Jung In Love The Mysterium In Liber Novus:

Jung in Love Lance S. Owens, 2015-11-15 Love was the great mystery in C G Jung's life. His confrontation with love for a woman and a feminine soul animated the composition of Jung's great Red Book, the book he formally titled Liber Novus. C G Jung's relationships with women during these central years of life have generated several commentaries and critiques. But the power and depth of love has figured little in most of the romances about this period patched together by biographers, dramatists, and psychoanalysts. In consequence, a crux experience of Jung's life has been miscast and little understood. Three decades after the events chronicled in his Red Book, C G Jung turned to writing a commentary on the still hidden records. In Jung in Love, Lance Owens illustrates how Jung's four last books, his last quartet of major works published after 1945, are summary statements about his experiences during the years he labored with Liber Novus. Owens illustrates how, in the first volume of this last quartet, The Psychology of the Transference, published in 1946, Jung employed a sixteenth-century alchemical text to provide context for what is in fact a statement about his own experience with love, recounted both in his private journals and in Liber Novus. Based on long sequestered documentary sources, Jung in Love offers a balanced and historically contextualized account of Jung's relationships with four women during the years that led him into the visionary experiences recorded in the Red Book: Emma Jung, Rauschenbach, Sabina Spielrein, Maria Moltzer, and Toni Wolff. Jung in Love: The Mysterium in Liber Novus was originally published as a chapter in Das Rote Buch: C G Jungs Reise zum anderen Pol der Welt, ed. Thomas Arzt, Verlag K nigshausen Neumann, 2015. This English monograph edition adds illustrations and minor corrections to the previously published edition. Jung's Red Book for Our Time: Searching for Soul In the 21st Century Murray Stein, 2022-12-10 Do we like Jung? Need to leave the spirit of the time and follow the spirit of the depths to call out my soul? Where are you through the windows of our now post-modern homes? We live in a digital world of incredible virtual interconnectedness, but at the same time fragmented and divided on many levels, including the psychological. The pace of life is rapid and ever accelerating. The spirit of the time is flux. It twitters. There is no sense of coherence in the whole. The guidance of a transcendent North Star is invisible to the naked eye of consciousness. Our existential crisis is not about the individual alone. It infects the entire human world, like the Covid-19 pandemic. Wars between cultural brothers and sisters, increasingly dire effects of climate change, economic disruptions, hunger, migration: these conditions affect everyone on the planet. Is there a spirit of the depths that can take us through this Inferno, perhaps toward the emergence of a meaningful narrative that can stabilize the global community and provide a collective sense of supreme meaning? This is the search for soul in the 21st Century. Jung's Red Book for Our Time Murray Stein, Thomas Arzt, 2021-09-25 The spiritual malaise regnant in today's disenchanted world presents a picture of a polar night of icy darkness, as Max Weber wrote already a century ago. This collective dark night of the soul is driven by climate change-related disasters, rapid technological innovations, and opaque geostrategic realignments. In the wake of what policy analysts refer to as Westlessness, the post-modern age is characterized by incessant distractions urgent calls to responsibility and in humanly short deadlines which result in a general state of exhaustion and burnout The hovering sense of living in a time frame that is post histoire induces states of confusion on a personal level as well as in the realm of politics Totally missing is a grand narrative to guide humanity's vision in the midst of a world crisis Thinkers scholars and Jungian analysts are increasingly looking to C G Jung's monumental oeuvre The Red Book as a source for guidance to re-enchant the world and to find a new and deeper understanding of the homo religiosus The essays in this series on Jung's Red Book for Our Time Searching for Soul under Postmodern Conditions circle around this objective and offer countless points of entry into this inspiring work Exploring Core Competencies in Jungian

s understanding of concepts such as visionary works and visionary mind and considers how this approach can enhance our vision of depth psychology Through various thematics such as the metanoia and the symbolism of animals as well as the transformative role of the feminine and the erotic and spiritual imagery of the soul this work revolves around the Jung Dante correlation Offering an original perspective within the field of Jungian and Dante scholarship this book will be of great interest to academics and postgraduate students studying in the areas of Jung Dante analytical psychology depth psychology hermeneutics and Western esoteric currents and practices The book will also appeal to Jungian analysts and psychoanalysts more broadly
