needed for individuals to access these skills including family investments private sector institutions schools and other public programs How those systems can be strengthened How the most vulnerable individuals those who fall outside the standard systems and have missed critical building blocks in skills acquisition can be supported Countries will face trade offs often stark ones that will have distributional impacts and a bearing on their development path Committed leaders reform coalitions and well coordinated policies are essential for taking on the skills balancing act in Sub Saharan Africa Internships, Employability and the Search for Decent Work Experience Andrew Stewart, Rosemary Owens, Niall O'Higgins, Anne Hewitt, 2021-06-25 This groundbreaking book examines the growing phenomenon of internships and the policy issues they raise during a time when internships or traineeships have become an important way of transitioning from education into paid work OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2020 OECD, 2020-07-31 The COVID 19 outbreak is worsening an already fragile economic outlook Since 2013 growth has been modest and unemployment has been rising Policy uncertainty has been the main driver of low confidence and subdued investment Following a sharp fiscal deterioration in recent years the crisis also heightened debt sustainability challenges *Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa).
