This seventh edition carries on the legacy while addressing some of the newer pressing and exciting challenges of the 21st century such as issues of language and power, language ideology, and linguistic diasporas. franca The volume explores how ELF is employed in internationally oriented personal blogs findings show how bloggers deploy an array of resources to their expressive and interactional aims combining global and local communicative practices Implications of findings in ELF and ELT terms are also discussed Language Mixing and Code-Switching in Writing Mark Sebba, Shahrzad Mahootian, Carla Jonsson, 2012-05-22 Code switching or the alternation of languages by bilinguals has attracted an enormous amount of attention from researchers However most research has focused on spoken language and the resultant theoretical frameworks have been based on spoken code switching This volume presents a collection of new work on the alternation of languages in written form Written language alternation has existed since ancient times It is present today in a great deal of traditional media and also exists in newer less regulated forms such as email SMS messages and blogs Chapters in this volume cover both historical and contemporary language mixing practices in a large range of language pairs and multilingual communities The research collected here explores diverse approaches including corpus linguistics Critical Discourse Analysis literacy studies ethnography and analyses of the visual textual aspects of written data Each chapter based on empirical research of multilingual writing presents methodological approaches as models for other researchers New perspectives developed in this book include analysis specific to written rather than spoken discourse approaches from the new literacy studies treating mixed language literacy from a practice perspective a focus on both traditional and new media types and the semiotics of both text and the visual environment Multilingual Learners and Academic Literacies Daniella Molle, Edynn Sato, Timothy Boals, Carol A. Hedgspeth, 2015-03-05 Shifting the discourse from a focus on academic language to the more dynamic but less researched construct of academic literacies this volume addresses three key questions What constitutes academic literacy What does academic literacy development in adolescent multilingual students look like and how can this development be assessed What classroom contexts foster the development of academic literacies in multilingual adolescents The contributing authors provide divergent definitions of academic literacies and use dissimilar theoretical and methodological approaches to study literacy development Nevertheless all chapters reflect a shared conceptual framework for examining academic literacies as situated overlapping meaning making practices This framework foregrounds students participation in valued disciplinary literacy practices Emphasized in the new college and career readiness standards the notion of disciplinary practices allows the contributing authors to bridge the language content dichotomy and take a more holistic as well as nuanced view of the demands that multilingual students face in general education classrooms The volume also explores the implications of the emphasis on academic literacy practices for classroom instruction research and policy Language Contact in Nepal Bhim Lal Gautam, 2021-03-27 This book examines language contact and shift in Nepal a multilingual context where language attitudes and policies often reflect the complex socio cultural and socio political relationship between minority majority and endangered languages and peoples Presenting the results of a 15 year study and making use of both quantitative and qualitative data the author presents evidence relating to
