Justification Am I Good Enough For God:

The Evidential Argument from Evil William L. Rowe, Paul Draper, Richard Swinburne, Eleonore Stump, Alvin Plantinga, William P. Alston, Stephen J. Wykstra, Peter van Inwagen, Bruce Russell, Richard M. Gale, 2008-10-17 Is evil evidence against the existence of God A collection of essays by philosophers theologians and other scholars Even if God and evil are compatible it remains hotly contested whether evil renders belief in God unreasonable The Evidential Argument from Evil presents five classic statements on this issue by eminent philosophers and theologians and places them in dialogue with eleven original essays reflecting new thinking by these and other scholars The volume focuses on two versions of the argument The first affirms that there is no reason for God to permit either certain specific horrors or the variety and profusion of undeserved suffering The second asserts that pleasure and pain given their biological role are better explained by hypotheses other than theism Contributors include William P Alston Paul Draper Richard M Gale Daniel Howard Snyder Alvin Plantinga William L Rowe Bruce Russell Eleonore Stump Richard G Swinburne Peter van Inwagen and Stephen John Wykstra Is Goodness Without God Good Enough? Robert K. Garcia, Nathan L. King, 2009 Morality and religion intimately wed violently opposed or something else Discussion of this issue appears in pop culture the academy and the media often generating radically opposed views At one end of the spectrum are those who think that unless God exists ethics is unfounded and the moral life is unmotivated At the other end are those who think that religious belief is unnecessary for and even a threat to ethical knowledge and the moral life This volume provides an accessible charitable discussion that represents a range of views along this spectrum The book begins with a lively debate between Paul Kurtz and William Lane Craig on the question Is goodness without God good enough Kurtz defends the affirmative position and Craig the negative Following the debate are new essays by prominent scholars These essays comment on the debate and advance the broader discussion of religion and morality The book closes with final responses from Kurtz and Craig The Doctrine of Justification by Faith John Owen, 2016-09-28 A puritan approach to justification Owen explores the early church and other historical thinking about the topic of justification Then he approaches the topic of faith and how importantly that plays in our being justified Lastly he expounds on the Lord Jesus righteousness as the reason that we can stand justified The Marrow of the Church. The doctrines of Original Sin, Justification by Faith, and the Holy Spirit ... Second edition. (The Marrow of the Church. The doctrines of Christ's Righteousness imputed and Regeneration ... stated, etc. pt. 2.) William HAMMOND (B.A., of St. John's College, Cambridge.), 1814 Notes on the Scripture Lessons for ..., 1854 Pierced for Our Transgressions Steve Jeffery, Michael Ovey, Andrew Sach, 2007-10-23 The belief that Jesus died for us suffering the wrath of his own Father in our place has been the wellspring of hope for countless Christians through the ages However with an increasing number of theologians church leaders and even popular Christian books and magazines questioning this doctrine which naysayers have described as a form of cosmic child abuse a fresh articulation and affirmation of penal substitution is needed And Jeffery Ovey and Sach have responded here with clear exposition and analysis They make the case not only that the doctrine is clearly taught in Scripture but that it has an impeccable pedigree and a central place in Christian theology and that its neglect has serious consequences The authors also systematically analyze over twenty specific objections that have been brought against penal substitution and charitably but firmly offer a defining declaration of the doctrine of the cross for any concerned reader The Church of England Pulpit, and Ecclesiastical Review ,1882

Christ Crucified: Or the Marrow of the Gospel James Durham,1761 The Kingdom of God Is among You Gordon D. Fee,Cherith Fee Nordling,2025-03-17 In this exciting volume a renowned New Testament scholar provides his lectures on New Testament theology and provides us a window on his approach on a variety of issues He describes the task as follows New Testament theology is the art of giving coherence to the collective witness of the twenty seven New Testament documents as they attest to the Christian faith while not sacrificing the historical particularity of any one text or author within the canon and to do this as clearly as possible and with as much consistency and unity as possible New Testament theology deals with all the New Testament We must resist the tendency to find a canon within the canon or to neglect some lesser figures in the New Testament canon New Testament theology is first of all a descriptive task i e we must first try to describe what is there But given our stance toward Scripture what we describe also becomes prescriptive or normative We must never forget that the writings of the New Testament are ad hoc documents written in each and every case to speak to a specific need Thus rather than careful systematic presentations of theology such as in a book or a lecture the earliest Christian theology is worked out in the marketplace as it were Therefore we must be careful not to force the New Testament writers to answer all of our questions nor even to use our logic or thought forms excerpted from chapter 1 *The Workes of that Late Learned Minister of God's Holy Word, ...
