1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem. This involves gathering information about the situation and the people involved. It is important to understand the context and the stakes of the problem.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem. This involves gathering information about the situation and the people involved. It is important to understand the context and the stakes of the problem.

It is, however, not clear how the findings of this study can be applied to the general population. The study was conducted in a specific population, and the results may not be generalizable to other populations. Further research is needed to determine the applicability of these findings to other populations.
