A Gospel for the Poor David C. Kirkpatrick,2019-07-12 In 1974 the International Congress on World Evangelization met in Lausanne Switzerland Gathering together nearly 2 500 Protestant evangelical leaders from more than 150 countries and 135 denominations it rivaled Vatican II in terms of its influence But as David C Kirkpatrick argues in A Gospel for the Poor the Lausanne Congress was most influential because for the first time theologians from the Global South gained a place at the table of the world s evangelical leadership bringing their nascent brand of social Christianity with them Leading up to this momentous occasion after World War II there emerged in various parts of the world an embryonic yet discernible progressive coalition of thinkers who were embedded in global evangelical organizations and educational institutions such as the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students and the International Fellowship of Evangelical Mission Theologians Within these groups Latin Americans had an especially strong voice for they had honed their theology as a religious minority having defined it against two perceived ideological excesses Marxist inflected Catholic liberation theology and the conservative political loyalties of the U S Religious Right In this context transnational conversations provoked the rise of progressive evangelical politics the explosion of Christian mission and relief organizations and the infusion of social justice into the very mission of evangelicals around the world and across a broad spectrum of denominations Drawing upon bilingual interviews and archives and personal papers from three continents

Kirkpatrick adopts a transnational perspective to tell the story of how a Cold War generation of progressive Latin Americans including seminal figures such as Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar developed named and exported their version of social Christianity to an evolving coalition of global evangelicals

God's Generation of Hope Carl Barrett,2024-11-27 In a day and age where society and culture are veering further away from the teachings of God s word in homes globally it is becoming more and more evident that there is a breakdown within the walls of family homes across this great land Undoubtedly these times of confusion in the home schools and communities are escalating each passing day creating more division and disheartenment With all the spiritual threats robbing people s children of Hope something within the walls of the home must change for the well being of these young ones today more than ever If parents and family leaders don t engage with their children and rein in these apparent issues they will continue to see a generation of people spiraling out of control This book God s Generation of Hope is going to reveal some heart wrenching and eye opening facts about how external forces are creeping inside the lives of families and creating a distance between the household and Almighty God Someone must take ownership immediately for the children s state of spiritual survival Parents action is needed today to instill the Living Hope in the lives of the younger generation like never before
