Ethical Questions and International NGOs Keith Horton,Chris Roche,2010-03-29 In recent decades there has been a great expansion in the number size and influence of

International Non Governmental Organisations INGOs involved in international relief and development These changes have led to increased scrutiny of such organisations and this scrutiny together with increasing reflection by INGOs themselves and their staff on their own practice has helped to highlight a number of pressing ethical questions such organisations face such as should INGOs attempt to provide emergency assistance even when doing so risks helping to fuel further conflict How should INGOs manage any differences between their values and those of the people they seek to benefit How open and honest should INGOs be about their own uncertainties and failures This book consists of sustained reflections on such questions It derives from a workshop held at Melbourne University in July 2007 that brought together a group of people for the most part reflective practitioners and moral and political philosophers to discuss such questions It explores honestly some of the current challenges and dilemmas that INGOs face and also suggests some new ideas for meeting these challenges Our hope is that the kind of explicit reflection on the ethical issues INGOs face exemplified in this publication will help to promote a wider debate about these issues a debate that in turn will help INGO managers and others to make better wiser more ethically informed decisions Routledge Handbook of NGOs and International Relations Thomas

Ndangwa Noyoo,2013-07-18 This book discusses social welfare activities in Zambia in the pre colonial colonial and post colonial periods It explains how indigenous social welfare initiatives in colonial Zambia culminated in the Federation of Welfare Societies The former became the first nationalist party in this era known as the Northern Rhodesia Congress NRC with Godwin Mbikusita Lewanika as its leader The book also elucidates how the first African government which was headed by Kenneth Kaunda attained positive human development indicators in Zambia in the 1960s Nonetheless this was at the expense of Barotseland as Kaunda's government had deliberately underdeveloped Barotseland after independence whilst harassing and imprisoning Barotse activists for decades After 1991 successive governments continued to apply Kaunda's methods The book contends that Zambia in its present form is an illegal state because the Barotseland Agreement was abrogated by Kaunda in 1969 This treaty was meant to amalgamate the former British Protectorates of Barotseland and Northern Rhodesia to form Zambia in 1964 Creating Credibility Lloyd David Brown,2008 In many countries civil society organizations CSOs are more trusted by the general public than businesses and government Business leaders might maximize their profits at the expense of the business or its customers and government officials might use their power for their own gain but CSOs depend on their good reputations and performance in order to mobilize resources They have fewer opportunities to convert resources into self interested uses Recent experience suggests however that civil society leaders can also be guilty of self interested behavior even though the rewards may be less dramatic than they are in other sectors This is especially a concern as CSOs become more influential in national and international affairs Without legitimacy in the eyes of the public and other key actors CSOs cannot effectively function in the transnational arena Civil society expert L David Brown provides approaches to assessing and enhancing the legitimacy and accountability of CSOs allowing them to reach their full potential in contributions to governance and problem solving Creating Credibility is an essential text for anyone concerned with understanding the challenges to civil society legitimacy and finding ways CSOs can respond to these challenges
