Speeches that Shaped South Africa Martha Evans, 2017-11-01 Great speeches have the power to bring about political change and South Africa lays claim to some of the world's most skilled orators from Nelson Mandela whose courageous statement from the dock inspired the liberation struggle to Desmond Tutu whose Rainbow People of God speech prepared the country for a new era On the other side of the political spectrum who can forget P W Botha's infamous Rubicon speech an oratorical flop which took the country backwards during the 1980s or F W de Klerk's unbanning of the ANC in 1990 which took it forwards again Speeches that Shaped South Africa is the first collection of these historic utterances featuring key speeches from the beginning of apartheid to the present It includes Harold Macmillan's Wind of Change Thabo Mbeki's I am an African and Mmusi Maimane's Broken Man speech Also featured are Bram Fischer Helen Suzman Steve Biko Winnie Mandela Oliver Tambo Julius Malema and many others The book covers past and present shenanigans in Parliament clandestine broadcasts on Radio Freedom moving funeral eulogies that celebrate our political giants and the informal rhetoric of populist crowd pleasers Accompanying each speech is a commentary that places it in a historical context and explores its effects Accessible and engaging this analysis is based on original research and offers fresh insights into events This is a fascinating journey through South African history over the past seventy years The Handbook of Civil Society in Africa Ebenezer

Obadare, 2013-09-21 This volume brings together the most up to date analyses of civil society in Africa from the best scholars and researchers working on the subject Being the first of its kind it casts a panoramic look at the African continent drawing out persisting if often under communicated variations in regional discourses In a majority of notionally global studies Africa has received marginal attention a marginality often highlighted by the usual token chapter Filling a critical hiatus the Handbook of Civil Society in Africa takes Africa African developments and African perspectives very seriously and worthy of academic interrogation in their own right It offers a critical clear sighted perspective on civil society in Africa and positions African discourses within the framework of important regional and global debates It promises to be an invaluable reference work for researchers and practitioners working in the fields of civil society nonprofit studies development studies volunteerism civic service and African studies Endorsements This volume signposts a critical turning point in the renewed engagement with the theory and practice of civil society in Africa Moving from traditional concerns with disquisitions on the appropriateness and possibility of the existence and vibrancy of the idea of civil society on the continent the volume approaches the forms contents and features of the actually existing civil society in Africa from thematic regional and national angles It demonstrates clearly the extent to which core intellectual work on civil society in Africa has largely moved from concerns with cultural reductionism to a nuanced examination of the complexities of formal non formal organizational non organizational traditional newer usual unusual engagements detailing the extent to which over time civil society as a concept has been indigenized appropriated and adapted in the terrains of politics society economy culture and new technologies on the continent In all this the book accomplishes the near impossible Without sacrificing the vigour rigor and freshness of the often unpredictable fruits of up to date research into regional and national differences that crop up in the documentation of Africa's multiple realities and discourses the volume weaves together a rich tapestry of the historical theoretical and practical dimensions of an expanding civil society sector and accompanying growth in popular discourse advocacy and academic literature in such a diverse continent as Africa into a meaningful whole of insightful themes Written and edited by a very distinguished cross continental and multi disciplinary collection of researchers research students practitioners and activists the volume provides cutting edge evidence and makes a definitive case for a new lease of life for civil society research in Africa Adigun Agbaje Professor of Political Science University of Ibadan Nigeria Throughout Africa forms of civic engagement and political participation have seen dynamic change in recent decades yet conceptions of civil society have rarely accounted for this evolution This volume is an essential source of new thinking about political association and collective action in Africa The authors offer a wealth of analysis on changing organizations and social movements new forms of interaction and communication emerging strategies and issues diverse social foundations and the theoretical implications of a shifting associational landscape The contributors provide an invaluable addition to the comparative literature on political change democratic development and social movements in Africa Peter Lewis Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced international Studies

Digital Labour and Karl Marx Christian Fuchs,2014-01-03 How is labour changing in the age of computers the Internet and social media such as Facebook Google YouTube and Twitter In Digital Labour and Karl Marx Christian Fuchs attempts to answer that question crafting a systematic critical theorisation of labour as performed in the capitalist ICT industry Relying on a range of global case studies from unpaid social media prosumers or Chinese hardware assemblers at Foxconn to miners in the Democratic Republic of Congo Fuchs sheds light on the labour costs of digital media examining the way ICT corporations exploit human labour and the impact of this exploitation on the lives bodies and minds of workers

Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders,Peter Limb,2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa s past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

Comparative Employment Relations in the Global Economy Carola Frege, John Kelly, 2013-07-24 Employment Relations is widely taught in business schools around the world Increasingly however more emphasis is being placed on the comparative and international dimensions of the relations between employers and workers It is becoming ever more important to comprehend today s work and employment issues alongside a knowledge of the dynamics between global financial and product markets global production chains national and international employment actors and institutions and the ways in which these relationships play out in different national contexts This textbook is the first to present a cross section of country studies including all four BRIC countries Brazil Russia India and China alongside integrative thematic chapters covering all the important topics needed to excel in this field The textbook also benefits from the editors and contributors experience as leading scholars in Employment Relations The book is an ideal resource for students on advanced undergraduate and postgraduate comparative programmes across areas such as Employment Relations Human Resource Management Political Economy Labour Politics Industrial and Economic Sociology Regulation and Social Policy

The Spirit of Marikana Luke Sinwell, Siphiwe Mbatha, 2016-07-20 On 16th August 2012 thirty four black mineworkers were gunned down by the police under the auspices of South Africa s African National Congress ANC in what has become known as the Marikana massacre This attempt to drown independent working class power in blood backfired and is now recognised as a turning point in the country s history The Spirit of Marikana tells the story of the uncelebrated leaders at the world s three largest platinum mining companies who survived the barrage of state violence intimidation torture and murder which was being perpetrated during this tumultuous period What began as a discussion about wage increases between two workers in the changing rooms at one mine became a rallying cry for economic freedom and basic dignity This gripping ethnographic account is the first comprehensive study of this movement revealing how seemingly ordinary people became heroic figures who transformed their workplace and their country

Murder at Small Koppie Greg Marinovich, 2016-02-03 The killing of thirty four miners by police at Marikana in August 2012 was the largest massacre of civilians in South Africa since Sharpeville The events have been covered in newspaper articles on TV news and in a commission of inquiry but there is still confusion about what happened on that fateful day In Murder at Small Koppie renowned photojournalist Greg Marinovich explores the truth behind the Marikana massacre He investigates the shootings near Wonderkop hill which happened in view of the media as well as the killings that happened beyond the view of cameras at a nondescript collection of boulders known as Small Koppie some 300 metres away Many of the men killed here were shot in cold blood at close range Drawing on his own meticulous research eyewitness accounts and the findings of the Marikana Commission of Inquiry Marinovich accurately reconstructs that fateful day as well as the events leading up to the strike and looks at the subsequent denials obfuscation and buck passing by Lonmin the SAPS and the government This is the definitive account of the Marikana massacre from the journalist whose award winning investigation into the tragedy has been called the most important piece of South African journalism since apartheid State, Capitalism, and Finance in Emerging Markets Johannes Petry, Andreas Nölke, 2025-06-24 What role do emerging markets play in the global financial system Are they subordinated within global financial hierarchies Or do they have autonomy even power to use finance to pursue state objectives In this edited volume leading scholars explore these questions focusing on state finance interactions globally The book combines literatures on international financial subordination financial statecraft and comparative capitalism to analyse state finance relationships in emerging markets particularly the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa It reveals that these states can control their domestic financial sectors despite global subordination though their ability to do so varies significantly This essential volume offers profound insights into how emerging markets are reshaping global finance for scholars and policy makers Land Reform Revisited Femke Brandt, Grasian Mkodzongi, 2018-03-12 Land Reform Revisited engages with contemporary debates on land reform and agrarian transformation in South Africa The volume offers insights into post apartheid transformation dynamics through the lens of agency and state making The chapters written by emerging scholars are based on extensive qualitative research and their analysis highlights the ways in which people negotiate and contest land reform realities and politics By focusing on the diverse meanings of land and competing interpretations of what constitutes success and failure in land reform Brandt and Mkodzongi insist on looking beyond the productivity discourses guiding research and policy making in the field towards an informed view from below Contributors are Kezia Batisai Femke Brandt Sarah Bruchhausen Nerhene Davis Elene Cloete Tariro Kamuti Tarminder Kaur Grasian Mkodzongi Camalita Naicker Fani Ncapayi Mngqobi Ngubane and Chizuko Sato

Politics at a Distance from the State Lucien van der Walt, Kirk Helliker, 2022-08-23 For decades most anti capitalist and anti imperialist movements identified radical transformation with capturing state power The collapse of these statist projects from the 1970s led to a global crisis of left and working class politics But crisis has also opened space for rediscovering alternative society centered anti capitalist modes of bottom up change operating at a distance from the state These have registered important successes in practice such as the Zapatistas in Mexico and Rojava in Syria They have been a key influence on movements from Occupy in United States to the landless in Latin America to anti austerity struggles in Europe and Asia to urban movements in Africa Their lineages include anarchism syndicalism autonomist Marxism philosophers like Alain Badiou and radical popular praxis This path breaking volume recovers this understanding of social transformation long side lined but now resurgent like a seed in the soil that keeps breaking through and growing It provides case studies with reference to South Africa and Zimbabwe and includes a dossier of key texts from a century of anarchists syndicalists insurgent unionists and anti apartheid activists in South Africa Originating in an African summit of radical academics struggle veterans and social movements the book includes a preface from John Holloway The Anthropology of White Supremacy Aisha M. Beliso-De Jesús, Jemima Pierre, Junaid Rana, 2025-01-28 White supremacy has shaped cultural anthropology from its inception yet the discipline also offers powerful tools for understanding how this corrosive force structures societies around the world The Anthropology of White Supremacy explores how this phenomenon works around the globe and within anthropology itself Gathering original essays from a diverse international group of anthropologists this collection illustrates that white supremacy far from being only a fringe belief of white nationalists and fascists is a core mainstream ideology The book includes essays about many countries including Brazil Mexico Nigeria Norway Senegal South Africa and the United States and takes up such topics as American advertising the Belgian Congo South Asian philosophies police cadets U S immigration courts Guantanamo memoirs Palestinian feminism Hollywood paparazzi and how Indigenous anthropologists can counter the damage of settler colonialism The result reveals not only how anthropology can help us to better comprehend white supremacy but also how the discipline can help us begin to dismantle it With contributions by Omolade Adunbi Samar Al Bulushi Aisha M Beliso De Jesús Michael Blakey Mitzi Uehara Carter Subhadra Mitra Channa Celina de S Vanessa Diaz Britt Halvorson Faye Harrison Sarah Ihmoud Anthony R Jerry Darryl Li Kristin Loftsdottir Christopher Loperena Keisha Khan Y Perry Jemima Pierre Jean Muteba Rahier Laurence Ralph Renya K Ramirez Junaid Rana Joshua Reno Jonathan Rosa Shalini Shankar and Maria Styve
