Understanding Modern Andrew Weaving, Lisa Freedman, 2003 Written for those who want to live in a modern way but not necessarily in a modern home, this book explains the concepts behind the modern movement. It aims to bring classic buildings to life and, by identifying the trademarks of the great Modern designers, demonstrates how modern can be achieved in contemporary interiors Trousdale Estates Steven M. Price, 2017-01-10 Filled with beautiful, vivid photographs, Trousdale is the definitive history of the architecture and design that defined both Beverly Hills and the ultimate American Dream. Trousdale Estates is a 410-acre enclave of large, luxurious homes in Beverly Hills, California. Primarily developed in the 1950s and 60s it quickly became famous for its concentration of celebrity residents and the unrestrained extravagance of its midcentury modern architecture. Often working with unlimited budgets, these designers created sprawling elegant backdrops for the ultimate expression of the American Dream in the mid to late twentieth century. In Trousdale Price explores the architectural backgrounds, details, and floor plans of the amazing homes, giving readers an inside view of the world famous Beverly Hills style. Lavish new photography is interspersed with archival and historic images illustrating the glamour of Trousdale both then and now. Some of the architects of Trousdale include Lloyd Wright, Wallace Neff, Paul R. Williams, Harold Levitt, and A. Quincy Jones. Ultramodern Liz O'Brien, 2007. Biography of Chicago based architect Samuel Marx.

American Glamour and the Evolution of Modern Architecture Alice T. Friedman, 2010. Alice Friedman argues that the aesthetics of mid 20th century modern architecture reflect an increasing fascination with glamour, a term used in those years to characterise objects, people, experiences as luxurious, expressive, even magical. ID, 2006. Catalog of the Library of the Museum of Modern Art: A Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1976. The Architect's Newspaper, 2006. ICAM Print, 2007. NorCalMod Pierluigi Serraino, 2006-08-03. Many people think modernist architecture never flowered in California north of the San Fernando Valley. NorCalMod dispels that notion in a copiously illustrated history showcasing extraordinary examples of its proud contribution to the Bay Area and environs. As a style, modernist architecture was hotly debated in its day: why create modern structures where such distinctive Victorian and Arts and Crafts buildings already existed, pulling heavyweights such as Frank Lloyd Wright, Lewis Mumford, and Walter Gropius into the fray? Ultimately, that existing Bay Region Style would remain the area's architectural hallmark, but not before hundreds of important modernist projects, many still standing yet unjustly neglected today, had been established. The remarkable photos in this book open our eyes to a long lost chapter in the history of California architecture and make NorCalMod a volume to be enjoyed by those interested in California history and style as well as by architecture students and professionals. Modern Women: Women Artists at The Museum of Modern Art Alexandra Schwartz, 2010. This text examines the collection of feminist art in the Museum of Modern Art. It features essays presenting a range of generational and cultural perspectives. Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians, 1999. Includes special issues.
