Central and Local Government Relations in Asia Naoyuki Yoshino,Peter J. Morgan,2017 Sustainable and inclusive growth in emerging Asian economies requires high levels of public investment in areas such as infrastructure education health and social services The increasing complexity and regional diversity of these investment needs together with the trend of democratization has led to fiscal decentralization being implemented in many Asian economies This book takes stock of some major issues regarding fiscal decentralization including expenditure and revenue assignments transfer programs and sustainability of local government finances and develops important findings and policy recommendations Public Expenditure Analysis World Bank,2005 Focuses on the public sector in developing countries Provides tools of analysis for discovering equity in tax burdens as well as in public spending and judging government performance in its role in safeguarding the interests of the poor and disadvantaged Outlines a framework for a rights based approach to citizen empowerment in other words creating an institutional design with appropriate rules restraints and incentives to make the public sector responsive and accountable to an average voter Decentralization in Client Countries ,2008-01-01 Decentralization in Client Countries assesses the effectiveness of Bank support for decentralization between fiscal years 1990 and 2007 in 20 countries seeking to inform the design and implementation of future support Given the difficulties of measuring the results of decentralization the evaluation uses intermediate outcome indicators such as strengthened legal and regulatory frameworks for intergovernmental relations improved administrative capacity and increased accountability of subnational governments and functionaries to higher levels of government and to local citizens to assess the results of Bank support in these 20 cases To examine potential lessons at a sectoral level the evaluation also assesses whether Bank support for decentralization improved intermediate outcomes for service delivery in the education sector in 6 of the 20 countries Intergovernmental Fiscal Transfers Robin W.

Boadway,Anwar Shah,2007 The design of intergovernmental fiscal transfers has a strong bearing on efficiency and equity of public service provision and accountable local governance This book provides a comprehensive one stop window source of materials to guide practitioners and scholars on design and worldwide practices in intergovernmental fiscal transfers and their implications for efficiency and equity in public services provision as well as accountable governance Local Governance in Industrial Countries Anwar Shah,2006 The information revolution in recent years has worked as a catalyst to create a globalized yet localized world with local governments playing an ever increasing role in the domestic and global economy How these governments will be able to shoulder their responsibilities especially the delivery of local services more effectively is the concern of this book The book edited by Anwar Shah provides a comparative perspective on international practices in local governance and draws lessons from these experiences to guide future reform Case studies include the following countries Argentina B Local Public Financial Management Anwar Shah,2007 Transparent and prudent local financial management has come to be recognized as critical to the integrity of local public sector and to gaining and retaining trust of local residents Such integrity and trust is sometimes lacking in some local governments in developing countries especially in the Africa region This volume attempts to provide practical guidance to local governments interested in establishing sound financial management systems Leading international experts have contributed to all relevant aspects of local public financial management cash management internal controls accounts audits and debt management Uganda

Jörg Wiegratz,Giuliano Martiniello,Elisa Greco,2018-11-15 For the last three decades Uganda has been one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Globally praised as an African success story and heavily backed by international financial institutions development agencies and bilateral donors the country has become an exemplar of economic and political reform for those who espouse a neoliberal model of development The neoliberal policies and the resulting restructuring of the country have been accompanied by narratives of progress prosperity and modernisation and justified in the name of development But this self celebratory narrative which is critiqued by many in Uganda masks the disruptive social impact of these reforms and silences the complex and persistent crises resulting from neoliberal transformation Bringing together a range of leading scholars on the country this collection represents a timely contribution to the debate around the New Uganda one which confronts the often sanitised and largely depoliticised accounts of the Museveni government and its proponents Harnessing a wealth of empirical materials the contributors offer a critical multi disciplinary analysis of the unprecedented political socio economic cultural and ecological transformations brought about by neoliberal capitalist restructuring since the 1980s The result is the most comprehensive collective study to date of a neoliberal market society in contemporary Africa offering crucial insights for other countries in the Global South

Budgeting and Budgetary Institutions Anwar Shah,2007 Budgeting and budgetary institutions play a critical role in resource allocation government accountability and improved fiscal and social outcomes This volume distills lessons from practices in designing better fiscal institutions citizen friendly budgets and open and transparent processes of budget preparation and execution It also highlights newer concepts of performance budgeting accrual accounting activity based costing and the use of information and communication technology in budgeting These tools of analysis are supplemented by a review of budgeting in post conflict countries and two country case studies on the reform of budgeting systems

Participatory Budgeting Anwar Shah,2007 This book provides rigorous and provocative understanding of the art and practice of participatory budgeting for those interested in strengthening inclusive and accountable governance

Public Sector Reform in Developing and Transitional Countries Christopher Rees,Farhad Hossain,2013-09-13 Over recent decades decentralization has emerged as a key Public Sector Reform strategy in a wide variety of international contexts Yet despite its emergence as a ubiquitous activity that cuts across disciplinary lines in international development decentralization is understood and applied in many different ways by parties acting from contrary perspectives This book offers a fascinating insight into theory and practice surrounding decentralization activities in the Public Sectors of developing and transitional countries In drawing on the expertise of established scholars the book explores the contexts achievements progress and challenges of decentralization and local governance Notably the contributions contained in this book are genuinely international in nature the chapters explore aspects of decentralization and local governance in contexts as diverse as Ghana Hong Kong India Indonesia Kazakhstan Morocco Tanzania Uganda and Viet Nam In summary by examining the subject of decentralization with reference to specific developing and transitional Public Sector contexts in which it has been practiced this book offers an excellent contribution towards a better understanding of the theory and practice of decentralization and local governance in international settings This book was published as a special double issue of the International Journal of Public Administration

Public Sector Accounting, Accountability and Governance Robyn Pilcher, David Gilchrist, 2018-07-17 Funded by taxation public spending cannot be separated from politics and ensuring efficiency and effectiveness is always high on the political and policy agenda Accounting accountability governance and auditing are essential ingredients in evaluating public sector performance Australia and New Zealand are world leaders when it comes to public sector accounting such as being the first to introduce transaction neutral accounting standards This edited collection considers current issues impacting the public sector by primarily drawing upon experiences of Australia and New Zealand Then by combining history from the time of the Domesday book early sovereignty and Shakespeare with current practice differential reporting international financial reporting standards government performance voter turnout joined up government and auditing practices we use these experiences to illuminate the global issues of public sector accounting accountability and governance Based on rigorous research by top public sector researchers this edited collection offers a multitude of future research ideas to enable those interested in following this pathway whether they are in Australia New Zealand the United Kingdom Europe the United States of America Africa or anywhere else in the world an avenue to traverse

State and Business in Tanzania's Development Samuel Mwita Wangwe, 2023-11-23 It is widely accepted that countries institutions play a major role in their economic development Yet the way they affect and are affected by development and how to reform them are still poorly understood In this companion volume State and Business in Tanzania diagnoses the main weaknesses root causes and developmental consequences of Tanzania's institutions and shows that the uncertainty surrounding its development paths and its difficulty in truly taking off are related to institutional challenges Based on a thorough account of the economic social and political development of the country this diagnostic offers evidence on the quality of its institutions and a detailed analysis of critical institution and development sensitive areas among which state business relations rank high even though the institutional features of land management civil service and the power sector are shown to be also of prime importance This title is also available as Open Access
