Language Learners in Study Abroad Contexts Margaret A. DuFon, Eton E. Churchill, 2006-01-18 Examining the overseas experience of language learners in diverse contexts through a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches studies in this volume look at the acquisition of language use socialization processes learner motivation identity and learning strategies In this way the volume offers a privileged window into learner experiences abroad while addressing current concerns central to second language acquisition

Learning context effects Carmen Pérez Vidal, Sonia López-Serrano, Jennifer Ament, Dakota J. Thomas-Wilhelm, 2018 This book deals with the effects of three different learning contexts mainly on adult but also on adolescent learners language acquisition The three contexts brought together in the monograph include i a conventional instructed second language acquisition ISLA environment in which learners receive formal instruction in English as a Foreign Language EFL ii a Study Abroad SA context which learners experience during mobility programmes when the target language is no longer a foreign but a second language learnt in a naturalistic context iii the immersion classroom also known as an integrated content and language ICL setting in which learners are taught content subjects through the medium of the target language more often than not English used as the Lingua Franca ELF The volume examines how these contexts change language learners linguistic performance and also non linguistic that is it throws light on how motivation sense of identity interculturality international ethos and affective factors develop To our knowledge no publication exists which places the three contexts on focus in this monograph along a continuum as suggested in P rez Vidal 2011 2014 with SA as the most naturalistic context on one extreme ISLA on the other and ICL somewhere in between while framing them all as international classrooms Concerning target languages the nine chapters included in the volume analyze English and one chapter deals with Spanish as the target language As for target countries in SA programmes data include England Ireland France Germany and Spain in Europe but also Canada China and Australia While the main bulk of the chapters deal with tertiary level language learners a language learning population which has received less attention by research thus far one chapter deals with adolescent learners Carmen P rez Vidal Sonia L pez Jennifer Ament and Dakota Thomas Wilhelm all served on the organizing committee for the EUROSIA workshop held at the Universitat Pompeu Fabra Barcelona in May 2016 It is from this workshop that this monograph was inspired

Study Abroad Contexts for Enhanced Foreign Language Learning Velliaris, Donna M., 2018-04-13 Popular opinion has long assumed that learning a foreign language requires not only traditional classroom instruction but also immersion among native speakers of the language This opinion is so strongly held that students who study through immersion are believed to become more proficient than those who do not Study Abroad Contexts for Enhanced Foreign Language Learning is a critical scholarly publication that explores the importance and efficacy of international travel in the learning of a second or additional language Including various topics such as auditory orthographic training grammatical ability and learner autonomy this book is geared toward academicians students and professionals seeking current and relevant research on language acquisition through immersion and its value
