Making Peace Ed Gaffney, Terri Sortor, 2005 Have you ever felt overwhelmed by conflict When conflict arises do you run away or attack or try to make peace While some conflict is natural and can even promote creativity and change many of our disagreements result from selfish motives and behavior Making Peace A Catholic Guide to Turning Conflict into Grace shows how you can transform the storms of conflict into the grace filled waters of growth in Christ Using a simple four step process this workbook connects our call to holiness with the opportunity to demonstrate our faith in action during stressful and challenging situations The Publishers Weekly, 2005 Peacemaking Christians Michael K. Duffey, 1995 In light of modern warfare and modern Catholic teaching Duffey examines and assesses three Christian approaches to peace and war Through extensive ethical analysis of the Gulf War he examines the role of the churches to avert war the use of economic sanctions and the aftereffects of the war in the Middle East Duffey also evaluates the use of military force to overcome the ethnic conflicts in Bosnia and Somalia and recent successful resolutions All Things New Erin McCole Cupp, 2021-05-07 It is time to break the cycle Not every family is the perfect model of Catholic family life Some of us approach parenting still wounded by childhood experiences that were less than ideal When we start our own families at best we feel a bit unprepared and at worst we feel paralyzed with fear that we will repeat our parents dysfunctional abusive behaviors In All Things New Erin McCole Cupp draws on her own and others experiences to discuss how to develop a joyful family life when our own experience of being parented was damaging Erin wrote this book for moms and dads who want to parent better than they themselves were parented Drawing on the Holy Family as the model of family life and distilling practical lessons from the Two Greatest Commandments and the Beatitudes All Things New shows readers that while change isn't easy God has given us all the ingredients we need to create a holy joyful family ABOUT THE AUTHOR Erin McCole Cupp is a wife mother and lay Dominican She cohosts the monthly YouTube series Sabbath Rest Book Talk and writes the monthly Adventures of a Rosary Family column at CatholicMom.com Get to know Erin and her books at erinmccolecupp.com The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2004 Growth in Agreement III Jeffrey Gros, Thomas F. Best, Lorelei F Fuchs, SA, 2007 This volume contains the official dialogue results and common statements issued between 1998 and 2005 by an astonishingly wide range of Christian churches and communions Reflected here are the solid advances made by well established dialogue partners as well as explorations in dialogue by churches new to the dialogue process at world level Also included is the ecclesiology text adopted by WCC member churches at their assembly in Porto Alegre Brazil The Origins of War Matthew A. Shadle, 2011-03-10 Debate rages within the Catholic Church about the ethics of war and peace but the simple question of why wars begin is too often neglected Catholics assumptions about the causes of conflict are almost always drawn uncritically from international relations theory a field dominated by liberalism realism and Marxism which is not always consistent with Catholic theology In The Origins of War Matthew A Shadle examines several sources to better understand why war happens His retrieval of biblical literature and the teachings of figures from church tradition sets the course for the book Shadle then explores the growing awareness of historical consciousness within the Catholic tradition the way beliefs and actions are shaped by time place and culture He examines the work of contemporary Catholic thinkers like Pope John Paul II Jacques Maritain John Courtney Murray Dorothy Day Brian Hehir and George Weigel In the constructive part of the book Shadle analyzes the movement within international relations theory known as constructivism which proposes that war is largely governed by a set of socially constructed and cultural influences Constructivism Shadle claims presents a way of interpreting international politics that is highly amenable to a Catholic worldview and can provide a new direction for the Christian vocation of peacemaking

Decent and in Order Ronald R. Stockton, 2000-02-28 This is a systematic study of how a congregational conflict involving allegations of sexual harassment and power abuse against a minister was seriously mishandled by church authorities The conflict escalated to entangle regional and national authorities and worked its way into the civil courts Stockton focuses on the interaction of organizational dynamics and ill defined Christian concepts such as reconciliation and discipline showing that in conflict situations the ideals of pastoral care are squeezed by an organizational mentality Key themes involve the role of women in the church the complex question of sexual harassment and the interface between church law and civil law The narrative which is based on interviews and official documents captures the human dimensions of the story while simultaneously giving unique insight into congregational disputes and organizational behavior
