100 What's up, America? The release of Barbie's movie has, perhaps, done more to help us see the world from the point of view of a young girl than it has to help us see the world from the point of view of a young boy. The movie is a good example of the way in which the world is seen from the point of view of a young girl. The movie is a good example of the way in which the world is seen from the point of view of a young girl.
