1. What new suffering must Antigone and Ismene endure?

Creon has ordered that their brother, Polynices, is not to be given a proper burial.

2. Contrast Ismene and Antigone in terms of their character traits.

Antigone is determined, willful, ready to face death. She does what she believes is right to protect her honor. Ismene is passive, obedient, and feels she is powerless against the state.

3. What does Antigone plan to do? Why? What consequences will she face?

She will bury her brother because it is the will of the gods that a family gives its members a proper burial. She will face the punishment of death for disobeying Creon's order.

4. What background information does the chorus provide as they express gratitude for the peace in Thebes?

Polynices formed an army and attacked Thebes. His brother Eteocles stayed loyal to Creon and fought against Polynices. In the battle, the brothers "against each other...laid lances at aim" and both died. (Pg. 7) battle a group of beleaguered soldiers in an isolated base in Kandahar are faced with a lone woman demanding the return of her brother's body Is she a spy a black widow a lunatic or is she what she claims to be a grieving young sister intent on burying her brother according to local rites Single minded in her mission she refuses to move from her spot on the field in full view of every soldier in the stark outpost Her presence quickly proves dangerous as the camp's tense claustrophobic atmosphere comes to a boil when the men begin arguing about what to do next Taking its cues from the Antigone myth Roy Bhattacharya brilliantly recreates the chaos intensity and immediacy of battle and conveys the inevitable repercussions felt by the soldiers their families and by one sister The result is a gripping tour through the reality of this very contemporary conflict and our most powerful expression to date of the nature and futility of war
