first of its kind this volume presents research based fictionalized case studies from experts in the field of dance education examining theory and practice developed from real world scenarios that call for ethical decision making Dilemmas faced by dance educators in the studio on stage in recreation centers and correctional facilities and on social media are explored accompanied by activities for humanizing dance pedagogy These challenges converge from educational policies and mandates developed over the past two decades including teacher proof scripted curriculum high stakes testing standardization and methods centered teacher preparation difficulties are often perpetuated by those who want to make change happen but do not know how Republic of Belarus International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2014-07-25 This Selected Issues paper on Belarus examines wage setting the role of wage targets as well as wage dynamics and the relationship with productivity It finds that wage targets set by the government appear to be the key driver of rapid wage growth Little regional and sectoral variation also suggests close adherence to official targets and a high degree of government control Wage growth has outpaced productivity growth as the targets do not take productivity developments into account In order to resolve these issues in the short run the authorities should aim for wage restraint to contain domestic demand and improve competitiveness More generally wage targets should be phased out to make way for more market oriented wage setting mechanisms This should be complemented by deeper structural reform dismantlement of the wider system of mandatory economic targets wage targets should be eliminated as they restrict the flexibility to respond to market conditions However reform of wage setting will not be enough on its own and should be complemented by further structural measures to remove other distortions such as direct and indirect subsidies to state owned enterprises which allow them to generate profit while at the same time maintaining excess employment

South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI New Islamic Schools S.
