for dealing with that genetic disease and building a healthy nativeness into our lives Bill McKibben New York Times bestselling author Exhaustively researched and compassionately delivered Harriet Fasenfest author of A Householder's Guide to the Universe When Disaster Strikes Matthew Stein, 2011-11-16 Disasters often strike without warning and leave a trail of destruction in their wake Yet armed with the right tools and information survivors can fend for themselves and get through even the toughest circumstances Matthew Stein's When Disaster Strikes provides a thorough practical guide for how to prepare for and react in many of life's most unpredictable scenarios In this disaster preparedness manual he outlines the materials you ll need from food and water to shelter and energy to first aid and survival skills to help you safely live through the worst When Disaster Strikes covers how to find and store food water and clothing as well as the basics of installing back up power and lights You ll learn how to gather and sterilize water build a fire treat injuries in an emergency and use alternative medical sources when conventional ones are unavailable Stein instructs you on the smartest responses to natural disasters such as fires earthquakes hurricanes and floods how to keep warm during winter storms even how to protect yourself from attack or other dangerous situations With this comprehensive guide in hand you can be sure to respond quickly correctly and confidently when a crisis threatens
