Julian Of Norwich Julian Of Norwich:

Julian's Gospel Veronica Mary Rolf, 2013 This fascinating study of the life and work of Julian of Norwich the 14th century English mystic whose Revelations is among the most popular and influential works of Christian mysticism is the first book to combine an historical reconstruction of Julian's life in 14th century Norwich with a comprehensive commentary on her Revelations in a new and faithful translation from the Middle English Unlike other brief summaries of Julian's life and times this book goes in depth to uncover the political cultural social and religious milieu that formed and deeply influenced her development as a woman and a mystic Additionally unlike other textual companions to Julian's work that provide only short explanations of Middle English words or merely footnote theological terms this work gives the reader a detailed analysis of her writings illuminating her ground breaking mystical theology with extensive scholarship Throughout the book creates a strong dramatic arc for Julian's Revelations that interweaves her personal sufferings and burning questions with her visionary experiences producing a compelling spiritual biography

Julian of Norwich Grace Jantzen, 2000 Julian of Norwich an anchoress of the fourteenth century has captured the imagination of our time in a remarkable way She shares with her readers the deepest and most intimate experiences of her life through her writings This detailed study of Julian attempts not only to penetrate her theological ideas but also brings to life her world and her life as an anchoress Grace Jantzen has more than an academic interest in Julian's writings and sets out to integrate scholarly findings with contemporary spirituality There is much in the thought of this extraordinary woman mystic which is excitingly relevant her insights into spiritual growth and wholeness foreshadow the modern interest in psychotherapy and her image of Christ as mother has resounding implications for Christian feminist theology In a new introduction to this edition the author explores what it might mean to be an anchoress in post modernity and how reflections on Julian of Norwich and her desire for God can enable us to become the space of divine transformation This is a book not only for those who have a scholarly interest in Julian but also for anyone drawn to Christian mysticism and the place of women within that tradition Julian of Norwich an anchoress of the fourteenth century has captured the imagination of our time in a remarkable way She shares with her readers the deepest and most intimate experiences of her life through her writings

Revelations of Divine Love

Julian of Norwich, Wyatt North, 2014-03-11 The Revelations of Divine Love which also bears the title A Revelation of Love in Sixteen Shewings above the first chapter is a book of Christian mystical devotions written by Julian of Norwich It is believed to be the first published book in the English language to be written by a woman At the age of thirty May 13 1373 Julian was struck with a serious illness As she prayed and prepared for death she received a series of sixteen visions on the Passion of Christ and the Virgin Mary Saved from the brink of death Julian of Norwich dedicated her life to solitary prayer and the contemplation of the visions she had received She wrote a short account of her visions probably soon after the event About twenty or thirty years after her illness near the end of the fourteenth century she wrote down her visions and her understanding of them Whereas Latin was the language of religion in her day Julian of Norwich wrote in a straightforward Middle English perhaps because she had no other medium in which to express herself she describes herself as a simple creature unlettered Rev chap 2

The Writings of Julian of Norwich Nicholas Watson, Jacqueline Jenkins, 2006 Julian of Norwich ca 1343 ca 1416 a contemporary of Geoffrey Chaucer William Langland and John Wyclif is the earliest woman writer of English we know about Although she described herself as a simple creature unlettered Julian is now widely recognized as one of the great speculative theologians of the Middle Ages whose thinking about God as love has made a permanent contribution to the tradition of Christian belief Despite her recent popularity however Julian is usually read only in translation and often in extracts rather than as a whole This book presents a much needed new edition of Julian s writings in Middle English one that makes possible the serious reading and study of her thought not just for students and scholars of Middle English but also for those with little or no previous experience with the language Separate texts of both Julian s works A Vision Showed to a Devout Woman and A Revelation of Love with modern punctuation and paragraphing and partly regularized spelling A second analytic edition of A Vision printed underneath the text of A Revelation to show what was left out changed or added as Julian expanded the earlier work into the later one Facing page explanatory notes with translations of difficult words and phrases cross references to other parts of the text and citations of biblical and other sources A thoroughly accessible introduction to Julian's life and writings An appendix of medieval and early modern records relating to Julian and her writings An analytic bibliography of editions translations scholarly studies and other works The most distinctive feature of this volume is the editors approach to the manuscripts Middle English editions habitually retain original spellings of their base manuscript intact and only emend that manuscript when its readings make no sense At once more interventionist and more speculative this edition synthesizes readings from all the surviving manuscripts with careful justification of each choice involved in this process For readers who are not concerned with textual matters the result will be a more readable and satisfying text For Middle English scholars the edition is intended both as a hypothesis and as a challenge to the assumptions the field brings to the business of editing     In Love Enclosed Julian (of Norwich),1985-01
